CLUTCHES HIS PURSE.

John Bull Fears Bankruptcy.

Demands a Financial Basis for Settlement of Canal Controversy.

Fears His Shipping Will Be Burdened to Keep Water Flowing.

Uncle Sam Sends Man South to Figure Out Debits and Credits.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The letter of Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday regarding the British attitude towards the Panama Canal act is regarded here as an indication that the negotiations between the two countries are to have a financial basis, the Foreign Secretary's argument being that British shipping is to be burdened with an undue proportion of the charges for the maintenance of the canal through complete exemption from tolls of American coastwise shipping.

TO GET THE FACTS.

In view of this, importance attaches to an inquiry now being conducted on the isthmus by Prof. Emery R. Johnson, special commissioner on canal traffic and tolls.

Prof. Johnson already has compiled a vast amount of statistics bearing on the character and probable amount of traffic that will pass through the Panama Canal. He now is engaged in a study of the financial aspect of the result, so that the tolls may be adjusted to the needs of the canal on a strictly scientific basis, and he is expected in Washington soon with this data.

In view of Sir Edward Grey's statement, that British ships will have to pay for the American exemption, it is said that in the data already prepared by Prof. Johnson it appears that, according to the best estimate, the whole of the American coastwise traffic that is likely to pass through the Panama Canal immediately after it is opened, will be about 1,000,000 tons, or a little more than 10 per cent. of the total tonnage that will pass through the canal in the years 1915 and 1916. In the course of five years it is estimated that this American coastwise tonnage will rise to 1,414,000 tons, but as the foreign commerce will increase in like proportion, the same relation between the two will exist.

WHAT THE FIGURES SHOW.

On the face of the figures, this would indicate that the British and other foreign commerce would have to bear an additional burden of 10 per cent. in tolls over and above what it would pay were American coastwise shipping not exempted. It is pointed out, however, that a proportionate share of this burden would have to be borne by American ships in the foreign trade, which consequently would be on a precise equality with British ships.

Prof. Johnson's statistics disclose another factor that doubtless will be urged by the American negotiators. This is set out in his comparison of the Suez Canal with the Panama route. After pointing out the many advantages of the Suez in the way of coaling facilities, low insurance rates superior opportunities for picking up cargoes between terminals and the like. Prof. Johnson declares that the only possibility of the Panama Canal getting a fair share of the world's business is to place the tolls at a figure actually lower than by the Suez route. These are now $1.25 per ton, so that the rate on the American canal must be sensibly lower than this, and the professor has even mentioned a flat dollar rate for the first few years of the canal's operation.

TONS OF BUSINESS.

On the basis of 10,000,000 tons business, this would yield an income adequate to most of the cost of operations and maintenance of the canal—$3,500,000—allow $500,000 a year for sanitation of the zone and provide a

MISSIONARY CHARGED WITH FOMENTING A CONSPIRACY.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEOUL (Korea) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The trial of 123 Koreans alleged conspirators in the plot to kill Count Terauchi, Governor General of Korea, is rapidly nearing an end. It is believed they will be dealt with leniently by the court.

Yun-Chi-Ho, a Christian missionary, is alleged to be the head and brains of the alleged plot. He stoutly maintains his innocence and the boards employing him say the charge is absurd.

Matsudaera, Chief Procurator, demanded terms of penal servitude totaling 751 years as punishment at the conclusion of the prosecution's case. M. Miyake, barrister for the defense, pleaded that the prestige of the court would be completely lost if the prisoners should be convicted and punished on the ground that they conspired against the life of the Governor General.

It was asserted that some of the prisoners who had confessed had been released afterward and consequently the others also should be liberated.

ADE IS DISGUSTED.

Humorist Returns Rain Soaked. English Farmers Trolling for Hay and Seining for Oats.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Ade, the humorist, returned from Europe in a disgusted frame of mind today. He said it rained all the time he was in England and that farmers there were trolling for hay and seining for oats. Not only are there changes in weather, but English dandies are reviving side whiskers and frilled shirts. Mr. Ade predicts the rage of trailing arbutus whiskers, frilled shirts and spats in this country, for English fashion makers have revived all of them beyond danger of relapse.

Mr. Ade said Venice could show nothing in the way of water on England this season. Stilts and boats were regularly employed in many cities and towns because of constant floods. Crops have been seriously damaged and in some cases ruined.

The Excitement of Volplaning Proves Too Much for Man Safe on Earth.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Seeing an aeroplane darting and volplaning 1000 feet in the air caused the death here today of Thomas Canaugh, a wealthy citizen of Brockville. He was seated in the grand stand watching the evolutions of Aviator Hemstrough when, becoming excited at the birdman's gyrations, he suddenly toppled over dead. Heart disease was given as the cause of death.

Forecasters Warn to Prepare for Worst September in History.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Five deaths and forty prostrations were reported today as the result of the hottest day of 1912. The thermometer while registering 95 in the downtown district, was 96 in other sections of the city and in the open, under the sun's direct rays, registered 100.

On the Midway, supposed to be the coolest region of the city, the mercury climbed to 96 in the shade at 2 p.m., while out in the park, even with a slight breeze, it was 100 degrees.

SHORTAGE OF ICE.

A shortage of ice resulted in the poorer districts, and babies, aged persons and the ill suffered intensely. The county and private charities were besieged by hundreds of poor pleading for relief.

Tons of ice were given away, but the requests were only half satisfied. The stifling air of the tenement districts with the odors arising from the stock yards made that section of the South Side almost an inferno, and drove thousands over to the lake front.

A slight breeze sprang up in the evening, but it only carried the heated air from the crowded districts to the other sections of the city without affording any relief to the poor.

HOTTER DAY PROMISED.

A hotter day tomorrow is the forecast given out in the Weather Bureau. No signs of a break in temperatures are yet discerned in this quarter and the prospects are that the present hot period will continue several days longer at least. It is strongly possible the official temperature of 95 degrees and the unofficial mark of 96 will be passed before the week is over.

With several days more of hot weather in sight it seems probable all records for September hot waves will be broken in the East this year. The high mark for any September day for the past thirty years is 98 and this figure seems to be in danger this year.

HEAT AND HUMIDITY.

The heat and humidity are so great tonight that few are able to sleep and Grant Park, along the lake front in the downtown district, is crowded with persons sleeping on the grass. Lincoln Park on the North Side is also crowded. The police are making no effort to enforce the ordinance against sleeping in the parks as this is the only relief for the poor.

During the last twenty-four hours eight dogs have gone crazy and twelve persons have been bitten by the animals.

The terrific heat started last night at midnight and continued all day. At midnight it was 82 degrees and although it dropped to 78 at 6 in the morning it was again 82 at 8 o'clock and 84 at 9. At 11 it had risen to 90 and hour by hour it crept up a degree each hour until the high mark was reached.

Kansas Equines Falling by Thousands—Funeral Fires Glow at Night. Situation Most Serious.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Sept. 5.—The skies of Western Kansas glow at night with the funeral fires of plague-stricken horses. This is the report of travelers who pass through the twenty-six counties to which the disease has now spread.

"Four thousand horses, representing a cash value of nearly half a million dollars, have died in these counties," said J. H. Mercer, State Live Stock Sanitary Commissioner, today. "If the disease continues to spread at the present rate it is but a matter of a few days until the whole of Kansas is included in its ravages, and there is nothing to insure it staying within the State boundaries. It is the most serious situation Kansas has ever faced."

REVOLUTIONISTS LOSE.

PANAMA, Sept. 5.—The dispatch from the Nicaraguan Minister of Finance, Pedro Cuadra, says the government has defeated the revolutionists near Leon, capturing the commanders and many war supplies. Gen. Arsence Cruz, according to the authority, has defeated the revolutionists at Tipitapa. Gen. Versan Saenz has captured Tisma.

KING AND DIPLOMATS COME TO HER AID.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Carmen Prevost, a pretty London girl, daughter of Mrs. Teresa O. Prevost of No. 1417 K street Northwest, Washington, is anxiously awaiting the result of the fight her mother has waged in Washington for the Prevost share of $906,666.76 claim against the Chilean government, recently adjudicated by influence of the King of England and paid to the State Department.

Mrs. Prevost is one of the heirs of the firm of Alsop & Co., which did an extensive mining business in Chile, Bolivia and Peru, but which lost all its possessions when the Chilean government cancelled its concession.

Scouring the Ocean.

DERELICT YACHTSMEN HELPLESSLY ADRIFT.

A MAN and a woman are clinging desperately to the hulk of a water-logged sailboat several miles out from Sunset Beach, waiting for aid to reach them. Rescue boats scoured the dark waters all night in the hopes of picking them up, but lack of searchlights and scarcity of boats made the task last night seem hopeless.

Another man aboard the boat, giving his name as Gould, swam two miles ashore at Los Poteras to secure aid and when he had notified Division Foreman Andy Haskins of the Pacific Electric he secured passage in a row boat from the Bolsa Chica Gun Club manned by two employees there and started out to sea in the flimsy craft hoping to pick up the drifting ones.

The Long Beach police sent Capt. William Loop and his crew of two men out in the former's forty-foot gasoline launch about 9:30 o'clock and it was calculated that it would take the boat two hours to reach the spot where the boat capsized. Bonfires were ordered lighted along the beach and more boats were hustled out.

Meanwhile the tide began going out and it is calculated that the drifting sail boat started out to sea, as there was practically no wind to blow it shoreward. It may be many miles out from shore and the clinging figures must be suffering intensely from cold if they have not already slipped their holds and sunk into the deep.

The absence of wind last night gave the beach police some hope that the derelicts may have escaped, as with a calm sea it would be possible to retain hold of the bottom-up boat unless the numbing cold caused the fingers to stiffen and let go.

Gould lives in San Pedro and owns a sailing yacht. He told Haskins that he was bowling along under a good breeze when the centerboard broke and he was rendered helpless to operate the craft, as the sea rushed in through the hole where the centerboard ripped out and water-logged his craft.

Manager A. Andrews of the Bolsa Chica Gun Club was the first to furnish assistance, sending two of his deputies out with the most seaworthy row boat he had. Gould accompanied them. Up to an early hour this morning nothing had been heard from them.

One-Day Honeymoon Precedes Separation—Courtship Dreams Fail to Come True, Says Bride.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] One day of married life convinced Mrs. Blanche Boyce that she preferred a life of single blessedness, according to a divorce bill filed by her husband in the Superior Court here today. The pair ran away in August, 1910, and were married in Bloomington. They returned to Chicago the next day, and the following afternoon the bride deserted her husband, saying she preferred to be single.

"The tying of the marriage knot proves that the realities are different from the dreams of courtship," was all the satisfaction she gave Boyce, he says, when she deserted him.

PACKER IS LIABLE.

Armour's Demurrer Overruled in Damage Suit for Injury Alleged to Be Due to Infected Pork.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—In overruling a demurrer interposed by Armour & Co., in a damage suit brought by Sophia Kelterer, who alleged that she had been poisoned by infected pork prepared by the defendant, Judge Noyes in the United States District Court ruled today that the packer, not the middleman or retailer, is responsible.

"The producer should be held responsible for the result of negligent acts which he can readily foresee," said the court.

Armour contended a manufacturer who deals with the middleman and not directly with the consumer owes the latter no duty whatever, except the duty of refraining from knowingly and willfully inflicting injury.

This is said to have been prearranged and is known to have been the object of Gen. Orozco's mysterious march.

TUCSON (Ariz.) Sept. 5.—Because of increasing trouble on the Mexican border all of the United States troops remaining at Fort Huachuca have been ordered to move tomorrow morning.

One troop of cavalry will go to Elgin on the Nogales railroad, another to Patagonia, a mining camp east of Nogales, and a third to the international line near Douglas, where it is feared trouble may be caused by an organized band of cowboys who are eager to go to Cananea, to assist the Americans there in the event of a rebel attack.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Every effort is being made by the State Department to get arms and ammunition to the Americans in the Cananea district to enable them to protect themselves against the ravages of the rebels who infest that country.

Today a request from the residents there was received at the State Department asking for 500 rifles immediately, accompanied by 200 rounds of ammunition for each gun.

Attempts are being made to ascertain where the nearest rifles available for this purpose can be obtained, and when this is learned, President Taft will be called upon to make an exception to his proclamation prohibiting the transportation of arms across the border.

ANOTHER TOWN SACKED BY ZAPATA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 5.—Zapatistas, crossing from the States of Guerrero and Puebla into the State of Oaxaca, are reported to have captured San Miguel Ahuahuetlian yesterday, and after sacking the town to have celebrated their victory by burning most of the houses. Carlos Mendez, a wealthy merchant, was seized and cremated in the flames of his own store.

Volunteers made a sharp fight, but were overcome by the invaders. The barbarities that followed were similar to those reported from other districts attacked by the Zapatistas. The leader of the rebel band is said to be Eufemino Zapata, brother of Emiliano and Centeno, and one of the men who broke jail at Puebla after having been confined on the charge of having murdered five Germans, one a woman, at Covadonga.

A part of the rebel band later in the day, according to the reports, was engaged by State troops in a hard fight at Silacayoapam, a short distance away.

PENNSYLVANIA SECESSIONISTS.

Hilles Would Purge State Electoral Ticket.

Substitution of Genuine Republicans Demanded.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Chairman Charles D. Hilles and other members of the Republican National Committee took steps today in another effort to supplant Roosevelt electors on the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania with Taft men.

The proposal of Bill Flinn that Taft electors be substituted for Roosevelt electors after he had succeeded in obtaining signatures to petitions naming the Roosevelt men on a Washington party ticket has not been accepted, and some other plan is to be tried.

PENOSE ARRIVES.

Senator Penrose came here today and conferred with William Barnes and other members of the National Committee on the subject. Mr. Barnes is the chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Republican National Committee.

While neither Mr. Barnes nor Senator Penrose would say what would be done, Chairman Hilles gave out a letter of more than 1000 words addressed to Henry C. Wasson, chairman of the Republican State committee of Pennsylvania.

HILLES'S STATEMENT.

In this letter Mr. Hilles reviewed the situation in that State and said:

"From the standpoint of decency and honor the Roosevelt electors should not defer their retirement from the Republican ticket another day. They should not force the Republican managers to appeal to the courts to compel them to withdraw."

Of Flinn and his proposal, Mr. Hilles said:

"William Flinn, the head of the Republican secessionists in Pennsylvania, is admittedly the influence which has prevented the elimination from the Republican ticket of the Roosevelt electors."

FLINN'S PURPOSE.

The chairman declared that Mr. Flinn's purpose was to destroy the Republican party in the nation and at the same time further his ambition to enter the United States Senate. In conclusion Mr. Hilles said:

"It is a matter of the most vital importance that the Republican ticket is completed in the shortest possible time. To stand in the way of the immediate substitution of genine Republicans for the Roosevelt electors is perfidious and dishonorable. It is not sufficient assurance to say that this will be done 'in a very short time.' It must be done now.

"I therefore ask you to telegraph each of the electors who will not support the President to forward his resignation without further delay, in order that the Republican ticket may be completed."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 5.—Gov. William Spry and Congressman Joseph Howell were nominated to succeed themselves by the Republicans of Utah in State convention here today. There was no opposition to either. The only fight in the convention developed in the selection of the running mate for Congressman Howell. After the second ballot the fight for nomination was between Harry S. Joseph and Judge Jacob Johnson. Joseph led on three ballots but on the fourth the out of town delegates combined against him and named Johnson.

United States Senator George Sutherland delivered the keynote speech of the convention attacking Theodore Roosevelt. He referred to Roosevelt as "a comet, a tramp of the skies, mostly gas, which will disclose its true character when the hot air comes in contact with the solid body of the Republican party."

CHARLOTTE (N. C.) Sept. 5.—Republicans of North Carolina yesterday came to the parting of the ways and two State conventions were held, one by the supporters of Mr. Taft, and another by the followers of Col. Roosevelt. As a result of the clash there will be two electoral and two State tickets in the field. The split followed a meeting of the State Committee, which voted to bar from the floor of the regular convention delegates who were openly in favor of the candidacy of Roosevelt. When this was announced, several hundred delegates met in a separate convention and agreed to name a complete State ticket and electoral ticket.

Thomas Settle of Asheville, was nominated by the Republican convention for Governor. The Roosevelt convention nominated Zebulon V. Walser of Lexington for Governor.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 5.— Roosevelt spent the day in St. Paul and Minneapolis, making three speeches. Tonight he resumed his journey westward with Grand Forks, N. D., as his next stopping place. He declared the nomination of Prof. Wilson at Baltimore was arranged by the Democratic "bosses."

Roosevelt drifted for a moment into "practical" politics, saying that Gov. Wilson had said the Democratic platform was not a programme. "Then what is it?" he asked. "The minute any men announce that their platform does not tell the truth they condemn themselves for putting it out and they condemn the man who is compelled to stand upon it."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VISALIA, Sept. 5.—The contest for Assemblyman in the Fifty-fourth District is so close, according to the semi-final returns, that an official count will be necessary to determine the result. Late returns from all precincts in the district give J. M. Burke, Republican, 603, as against 602 for G. W. Willie, the incumbent, who is a Progressive Republican. These two lead the other candidates. Burke is Deputy District Attorney of Tulare county, and was formerly president of the student body at the University of California.

Ira Jones, who contested with Gov. Blease for the gubernatorial nomination, brought the charges. The new turn of events eliminated all possibility of having a second primary election next Tuesday.

Plain Stealing.

CALIFORNIA THEFT ROUSES HILLES'S IRE.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Chairman Hilles of the Republican National Committee, made the following statement today:

"Republicans throughout the country, right thinking citizens and fair-minded, should realize the situation in California. Johnson, who is the candidate for Vice-President on the third-term ticket, controls the election machinery. When he abandoned the Republican party he should have in common decency surrendered the Republican party's affairs into the hands of citizens.

"But no question of honor or decency appealed to him and with the purpose to favor the naming of electors who would vote for Roosevelt and himself, he organized the primary campaign and secured the nomination, under the name of Republicans of men who had left the Republican party and who are working to defeat the Republican candidate. Under the California primary law the Legislative candidates named at the primaries, acting with the holdover part of the State Senate name the electors. Johnson by refusing to fight under his own flag, has deliberately planned to steal the Republican California electors and name men under the Republican emblem who will vote for the third-term ticket. This compels the Republican party to name its electors by petition.

"No one can properly characterize this proceeding of political depravity, personal cowardice and treacchery. It is plain stealing, a piece of trickery to which no honorable man would descend. Johnson was nominated, a minority candidate, by the Republicans of California and received from them his first political honor and preferment. He has reciprocated by abandoning their party, giving aid and comfort to its enemy and he winds up by stealing the party's organization, its emblem and by fraud and chicanery tries to secure for himself and his party votes that are intended for the Republican candidate."

fair rate of interest on the $375,000,000 which the canal has cost, not to speak of the possibility of providing for a sinking fund. Allowing two per cent. interest on the capital invested in the canal and 1 per cent. for a sinking fund, the total of the annual charges on the canal are likely to be more than $15,000,000, or about 50 per cent. more than the great revenue from tolls.

With these figures before them, and the rate on British shipping fixed far below the actual cost of the service by conditions over which the United States government has no control, it is believed by officials here that they will have little difficulty in showing that the exemption of American coastwise traffic from tolls has no influence upon British shipping, and consequently that no discrimination is proposed in violation of the treaty rights.

BRITISH PRESS PEEVED.

American Policy Relating to Panama Canal Doesn't Look Good to Our British Cousins.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Panama continues to absorb a great share of attention by the British press. The opinion was current today that the government was likely to abstain from pressing its arbitration proposal until after the election, with the hope that the United States will then amend the bill.

A Washington dispatch says:

"It is believed that when Great Britain fully understands that free tolls apply only to the American coastwise trade in which British shipping cannot participate all reasons for her desiring arbitration will disappear."

This belief finds no echo in the English press. The effect of exemption of coastwise vessels has been fully discussed. The Times, which is publishing a series of articles on the canal, replying to a letter by La Fayette Young, former United States Senator, now in England, who wrote to the same effect, says:

"He forgets that the cost of maintaining the canal is to be met by the dues levied. If American vessels are not contributing their share of the upkeep the amount to be borne by vessels of other nations will be so much the heavier. In other words, American coastwise shipping will be using the canal mainly at the cost of foreign steamers."

Several shippers have advanced a similar argument.

The British Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, in a letter to the Gateshead Chamber of Commerce, says the government is making representations to the United States government concerning the Panama bill.

He adds that there seems no doubt that the adoption of the bill providing for the free use of the canal by American coastwise vessels is a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, as the canal will not be opened on terms of entire equality to the ships of all nations.

Sir Edward advances an argument as to the unequal distribution of costs similar to that used by the Times.

Boy of Five Called Upon to Make Choice by Unusual Will of the Lad's Father.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "It is my request and my command that my said son shall in no event go and abide with his mother who was my former wife, but now divorced from me."

Five-year-old Thomas Michael Schmitt, who lives with his grandparents at No. 369 North Twenty-third street, was bequeathed $5 in the will of his father, Michael Schmitt of Albuquerque, N. M., which was admitted to probate this afternoon. The balance of Schmitt's estate, amounting to several thousand was given in trust to his brother, John Schmitt, Jr. and Henry J. Schmitt, for the use of the youngster in the event that he continues to live with his grandfather, John Schmitt, Sr., or with either of his uncles. The will provides that if the boy ever choses to live with his mother, the property shall go to the brothers and sisters of the testator, and the boy shall be disinherited. Schmitt died in Albuquerque, N. M., May 9.

Plucky President Hobbles Up Mayflower's Gangplank.

Will Fill Speaking Engagement at New London.

Friends Say Mr. Taft Will Shortly Recover.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Still nursing his right ankle, but determined to keep his engagement with the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association at New London, Ct., tomorrow, President Taft left New York late today on the yacht Mayflower, for a sail up Long Island Sound.

C. P. Taft, the President's brother; Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and George Sheldon, its treasurer, accompanied him. Tonight and tomorrow before he arrives in New London, the President expects to hold a long political conference with these three men.

Mr. Taft plainly showed the pain he felt from his injured ankle. At the Pennsylvania station here, he was taken by wheel chair and elevator directly to a waiting automobile and had but few steps to make. He, however, had to walk the Mayflower's gangplank and he did it with care.

Maj. Thomas L. Rhoades, the President's personal aide, and the physician, who accompanied him on the trip, declared today the ankle was so much better that Mr. Taft would be out enjoying his vacation next week.

The President's engagement in New London will keep him only a few hours and he expects to board the Mayflower tomorrow afternoon and steam up to Beverly. It was said today that Mr. Hilles and C. P. Taft will go on to Beverly with the President. Mr. Sheldon may accompany them as well. The Mayflower is due in Beverly early Saturday and the President has no engagements that will take him away from there again for several weeks.

The Chief Magistrate's Start From the Capital Is Attended by Number of Difficulties.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—President Taft left for New York at 10 a.m. on his way to New London and Beverly. His lame ankle was still troubling him. He was wheeled to his automobile from the White House door. He walked, however, the few steps from his motor car to his train at the station. Mr. Taft is due in New York late today to go aboard the yacht Mayflower.

Every preparation had been made by White House and railroad officials to make the President's trip as easy as possible. He had breakfast in his own room in the White House, was wheeled out to the elevator and from the elevator to a waiting automobile. Officials at the Union Station had placed the President's private car on the level with an adjacent street and he needed to make only a few steps to get aboard.

There was some talk today that the President might not stop at New London tomorrow to address the Atlantic Deeper Waterway Association, but he left with the intention of making the speech.

Doctor En Route from Manila Still in Ignorance of the Death of His Fiancee.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Dr. Phillip Newton, a special representative of the Smithsonian Institute recently assigned to Manila is now crossing the Pacific Ocean to claim Miss Alice Dorothy Nixon as his bride, all unaware that on Tuesday she gave her life to save a drowning companion and that she was this afternoon buried in Glenwood cemetery.

Dr. Newton began his journey from Manila on the very day that Miss Nixon was drowned.

A cablegram was sent Dr. Newton advising him of the death of his bride-to-be, but it did not reach Manila until after he had sailed. He, too, sent a cablegram that was never received by the person to whom it was addressed. It was addressed to Miss Nixon saying he was leaving Manila on the next boat.

SIX TROOPS OF CAVALRY GOING TO THE BORDER.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Possible danger of property depredations on the American side in the Big Bend county because of the large number of Mexican rebels encamped in that section resulted in an order being issued today for the six troops of the Fourteenth Cavalry stationed at Ft. Clark to proceed to the frontier at once.

Owing to the menacing position of the revolutionists and the widespread activities of bands of brigands and smugglers it is probable that even more troops will be rushed to the Rio Grande.

Gen. Salazar, with 1000 rebels, is in the Caputian Mountains west of Sabinal Station on the Mexican Northwestern Railway and 700 other rebels are encamped ten miles below Quitman, according to dispatches to the War Department from Brig.-Gen. Steever in command of the Department of Texas. There are also about 300 rebels eighteen miles southeast of Juarez and they seem to be in control of the situation.

RAIN OUT OF SEASON IN SAN FRANCISCO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—For the second time in sixty-three years it rained on September 5 in this city, according to the records of the weather bureau. The other time was on September 5, 1887. The storm warning has been put up and never before has this been done at this time of the year. The rain that began this morning extends from San Francisco northward to the extremity of the Sacramento Valley and through the Coast counties. There is to be more rain tonight and tomorrow and it will make its way southward by easy stages, said the weather man tonight.

"There was a cold snap last night in the mountains back of San Bernardino, where the mercury dropped to 40 degrees and all over Nevada, where the people shivered in a temperature of 32 degrees."

Old Scow Sails Three Thousand Miles From Golden Gate Without Wetting Deck.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—From the Golden Gate to the Arctic in a seventeen-ton bay scow, forty-six years old, is the voyage reported in a letter dated Point Barrow, August 18, and published here today.

H. C. Slate, an old trader, was skipper, and Peter Peterson mate, cook and crew. "At no time during the 3000-mile trip," writes Peterson, "did we get the decks wet as they were while we were being towed to sea by a launch."

Slate hadn't money enough to freight his trading goods up the Coast, so he bought the Alice Stofer, stocked and loaded her, and set sail on May 16, as his friends thought, for Davy Jones's Locker. For the greater part of the voyage, he writes, the wheel was lashed and the Stofer sailed herself.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] The engagement of Miss Amelia Carolyn Bull and Ensign Jesse Barronto Oldendorff, U.S.N., is announced today by Miss Bull's mother, Mrs. George Alexandria Newman, Jr., of Louisville, Ky. Miss Bull has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Stewart at Mare Island. Ensign Oldendorff is attached to the Preble at San Diego, but expects to be ordered north shortly. It is probable that the wedding will take place at Mare Island.

WHY THE NEWPORT SANK. WHARF COLLAPSED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Photographs on view here today explain how the Pacific Mail liner Newport was sunk last month, fully loaded, while lying at her pier in Balboa Harbor, Panama. The Canadian wrecking steamer Salvor, dispatched to her relief from Victoria, B. C., is due at Balboa today. The pictures show that the wharf collapsed, and in so doing toppled across the superstructure of the Newport two massive steel cranes. The liner heeled inshore, filled and sank. At low tide her upper decks are out of water.

TACOMA BANKER MISSING NINETEEN YEARS REAPPEARS.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Linus E. Post, expresident of the Tacoma Bank, controlled by George Vanderbilt, who disappeared in New York City in the spring of 1893, has been located in India. Aged and broken, he wrote to his beautiful and only daughter, Mrs. McLaren Post McFee of Liverpool, who sent him funds to come to her.

In 1888 Post came to Tacoma and established the Tacoma Building and Savings Association, which soon opened a bank. The bank thrived and Post bought the Tacoma Theater building, just completed, and moved the bank into its corner store. George Vanderbilt bought a large block of stock and later saw the bank safely through the panic of 1893.

Post bade a party of friends goodnight at the entrance to a New York cafe, where he had entertained them after the theater. He spoke one word to his cab driver, entered a cab and drove rapidly away. He possessed considerable money, and was unheard from after that moment until Mrs. McFee heard from him in India a few weeks ago.

One Tacoman claimed to have seen Post in a Paris cafe with two women about ten years ago. Friends first thought that Post had been murdered. New York was searched, but his cab driver could not be found. Later his bank's name was changed. Ten years ago George and Frederick Vanderbilt liquidated it.

Post originally lived near Buffalo. Once there he disappeared leaving part of his apparel on the bank of the Erie Canal. Domestic trouble is said to have been the cause. He spent eight years in Mexico, engaged in railroad contracting and later was connected with the M. K. and T. Railroad in Kansas and Missouri before reappearing, rejoining his family and coming to Tacoma.

COUNTY LOSES MANY DOLLARS.

Ten Thousand in Gold Missing from Treasury.

Merced County Officials Are Much Puzzled.

Can't Tell When Theft Was Committed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MERCED (Cal.) Sept. 5.—Ten thousands dollars in gold is missing from the Treasury of Merced county. The loss was discovered yesterday but not announced until today, after accountants had worked all night on the books.

Beyond the bald fact of the loss, only one thing is sure, the theft must have been committed in daylight when the county safe stood open, for the time-lock is set at night and there is no evidence that it had been tampered with.

No suspicion attaches to George W. Kibby, the County Treasurer, nor has Sheriff Cornell or District Attorney Shaffer, who are working on the case, the faintest clew.

Once a month the county takes stock of cash on hand. Yesterday was the day for striking a balance and, as the shortage was not discovered until then, the cash may have been stolen any time during the past 30 days.

The count is made by the District Attorney, and the auditor and chairman of the Board of County Supervisors. Their best recollection is that the missing gold was contained in a single sack. Some one who had familiar access to the treasurer's office, it it believed, must have gained his attention while a confederate lifted the sack of gold.

Two Los Angeles Tourists Participate in Novel Entertainments in the South Sea Islands.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Eating suckling pig and raw fish at divers feasts given in their honor by Tahitian chiefs, was one of the diversions of a South Sea trip, from which Miss Marjorie Cole and Miss Ruth Raymond of Los Angeles and Miss Katherine Douglass of Fresno, returned today on the liner Tahiti.

They climbed mountains, fed with the best natives swimmers, and disturbed the equipoise of the hearts of several young French army officers in Papette. Miss Douglass, who is a teacher of modern languages in the Fresno High School, and whose reputation of a mountain climber had been established since she visited Switzerland several years ago, ascended Mount Morea on the island of that name in the Tahitian group, a feat never before even attempted by a woman.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] The harbor defenses of San Francisco today were thoroughly inspected by Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, who visited the army posts about the bay and closely examined their equipment.

WATER SUPPLY IS SHORT.

Clogging of Wells and Low Level of Rivers Seriously Embarrass State Institutions.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A shortage of water supply at the Mendocino, Napa and Agnews State hospitals, and at the Home for the Feeble Minded at Eldridge, has led to inspections and the making of new arrangements for securing water, under the direction of Genereal Superintendent Hatch and Assistant State Engineer Norboe. Norboe said today that while the situation at Agnews was one of the natural clogging of artesian wells with silt, and the increase of consumption of water, the other three institutions were suffering because of the low level of the streams.

NAVAL MAN WILL WED.

Ensign Oldendorf of the Preble Will Lead Daughter of Kentucky to the Altar.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] The engagement of Miss Amelia Caroline Bull and Jesse Barrett Oldendorf, U.S.N., is announced today by Miss Bull's mother, Mrs. George Alexander Newman, Jr., of Louisville, Ky. Miss Bull has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Stewart, at Mare Island. Ensign Oldendorf is attached to the Preble at San Diego, but expected to be ordered North shortly. It is probable that the wedding will take place at Mare Island.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—In an opinion handed down this morning in the case of Mrs. J. H. Moore against L. P. Williams, Auditor of Sacramento county, the Third District Appellate Court upheld the constitutionality of the Juvenile Court law and issued a writ on County Auditor Williams to pay Mrs. Moore, who is assistant county probation officer, the salary which he has refused to pay her since last June on the grounds that the act establishing the Juvenile Court law and the position of county probation officer was unconstitutional.

BOARD TACKLES TAX PROBLEMS.

EQUALIZERS WILL START STATE-WIDE INQUIRY.

Also, Comptroller Says, the Decision of the Supreme Court in the Mulford Case Will Necessitate a General Revision of the Revenue Laws by the Coming Legislature.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—An apparent need for a revision of the rates of taxation levied against corporations under the corporation tax law "amendment No. 1," which was adopted in October, 1910, has led to the commencement of a thorough and State-wide investigation of the taxation situation in California by the members of the State Board of Equalization. State Comptroller Nye today made public a circular which he is sending to city and county tax collectors, auditors and assessors and "all other interested parties," in which he asks for co-operation with the board in the task that has been attempted, the results of which are to be contained in a comprehensive report to the State Legislature when it meets for the 1913 session.

The recent decision of the State Supreme Court in the Mulford case, declaring the corporation license tax law and fee bill unconstitutional, Nye says necessarily will cause a great deal of work by the next session of the Legislature in revising the State revenue laws generally. This decision, says Nye, "foreshadows a radical revision of the corporation license tax act, if not its total repeal, and there are also some other conditions which have a serious bearing on the revenue situation."

The revision of the corporation tax rates, however, Nye believes, will be the chief subject of the legislative efforts on revenue laws. And this revision, it seems indicated, will be a "revision upward" despite the protests of many corporations that the taxes already levied under this law are excessive. The State requires more revenue to meet its increasing obligations

The object of the investigation started by the equalizers is to ascertain two general conditions:

(1.) Are tax payers on general property paying a fair share of its actual value toward the upkeep of government?

(2.) Are corporation tax payers contributing a fair rate of tax, in proportion to their wealth, toward government support?

WOMEN AS JURORS.

Undertakers' Wives Vary Convention Programme by Assisting in "Coroner's Inquest."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LODI (Cal.) Sept. 5.—Twelve wives of undertakers sat on a Coroner's jury here and decided that Hido Yamamoto, a Japanese, died from natural causes. They were the wives of the delegates to the convention of the Funeral Directors' Association, now in convention at Stockton. Lodi entertained the delegates, and in deference to the women Coroner Wallace allowed them to sit on the jury.

Hunchback Girl Is Cured by Surgeons, and Now She Stands Perfectly Erect.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—A remarkable cure of curvature of the spine is announced at the Methodist hospital here. The case is that of Adele Weinberg, a young girl hunchback.

The surgeon removed part of one of the lumbar vertebrae, found to be diseased, and in its place used a section of leg bone. The plaster cast in which the child was encased following the operation, has now been removed, and she is erect as though her spine had been normal from birth.

STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN REGULATES STOMACH AT ONCE.

Time It! No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness Five Minutes After Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you every try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

Dr. and Mrs. Adams are en route to America from Europe, and will come on to Kingston at once. He succeeded Prof. Kalmus in the physics department.

BRYAN GIVES HIS OPINION.

Nebraskan Says Third-Term Question Would Be More Important If Roosevelt Could Win.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, Sept. 5.—"If Roosevelt could win, then, in my opinion, the Presidential third-term question would be of more importance in this campaign than any economic issue. The evils resulting from any other issues could more easily be corrected than the evils that would arise from the overthrow of the two-term limit for Presidents."

This was the answer made by William Jennings Bryan in an interview just before he sat down as guest of honor of the fish and game banquet tendered to visiting State game commissioners here tonight. Discussing national politics, Mr. Bryan said the returns from Vermont were encouraging, and similar results in other States would mean the Democrats would carry nearly every State this fall.

Replying to a quesion as to what was the supreme issue in the present campaign, Mr. Bryan said:

"Democrats regard the tariff question as the paramount issue, and they are not surprised to see Roosevelt dodging it."

Mr. Bryan leaves tomorrow morning for a week's rest at Grand Lake, Colo.

Novelty.

WANTS VOTING BY MAIL EVEN FOR THE FEMALE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. W. Haub, registrar of voters for Sacramento county, would revolutionize the whole system of voting in the State of California by substituting voting by mail instead of the present method of casting ballots. He has made a deep study of the subject with the intention of having the Legislature adopt his plan and two points, which he particularly urges in behalf of the plan, are economy and a big vote, about 90 per cent. of the registration.

"I cannot see why voting by mail cannot be a success," asserted Haub today. "I believe it would save Sacramento county, for instance, $6000 on every election and besides would bring out a vote that would be representative of the people. Instead of about 25 per cent. of the registration voting as it did in Sacramento county Tuesday, we would have close to 90 per cent.

"The idea is to send an official ballot in an official envelope to every voter on a certain day and give him three days in which to return it stamped to the County Clerk. The voter would be required to mark the ballot in ink, so that it could not be erased, fold and seal it. The voter would place it in the envelope forwarded, sign his name and address on the outside of the envelope and mail it.

"When the envelope had reached the County Clerk's office the signature of the voter would be compared with the signature on the affidavit of registration and if found to correspond the envelope would be opened and the ballot put in the proper precinct box.

"The secrecy of the ballot would be guarded as strictly, if not more so, than now, as the ballot would be sealed by the voter and would be immediately placed in a ballot box by the County Clerk until the count."

BANDIT TELLS HIS REAL NAME.

Ex-Student of Theology Makes Confession.

Officers Expect to Capture His Companions.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—Suffering from a fractured skull, the bandit who single-handed robbed the New York limited train, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, twelve miles east of New Orleans last night, later to be felled by the locomotive driver, was brought to New Orleans today and placed in the Charity Hospital.

The bandit said his name was Howard Edwards, that his family lived in Jupiter, Fla., and that he was once a candidate for the ministry. He gave the police information which is expected to lead to the early capture of three other members of a gang that is believed to have been responsible for a series of sensational train robberies in this section.

USED HIS REVOLVER.

Edwards first crawled aboard the engine not far from New Orleans and covered Engineer Baer and the fireman with two revolvers. He carried a small valise in which he had dynamite and nitroglycerine. The train was stopped and with the engineer and fireman preceding him at the point of revolvers, Edwards rifled the mail car of all registered mail and then relieved the men passengers in five sleepers and a club car of their valuables. He did not offer to molest women. He secured almost $1000 in cash. Going back to the engine, the train had proceeded about twenty-five miles, when Engineer Baer caught Edwards off his guard and struck him a terrific blow on the head with a brass torch, fracturing the base of his skull.

When the train reached Bay St. Louis, Miss., the robber was taken off. Although Edwards was unconscious at intervals throughout the night he gave the police valuable information concerning his alleged partners.

HID THEIR MONEY.

Superintendent Marshall of the New Orleans division of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, who was a passenger aboard the train, stated that only one man on the train had a revolver, but he could not use it because the robber kept the trainmen in front of him when he passed through the cars. Many of the passengers knew of the presence of a robber and they hid their valuables.

MAY LOSE HIS JOB.

Two Consuls Have Asked That Burton Gibson, Executor of Szabo Estate, Be Removed.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Consular representatives of two foreign nations interested themselves today in the case of Burton W. Gibson, a New York lawyer, against whom the Austrian consulate started proceedings yesterday to have him removed as executor of the will of Mrs. Rosa Szabo, a widow. She was drowned in Greenwood Lake, Orange county, while in company with Gibson, in a rowboat. She left an estate of about $10,000.

According to John J. Broderick, the acting Consul-General for Great Britain, Mr. Gibson was counsel and adviser for John Rice O'Neil, a British subject, who disappeared more than a year ago, after winning a $10,000 damage suit from a railroad company for the loss of a leg. The British Consul made efforts months ago to trace O'Neil, but without avail.

In 1906 Gibson was counsel for Mrs. Alice Kinnan, who was killed in her home in the Bronx. The murder was never solved. On the recommendation of the Coroner's jury Gibson was held in $25,000 bail pending investigation of the case, but he was released on a habeas corpus writ and the case was dropped. Subsequently he brought suit for false arrest.

Mr. Gibson appeared at his office today, but said he had no statement to make. "I may have something to say later," he added.

A lawyer representing the Austrian Consul-General appeared at Gibson's office shortly before noon and served him with an order from the surrogate to show cause on September 17 why he should not be removed as administrator of Mrs. Szabo's estate.

Holds Up Missouri Pacific Train and Escapes With the Small Sum of Twenty Dollars.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OSAGE CITY, Sept. 5.—A masked robber boarded a west-bound Missouri Pacific passenger train here early today, held up the conductor, the auditor, six men in the smoker, and after obtaining only $20 for his pains, jumped and escaped when the train stopped at a water tank.

THIRTY-ONE INDICTMENTS.

County Officials, Ex-Officials and Contractors Are Caught in the Net of Clinton (Iowa) Grand Jury.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLINTON (Iowa) Sept. 5.—Thirty-one indictments against county officials, former officials and contractors and supply men were returned today by the grand jury which investigated expenditures incident to the construction of the Clinton county Courthouse. The indictments charge misappropriation of public funds, malfeasance in office, conspiracy and fraud. The indicted men are: George E. Wilson, Jr., and Charles E. Barr, officers of a bridge and iron company; Thomas E. Hauke, recently resigned as Supervisor; Charles Mordhouse, ex-Supervisor; F. W. Leedham, County Auditor; W. H. McKenna, County Treasurer; Thomas J. McLane and Frank Kearney, Supervisor. The investigation was started at the request of about 100 farmers who signed a petition charging that there were irregularities in the letting of bridge contracts.

FIREWORKS FOR BIRDS.

[A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Sept. 5.—With a ton of fireworks this city tonight began a battle against the thousands of blackbirds that have infested the great elms and made the streets here dangerous and unsightly. Prof. L. L. Dyche, State fish and game warden, told the city officials that Roman candles would drive them out. Tonight four men spent several hours firing the candles singly and by volleys into the trees. As the flying balls of fire swept through the trees the birds fairly screamed at their disturbers. A few took wing and flew to nearby trees, but most of them held their roosts and chattered noisily. Finally the firing squad gave up their effort.

TWELVE MEN INVOLVED.

SAMPSON'S STATEMENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) Sept. 5.—Twelve men are involved in the indictments returned by the Clinton county grand jury today according to the report received by Asst. Atty.-Gen. H. E. Sampson tonight. The charges for the most part are for conspiracy to defraud, extortion and neglect of duty. "Seven charges are made against George E. Wilson, Jr., of the Clinton Bridge and Iron Company," said Mr. Sampson. "We are charging that he received pay for building seven bridges in 1910, and that he put in bills ranging from $300 to $1000 more than the contracts called for." The report says the irregularities have been going on for years.

CANDIDATE'S OTHER TROUBLES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charged with having "fraudulently misapplied and misappropriated funds paid him by James D. Lacey, as agent of the Cleopatra Development Company, R. G. Smith, Mayor of Grants Pass and Democratic nominee for Representative in Congress from the First District, was placed under arrest at his Josephine county home by Deputy United States Marshal Beatty last night. Smith furnished $5000 bonds and was released.

The charge against Mayor Smith is the outcome of relations between him and the company that appears as plaintiff and for which Mr. Smith in 1905 and 1906 acted as attorney. It is alleged by Mr. Lacey, representing the company, that in his capacity as agent he paid Smith $3490 for the purpose of perfecting patents to mining claims in Northern California. Instead of placing the money to the use for which it was intended, the complaint alleges that Smith misappropriated the funds and refuses either to return the money or make an accounting. In addition to the original amount said to have been turned over to Smith, the company also seeks to recover an additional $1000 as damages.

MONROE DOCTRINE DID IT.

Consul-General Says That Policy Compels United States to Keep Force in Nicaragua.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HOUSTON (Tex.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. Clarence A. Burheim of this city, but recently appointed Consul-General of Nicaragua to the United States, with headquarters in New Orleans, today declared that the Monroe doctrine compels the United States to maintain an armed force in Nicaragua, not only for the protection of Americans, but to protect all foreigners, and thus avert complications with European powers.

Burheim is an American and Texan and received the appointment because of ten years' residence in the republic, during which time he won the esteem of high government officials. He declares that Nicaragua welcomes intervention by the United States as a peace movement, and says if the same action were taken toward Mexico peace would be established on a permanent basis. He goes to New Orleans tomorrow.

DOLLAR FIFTY FIVE A VOTE.

State Pays Dearly for Primary Suffrage in Sacramento County.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Registrar of Voters C. W. Haub has done a little figuring on the cost of the primary election held in Sacramento county last Tuesday, basing his estimate upon known expenses. The result shows him that it cost the county just about $1.55 for each individual vote.

Haub is inclined to doubt whether all of the 7500 men and women who voted last Tuesday would have done so had it been up to them to go down into their pockets and pay that dollar and fifty-five cents.

OUTLINE THE DEFENSE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EAST LIVERPOOL (O.) Sept. 5.—That Richard Burrows, paving contractor, whose body was found hidden in a barn near this city Tuesday, was slain by John Cobourne, an employee, to protect Mrs. Burrows, will be the defense offered by Cobourne and Mrs. Burrows, who were arraigned to plead to charges of first degree murder today. This was announced by their counsel, who denied a report that Mrs. Burrows had confessed the murder of her husband. According to counsel, Cobourne, who boarded with the Burrows, found Burrows choking his wife and, fearing the woman would be killed, interfered. Burrows drew his revolver and Cobourne grabbed his own pistol and killed the husband. The body was then hidden.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Sept. 5.—Attorneys for Dr. B. C. Judge Porterfield set the date for January 6.

KILLED BY A BASEBALL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ERIE (Kan.) Sept. 5.—Miss Grace Riley, aged 20, died here today as the result of being struck behind the left ear by a foul ball at a game last Saturday. She had been unconscious since the accident.

SOCIALIST RIOT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 5.—Answering a riot call, twenty-five police and plain clothes men last night clashed in battle with a mob of approximately 500 attending a Socialist street meeting. seven members of the crowd were taken to jail and scores probably are suffering with broken heads. Socialist leaders attempted to get the crowd to disperse before the clash. The trouble tonight came as a result of an order issued early in the week that all street meetings must be held within a certain district because of State fair traffic, thus forbidding gatherings at Fourth street and Nicollet avenue, where Socialist meetings usually are held.

AS IF FROM THE DEAD.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EATON (Col.) Sept. 5.—Mourned as dead by his wife and children for seventeen years, Montaville Woodworth, who despite his 62 years, left his home in Pesotum, a village in Champaign county, Ill., to make his fortune, is expected here in a few days to attend a family reunion. After amassing a considerable fortune in British Columbia and Alaska, Woodworth recently returned to this country and discovered that his wife was living, when on applying at the Pension Office for his back pay he was told that he was legally dead and that Mrs. Woodworth had been drawing his pension.

Before leaving Illinois seventeen years ago, Woodworth left a note to his family saying they should never see him again unless he could show that he had gained a substantial competence.

PEACE IN JACKSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JACKSON (Mich.) Sept. 5.—All of the inmates from the Michigan State Prison, except those alleged to have led in Tuesday's revolt, were put to work today. The soldiers probably will remain at the prison all week.

HORSES GET IT, TOO.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HOLDREDGE (Neb.) Sept. 5.—Recent deaths of hundreds of horses in this section of Nebraska and Western Kansas have been caused by cerebro spinal meningitis, in epidemic form, according to Dr. A. Boostrom, State veterinarian.

KIDNAPERS FRUSTRATED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—With a girl perched on the rear of his motorcycle, Roy Winkleman, 17 years old, started on a spin through the West Side parks early today. They had been riding only a short time when three men, stepping from behind a thicket, commanded Winkleman to stop. He attempted to speed away when one of the trio shot him in the back. He fell to the pavement probably fatally wounded. His companion, Miss Nellie Burnett, escaped injury by jumping. The bandits were captured by park policemen after a chase. The police assert that the men arrested confessed that they had planned to kidnap the girl, not to rob Winkleman.

SOUTHERLAND SENDS REASSURING REPORT.

American Admiral Says News of Danger to Americans in Central America Has Been Exaggerated and This Is Supplemented by Dispatches Telling of Victories Won by the Federals Over Rebels.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Government successes over the rebels in several engagements in Nicaragua are reported in the capture of a large number of directing heads of the revolution. This, with the almost complete domination of the situation by American naval forces now in the country, sums up the situation in that Central American republic today. Large forces of American marines and bluejackets are stationed at the important bridges and stations along the railroad and Maj. Butler, commanding the marines, says he will have little trouble protecting the railroad and maintaining communication between Managua and Corinto.

NEWS IS REASSURING.

Reassuring advices were received at the Navy Department from Admiral Southerland regarding the situation of the Americans and other foreigners at Matagalpa. He reports that he has been in communication with the place and that rumors of danger have been greatly exaggerated.

More details of the recent government victories were reported to the State Department today by Minister Weitzel. He says Col. Zolorzano Diaz with 200 troops defeated 350 Zelayistas commanded by Gen. Narciso Berrios the morning of September 2 at La Paz.

FEDERAL OFFICER KILLED.

More than 2000 rounds of ammunition were captured and Col. Moizes Berrios, sub-Secretary of War in the Cabinet of former President Zelaya, was taken prisoner. Col. Abel Samarriba, a Federal officer, was killed during this engagement.

A more important victory was won by the government at Tipatapa, the same day, when Gen. Arsenio Cruz with 500 men defeated a similar rebel force under Col. Samuel Carillos. At Tamarinda, on the east side of Lake Managua, the government captured Gen. Alfonso Irias with 140 revolutionists.

Irias is a deputy to the National Assembly and a brother of Julian Irias. This party was en route from Leon to Granada to join Gen. Mena.

Gens. Mena and Zeledon are using every means at their command to obtain money with which to foster their cause. To this end they have resorted to robbery and extortion, and according to State Department reports, they have collected large amounts.

SUFFRAGIST PASSES AWAY.

Chicago Woman, Who Was Tired of Being a Woman, Rests Now in Eternity.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Mrs. Lillian Duncanson, Chicago pioneer of equal suffrage, former president of the Chicago Political Equality League, and who was instrumental in the establishment of the first municipal bath-house in Chicago, is dead at her residence, No. 5457 Winthrop avenue.

Mrs. Duncanson had been active in club life in Chicago for many years. Although a member of many organizations, she devoted herself mainly to the work of the Chicago Political Equality League. She was elected president of that organization in 1906 and held the office for four years. In 1894 Mrs. Duncanson was president of the Municipal Order League, which later merged with the Civic Federation.

She told the Culture Club in February, 1910, she was tired of being a woman, tired of being told that her sole purpose in life was to "put on a pretty gown and smile."

HORSEMAN ENDS HIS LIFE.

Former Employee of "Lucky" Baldwin Makes Third and Successful Attempt to Commit Suicide.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Determined to end his life, notwithstanding two previous attempts had been unsuccessful, Nat Shinners, a veteran horseman, who was familiary known as "Red Nat," jumped from the second-story porch at the County Hospital this afternoon and received injuries from which he died a few minutes later. His skull was fractured, and he sustained internal injuries.

Shinners was well known among the horse followers and had trained many fast horses in his day. He was employed by the late "Lucky" Baldwin for a time.

Her Crusaders Fall Victim of Sluggers.

Miss Virginia Brooks, has been leading a crusade for civic righteousness in Cook county, Ill., nd whose champions, according to dispatches last night, have been ugged by friends of men the young woman describes as promoters of ice and graft.

Joan of Arc.

NGERS OF WARFARE IN A GIRL'S CRUSADE.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

ICAGO BUREAU OF THE IMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] A slugging occurred to- in Burnham, adding another to the sensational history of "war against vice" in that village its neighbor, West Hammond. men were slugged—J. L. Dar- clerk of the Burnham school and William A. Schroeder—both whom have been working with Virginia Brooks in her crusade graft in that section of Cook

The name of the policeman whose are alleged to have done the slugging was mentioned in a story out by Darling and containing of graft in a school board Darling said in giving out story, that Andrew S. Anderson, clerk of the school board, disappeared following a threat of

"After the meeting Schroeder and I out of the hall and a man came to me and asked me if I held him for the disappearance of " said Darling today. "I told him 'No;' that I didn't know who was responsible. Pretty soon another man stepped up and struck me in the mouth, knocking me over. He also hit me behind the ear. I knew there was no use of my doing anything for there were others waiting to slug me."

Action by the authorities followed today the arrest of "Frankie" Ford, "woman in the case" in the death of John Messmaker, who died in West Hammond on August 18.

The woman declares the alleged victim died from the effects of being "doped."

Miss Virginia Brooks came to Chicago today and took personal charge of the investigation. Her visit resulted in a decision to have a special grand jury investigate the death of Messmaker on Monday.

The arrest of the Ford woman is believed by the police to mean not only the clearing up of Messmaker's death, but also the bringing to the surface of numerous other crimes that the perpetrators are said to have succeeded in concealing despite the efforts of Miss Brooks.

The girl also told of the "sure death" bottle.

IGHT FROM THE EAST ON THE LIVING ISSUES.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

WILEY MEANS. ROOSEVELT KNOWS.

Times, Sept. 5:] Roose- credit for the enactment of the Federal pure food law. Dr. Wiley says so. Far from favoring it, the ex-chief asserts that several "urged on Messrs. Heyburn and Mann the withdrawal of the pure food bill," and the chairman of the House and Senate committees in charge of the measure pressed it in defiance of the man in the White House. If what Dr. Wiley says is true, it amounts to a scandal.

A WELCOME MOVE. TO OUST BULL ME'S.

[Philadelphia Press, Sept. 5:] The welcome announcement is made that court proceedings will at once be instituted to compel the removal of Roosevelt from the Republican electoral ticket. They have no right there. They are not supporting the Republican ticket. They cannot stay where they are except in pursuance of a purpose to maintain votes for Roosevelt under false pretenses. The persistency with which the flim-flam game is kept up by Flinn and his following goes beyond patient endurance. It makes it necessary for the court to assert the supremacy of the law and afford citizens the protection which the law gives against the shallow fraud that aims to make Republican Presidential election of men bent on defeating the Republican Presidential ticket.

PREVENTION VS. CURE. WHY NOT BE HEALTHY?

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

DUNDEE (Scotland) Sept. 5.—The preventive system of dealing with tuberculosis was advocated by Leonard Hill at the British association convention today. "Why," he said, "should the State spend millions on sanatoria, while it permitted houses and workshops to exist where the disease was generated?" He concluded: "It pays to keep a horse healthy; then why not to keep men healthy?"

DEATH, GUEST AT REUNION TAKES GEN. M'ARTHUR.

While Telling His Comrades of the Events of Fifty Years Ago When They Left Milwaukee Together Doughty Warrior Succumbs With the Cry, "I Am Too Weak to Go On," and Expires.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Sept. 5.—While recalling the deeds of the Twenty-fourth Wisconsin Volunteers in the Atlanta campaign, Lieut.-Gen. Arthur MacArthur, U.S.A., retired, dropped dead following an apoplectic stroke at the last reunion of the regiment known as the "Chamber of Commerce" regiment in the University building tonight. Within a few minutes after the venerable general fell to the speaker's platform in the midst of his address, Edwin B. Harris, a captain, and member of the regiment, suffered a paralytic stroke on the right side from the shock of seeing his comrade fall, and had to be carried from the place.

The old soldiers attending the reunion—there were about 100—failed to grasp the situation for some moments, and then they rushed to the side of their fallen commander.

They tried to rouse him, but the pallor of his face told them it was useless, that the general had fought his last fight, and lost. One by one the old soldiers turned away. They drew handkerchiefs from their pockets and wiped their eyes, then knelt by the side of their stricken commander in reverent attitude.

"Our Father who art in Heaven," began one of the veterans, and as the words left his lips the others joined in, in a somber gathering transformed from one of merrymaking but a few minutes before. At the conclusion of the prayer one of the soldiers took an American flag from the wall and spread the Stars and Stripes over the dead commander. Slowly the soldiers left the hall. The reunion was ended.

The general had started his address by telling his listeners it was exactly fifty years ago when he and his comrades left Milwaukee on their journey to the front. At that time the general was an adjutant and but 17 years old. His listeners were deeply impressed by the general's statement that out of 1150 members who had started away from their wives and sweethearts, 750 either had died in conflict, from the diseases contracted in the camps on the march, or had passed away in southern prisons.

He said the history of the famous Twenty-fourth was too well known to need repetition, and that a few of the more immediate details of the trials and incidents which the men experienced during the campaign would be of more interest to his listeners. After an introductory anecdote, he had started to relate an incident which had occurred near the end of the war.

"It was during the campaign at Peach Tree," he said, "a place about five or six miles from Atlanta, that one of the most remarkable scouting expeditions of the war was engineered by the Twenty-fourth Regiment, with another body of the size, just which I cannot remember.

"The men were sent out on a reconnaissance with the Federals under the impression that the enemy were several miles away. They followed the wooded ridge for a distance and were startled to find they were entirely surrounded by the enemy.

"A slow and curious retreat, followed, and after crawling most of the way out, they escaped back to the Union lines with no one the wiser.

"Your indomitable courage"—here the general paused for a few seconds—"Comrades I am too weak to go on," he added, and sank back into his chair. He was immediately attended by Dr. William J. Cronin, and Capt. E. B. Parsons, but he died a few seconds later.

None of the members of the regiment had noticed that he had acted unnaturally during the evening, saying his conversation had been especially animated and that he seemed to be in excellent health and spirits.

Capt. Parsons, a life-long friend of Gen. MacArthur, was prostrated by the death of the general. His condition at a late hour was reported as favorable, and it is hoped by his physicians that no serious result will accrue from the stroke.

When removed to his home, Capt. Parsons was without the use of his right arm.

"There was no way to save the general's life," said Dr. Cronin, "for a blood vessel had burst at the base of the brain and death came almost instantly.

Gen. MacArthur's body was taken first to an undertaker's, and later to his home.

Mrs. McArthur was informed by Gen. Charles King, a life-long friend of the general, of the latter's tragic end. Mrs. McArthur fainted and at a late hour had not recovered consciousness. Her condition is said to be serious.

Bulls Dissatisfied With Curry's Nomination May Add to the Merry Moose Scramble.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gossip has it that the Bulls, not satisfied with the selection of Charles F. Curry as Republican candidate for Congress from the Third District, are looking over the political field to pick a man to run independently against Curry, who defeated Frank Devlin, the choice of the Progressives.

The district was gerrymandered by the last Legislature, especially for Devlin, who was then the president of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, and the Bull Moosers are furious over the miscarriage of their plans. They have no hope of winning with another candidate running as an independent, but they want to beat Curry, and knowing that Curry will have an easy time with the Democratic candidate they figure on helping the Democrat with a third candidate.

RELATIONSHIP A SECRET.

Young Postal Clerk Never Let on He Is a Cousin to the President and Tells Why.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Harry Berward Taft, cousin of the President, has landed another government job. This time, after losing his customhouse job because of civil service regulations, he is an entry clerk in the postoffice at a salary of $840 a year.

Young Taft worked in the postoffice for a year and a half before trying to break into the customs service. F. H. Galbraith, who was his boss, declares the young man is an excellent and capable worker and never even hinted that he was related to the President. He seems to be a general favorite with the other clerks.

"I don't believe in the assistance of relatives, even if a certain relative is President of the United States," said the young clerk today. "It has been a handicap, rather than a help to me. I have been picked out, spotted and annoyed by the curious. I want to stand on my own merit and work myself up without anybody's help. Of course, I am proud to be related to the President, but all I ask is that I be given whatever promotion I deserve and that I be allowed to get away from the fact that I am the President's kin."

RAIN IN THE NORTH. A CONSTANT POUR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDDING (Cal.) Sept. 5.—Rain has fallen all day throughout the northern part of the State and it is estimated that the precipitation has been over one inch. There has been no damage so far to fruit drying on trays under cover, but unless sunshine prevails within a day or two much damage from mildew will result. The rain assures another crop of alfalfa.

GERMAN EMPEROR MISTAKEN FOR CAPTAIN BY SOLDIERS.

Ruler Plunged Into the Trenches, Examined Equipment and Questioned the Soldiers—As a Democrat Sovereign Is Great Success. Wore Uniform of Carbineers.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

ZURICH (Switzerland) Sept. 4.—The German Emperor, attired in the modest uniform of the Carbineers of the Guard, followed every movement of today's operations with the closest attention. He entered the trenches, examined the equipment and questioned the soldiers, who mistook him for a captain. The Emperor smiled at their mistake, but did not enlighten them.

David Lloyd George Meets With Warm Reception While Attending National Musical Festival.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

WREXHAM (Wales) Sept. 5.—A wild suffragette outbreak was brought about today by the appearance at the national Eisteddfod of David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer. The pavilion in which he was to deliver an address was crowded and as soon as he began to speak a woman jumped up and shouted, "Why don't you give women their rights?"

She was at once thrown out, but several other women followed her example and were all ejected by the police. Some of the women were roughly handled by the crowd in the surrounding park and one of them was seriously injured.

President to Be Well Represented by Official Family During Impending Campaign.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Although Mr. Taft will not take an active part in the Republican campaign he will be well represented on the stump during the next two months by members of his Cabinet, according to an announcement made at Republican headquarters today.

In announcing that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson would begin a speech-making tour of Western States October 1, it was said that all the other members of the President's Cabinet would take an active part in furtherance of the Republican cause by trips through various sections of the country. As yet the various itineraries have not been definitely agreed upon, but this matter will be determined within the next fortnight.

ITALY CLINGS TO TRIPOLI.

Negotiations So Far Without Much Effect.

Amnesty Promised to Arabs Who Are Good.

Aegean Islands Are Ceded Back to Turkey.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

CHIASSO (Switzerland) Sept. 4.—Italy is determined to maintain its hold on Tripoli and Cyrenaica. No great advance has yet been made in the unofficial negotiations for peace now going on in Switzerland between Italian delegates and representatives of the Turkish government.

The former, while expressing readiness to make concessions in secondary matters, have declared it impossible to give in on several vital points. Italy demands absolute and complete sovereignty over Tripoli and Cyrenaica without, however, exacting its recognition from Turkey. It demands the evacuation of the Turkish troops and it is pointed out that the administration at Constantinople might find a way to meet the demands by proclaiming the independence of these territories, trusting the Arabs to govern themselves.

Italy pledges herself to grant general amnesty to all Arabs not undertaking any reprisals against the Italian government, and agrees that promises of the Society of the Kaliph in religious matters shall be respected. She will reimburse the Porte in any amount corresponding to the value of government property in Tripoli before the war, and also that part of the Ottoman debt guaranteed by Tripoli's revenues, deducting from this sum the expenses of the maintenance of several thousand Turkish prisoners.

It is proposed that Turkey shall re-admit Italians to the Ottoman empire under the same conditions as prevailed before the war.

Italy will keep Stampalia as a naval station while she will return to Turkey the other islands in the Aegean Sea, on condition that their nationality shall be respected and their political and administrative organization conducted on the lines set forth in the proposal of Count Leopold von Berchthold, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

"SO LONESOME, JUDGE."

Wife of Traveling Salesman Has Hubby Pinched Because She Wanted His Company.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] After Mrs. Ruth McBride had her husband, a traveling salesman, arrested and brought back to Chicago because she believed he was about to desert her, she relented and pleaded his case in the court of domestic relations. When he was in a cell she sat outside the barred doors all night and held his hand. This morning she brought him breakfast, in court she pleaded for him. "I'm so lonesome, judge, when he is away," she said.

"Can't you make him give up traveling and get a position in Chicago, where he can be at home with me. I would just as soon be single as married to a traveling salesman."

The judge said he was sorry but could not issue the order. However, McBride, who lives at No. 1864 Central avenue, promised the judge he would try and get a Chicago position and the pair left the court arm in arm.

Illinois Girl "Meets Up" With Cupid in Los Angeles—Wedding Bells For Two Tuesday.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement was made today that Miss Marie Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Barker of this city, and Albert C. Spellmeyer of Los Angeles will be married next Tuesday in Los Angeles. Mr. Barker owns an art store in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker will be unable to attend the wedding, as Mr. Spellmeyer insisted that it take place at once, owing to an extensive trip on which he will start in the near future. They will go to Texas, thence to the Yellowstone Park and then back to Texas, where they will remain during October.

The announcement comes as a surprise to Miss Barker's friends in this city. She met Mr. Spellmeyer six weeks ago while visiting Mrs. Henry S. Burbank, formerly of this city, at El Monte, near Los Angeles. She did not notify her parents of the approaching wedding until this week.

Touching Tribute to Power of Music Is Witnessed When Commander Visits Salt Lake.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Sept. 5.—A spontaneous and touching tribute to the power of the great tabernacle organ and the organist, Prof. J. J. McClellan, was paid by Commander H. M. Trimble of the Grand Army of the Republic and his party this morning. As guests at a special organ recital in their honor, the commander and personal staff sat in the body of the Mormon tabernacle. Six hundred other veterans, with families, traveling with him occupied the encircling gallery.

One of the selections was "Marching Through Georgia." As the earlier strains rolled through the building Commander Trimble became restless and when the vox humana stop with its suggestion of the well-known words was added to the chorus, he sprang to his feet and with outstretched arms beat time to the music and began to sing. The hundreds in the gallery took up the refrain.

After a brief stop in Salt Lake the special G.A.R. train took up its journey to Los Angeles for the National Encampment.

LONGSHOREMEN GIVE UP FIGHT.

Union Trust Cannot Stand Open-shop Prospect.

Effort to Penalize Ships Has Been Abandoned.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Faced with the imminent prospect of the establishment here of an open shop stevedoring firm, the Longshoremen's Union today receded from its demand for 10 cents a ton penalty for loading vessels here which frequent or call at Gray's Harbor. All loading and unloading of vessels on Gray's Harbor is done by open shop longshoremen and the independent stevedoring firm there is firmly established. Recently the Longshoremen's International, in an effort to close the Gray's Harbor shops again, announced that all vessels frequenting that port would be penalized when they loaded here, and that these penalties would be extended to other Pacific Coast ports unless the trouble was speedily settled.

UNION COMES TO TERMS.

The answer of the shippers was to bring the Gray's Harbor stevedores here and prepare for the establishment of open shop loading at Portland. This brought the Longshoremen's Union to terms, and today the announcement came from Gray's Harbor that the penalty imposed on ships here was declared off.

For the past four years the mill owners and the union longshoremen in Gray's Harbor have been at loggerheads, and the strike there has now been settled on a basis of an open shop. It is understood that the matter of wages was settled to the satisfaction of both sides, and the union men started work today alongside independent longshoremen.

PEACE DAWNS ON CHICAGO.

All Danger of Street Car Strike in Windy City Comes to an End. Board to Settle Differences.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] All danger of a street car strike in Chicago vanished today, when the two surface companies agreed with the union leaders to allow the differences between the men and their employees to be settled by a single board of arbitration. Three men will be selected to pass upon the justice of the proposed wage and working scales. Judge Kikam Scanlan will represent the men. Ten thousand motormen, conductors and other traction employees are affected.

Officials of the Elevated Employees' Union this afternoon informed the company that they would not accept the proposed new contract, but would agree to arbitrate the differences. This was acceptable to the company officials, and a meeting will be held tomorrow morning to decide if the surface board will also settle this question, or if a separate board would be appointed.

President John M. Roach of the Chicago Railways Company, and President Leonard A. Busby of the Chicago City Railway Company have accepted the proposal of the unions that the differences between one company and its men be settled by a single board and that the finding be spread to cover both lines.

The city will be represented at the meetings of the arbitration board, probably by Corporation Counsel W. H. Sexton, or by some lawyer whom he recommends to Mayor Harrison.

At a meeting tomorrow a contract binding both sides to agree to the findings of the court of arbitration will be signed.

GRAND OPENING

Tomorrow–Saturday–Sept. 7th

Any Suit in the House Made to Order for $20

Imagine the advertising power of five hundred enthusiastic men. The spoken word of praise is the most valuable advertising. I intend to have five hundred Los Angeles men demonstrate that this new tailoring shop is as far in advance of any other similar concern in this city as the electric light is over the tallow dip.

I'm going to save myself the cost of six months' newspaper advertising and immediately convince the men of this city that this is the tailoring shop where their work should be done.

I'm going to make it possible for the men of this city to order my regular $40.00 suit tomorrow for just half price—twenty dollars.

I'm going to give a free choice of any fabric in stock, without limit, without reserve.

I'm going to demonstrate that the suits I build cannot be duplicated by any other tailor in this city at ANY PRICE.

I'm going to charge the loss on every suit order I take tomorrow to advertising, and if you are a man who is open to conviction, I ask you to pay me a visit, and investigate.

Extraordinary Woolen Stock

The stock of woolens that I have bought for this new shop cost me $25,000. The cheapest piece of cloth in the house cost me $4.50 a yard before I could lay it on my shelves.

Every yard of goods in the house I have selected personally, with the exact knowledge of just what is needed in Southern California.

It would be impossible for you to pick out a poor piece of cloth from this stock for the very simple reason that it isn't here. The goods you will find are imported and domestic fabrics from woolen mills of the highest reputation. Every suiting is guaranteed to be pure wool and absolutely up-to-date.

Space does not permit me to give you more than a mere suggestion of the fabrics. I mention but one or two; Hokanum Worsteds, Reed & Taylor Cheviots, Worombo Kerseys, Mabbitt Worsteds and Cheviots, German Silk Mixtures, Imported Scotch Tweeds and Homespuns, etc., etc.

My Personal Tailoring Service

My tailoring service is a personal one. I personally oversee the measure, cutting and tailoring of every garment.

Every garment I turn out is the work of a skilled journeyman tailor, working under my personal direction, in my own shop. It is impossible for you to have any conception of how superior these garments are to those produced under ordinary methods, until you see them.

My suits are RIGHT in every particular. I accept your order with the distinct understanding that if the suit I make for you doesn't fit to your absolute satisfaction, doesn't please you better than anything else you've ever had at the price, you don't have to accept it and it won't cost you a cent.

I know my ability—you don't, but I am going to make it worth your while to get acquainted with me, and that's the reason MY PRICE FOR TOMORROW IS JUST ONE-HALF.

GINNINGS OF GREATER CITY.

Two New Buildings Rising from Smoking Ruins.

rror Still Haunts Ashes of Decatur Hotel.

aring Away of Debris Is Pushed With Vigor.

Over ashes not yet cold, the first buildings in the new Ocean Park were started yesterday. The rearing wooden walls for temporary structures which are to serve as headquarters for amusement kings while they build greater and better, typifies the resilient spirit of the men who lost hundreds of thousands each in Tuesday's fire. Estimates on buildings and plans to the value of $1,395,000 were prepared yesterday by Beginning the New and Greater Ocean Park.

Upper picture shows H. G. Howell, lessee of the Hotel Decatur, directing the erection of a structure which will house the Decatur Annex, the first building to arise from the ashes of the flame-swept city. Below workmen are shown clearing away the ruins of the old Decatur, sea rching for the body of Mrs. D. G. Roeder, a guest from St. Louis, who, it is feared, perished in the fire.

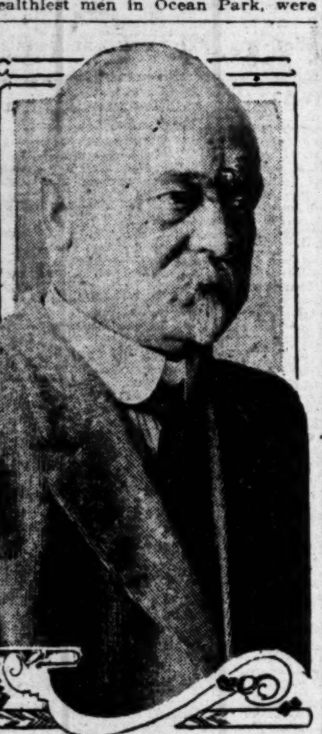
By a strange coincidence, the man who built the first house on the ruins of the San Francisco fire, H. G. Howell, is also the first to erect a structure on the ruins of Ocean Park's business section. Yesterday morning Howell, who was lessee of the Decatur Hotel, and lost $15,000 in furniture and valuables by the fire, had a large force of carpenters on the ground erecting for A. R. Fraser and H. C. Breeden a temporary structure, which will house the Decatur Annex. It is being built on Pier street next the heap of ruins which is supposed to cover the body of Mrs. D. G. Roeder of St. Louis. Friends of the missing woman heard nothing of her yesterday, and the services of a dozen men were engaged by Howell in clearing away the debris in the rear of the ruined hotel beneath the spot where Mrs. Roeder had her apartments. Nothing resulted from their search yesterday. The men had no equipment for handling the heavy beams and huge blocks of concrete, and the search was given up to be prosecuted later. The entire Decatur site will be cleared as soon as possible to make room for the builders. The contractor for the new building is McFarland.

TO EXPEND HUGE SUMS.

Following is a list of the structures planned yesterday: A. R. Fraser and Gage, pier, dance hall and buildings, $1,100,000; George M. Marine apartments and two, $90,000; H. C. Breeden and A. R. Fraser, new Decatur Hotel; A. three-story brick building, E. R. Maier, three-story building, $40,000; Dr. D. G. Turnbull, skating rink, $25,000; E. cafe, $10,000; Merchants' $15,000; H. F. Cassidy, $10,000; vant & Chamberlain, cafe, At least $100,000 more is to be spent immediately on smaller buildings.

As a result of the announcement of Santa Monica city officials that no temporary structures could go up in the burned section, not even for an architect's office, and another one made by the Venice building inspector that small temporary structures would be allowed for a short time, the two rival cities are at war over which part of the burned section should get the best buildings.

The Venice line runs to Marine street, almost the dividing line of the burned district. The city officials of Venice announced that they will lend every encouragement and aid to builders, while Fire Chief E. P. Nittinger and Building Inspector Elliott of Santa Monica, encouraged by the wealthiest men in Ocean Park, were firm in forbidding the erection of architects' offices or other small buildings. The Western Amusement Company commenced the erection of a small structure to house the office of the contractor and architect of their pier project yesterday, just inside the Venice line.



Henry Clay Breeden,

Owner of the Hotel Decatur destroyed in the Ocean Park fire, who announced yesterday that he will immediately replace it with a hostelry twice the size, of fireproof, reinforced concrete, and costing about $200,000.

Concessionaries on the Fraser pier yesterday panned the ashes of the debris and found many pounds of melted gold and silver money beneath the debris of their places. Dr. D. G. Turnbull stumbled across the safe of his skating rink and found the remnants of $175 in gold and silver melted into a heap. At least $2500 was in the safes and tills of concessionaries on the pier, who were compelled to flee for their lives without their money. Soldiers of Co. F. N.G.C., kept all but owners of burned buildings away from the debris.

FUNERAL OF CASHIER.

The funeral of H. S. Locke, cashier of the Casino Cafe, who lost his life when he jumped into the ocean and endeavored to reach shore on the night of the fire, will be held this afternoon from the Kirkelie undertaking parlors. The services will be under the auspices of the local lodges of Elks and Knights of Pythias, and the Chamber of Commerce will also send a representative to the funeral. Locke was without family and had many warm friends here. He could not swim and went down before the life guards reached him.

The work of tearing down the walls of ruined structures and carting away the debris was pushed yesterday. The embers of the fire are still smoking and the Venice fire department sent an engine to the scene this morning to extinguish an incipient blaze. The Pacific Electric had 150 men on the scene and had flat cars shunted to a siding near Pier avenue clearing away the bricks, mortar and charred timbers. Five teams were employed by A. R. Fraser in getting the wooden debris from the pier structure. The huge planks were sent with crushing force by the waves against the concrete piles, but few were loosened from their bed, and the piles will probably be used as the foundations of the new pier.

The Ocean Park Aerie of Eagles, which organization lost all its belongings, valued at $3500, has called upon the Grand Aerie for relief and aid in rehabilitating the aerie in preparation for entertaining the California Eagles at Venice in May.

Six men were arrested and taken to the Venice police station last night on the charge of looting. Two were caught lugging away telephone instruments, and two Russians were caught going through houses in the burned district.

Out of the Ashes.

GNIFICENT NEW HOTEL O REPLACE THE DECATUR.

Hotel Decatur, completely destroyed in the disastrous fire at Ocean Park Tuesday evening, will be replaced by a new and modern hostelry of reinforced concrete, six stories in heighth, containing rooms, and costing about according to an announcement made yesterday by Henry Clay Breeden, a retired capitalist, of No. street, this city, owner of the land of the building destroyed.

As a result of the collaboration with Fraser, owner of the building which adjoined the Decatur, the new hotel will cover its own former site and that of Fraser's building, making a lot slightly over 60x100 feet, which will make the new structure more than twice the size of the old.

"After a conference with Mr. Fraser yesterday," said Breeden, "and he agreed to join me in the project. I should have rebuilt immediately in any event, but such collaboration will, of course, make it possible to erect a much more pretentious structure. Work will begin on the new Hotel Decatur just as soon as it is possible to clear the site and make the necessary adjustment of the affairs of the old one.

"I built the Hotel Decatur six years ago at a cost of about $55,000, one-fourth covered by insurance. I understand that the furnishings, worth about $45,000, were insured for about half their value. At the time of building, the Decatur was considered to be so far in advance of the needs for a hotel of the kind that people laughed at me for putting so much money into it. The new hotel, a like advance, perhaps, on the present needs, will be an index of my faith in the future of Ocean Park.

"It is probable that Parkinson & Bergstrom, architects of the old Decatur, will also design the new one."

BUSH ARMS TO BORDER.

1000 men, is in the Caputian Mountains, west of Sabinal Station, on the Mexican Northwestern Railway. Neither side is moving to attack and the border troubles are as bad as formerly.

Three hundred rebels are encamped eighteen miles southeast of Juarez and Gen. Salazar seems to command a large section of territory bounded by Guzman, Casas Grandes, Ojitos and Bocas Grandes, where he has been receiving reinforcements from Sonora.

Gen. Schuyler reports that Cananea is now safe, but that the situation at Nacozari is precarious.

ORDER PACK TRAIN TO MEXICAN BORDER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JUNCTION CITY (Kan.) Sept. 5.—A pack train from the United States military post at Ft. Riley was ordered to report immediately to Gen. Steever, commanding forces along the Mexican border, in instructions received today from the War Department.

AMERICANS IN PERIL.

Force of Cowboys Is Ready to Move into Sonora to Aid Their Endangered Countrymen.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Sept. 5.—Equipped with 120 rifles and 60,000 round of ammunition which were shipped into this city last night, an organized body of cowboys are prepared to move at a moment's notice into Sonora, Mex., where Americans are said to be gravely imperiled. The cowboys met secretly last night and organized themselves into a military body. It was declared that the invasion of Sonora would be an accomplished fact within two or three days.

The meeting was held behind closed doors, and after reports were made, relative to the situation of Americans at the various mining camps now being threatened by marauding bands of Orozco rebels on their way west, the invading force was quickly recruited. Millions of dollars' worth of American property in Sonora is said to be in imminent peril of confiscation or destruction.

NAVY FOR MEXICO?

Traveling Salesman for Dreadnoughts on His Way to See Madero. He Carries No Samples.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—W. H. Bell, a representative of Armstrong, Whitworth and Company, the great British firm of armorers, arrived here today from Australia on the way to Mexico City, where he hopes to conclude tentative negotiations with the Madero government, he said, for the construction of two Dreadnaughts and an armored cruiser. He would not discuss details, but admitted that Mexico was considering a new navy.

SHAKE-UP IN CHICAGO.

Manager for Shubert Houses is Deposed Because of His Policy Regarding Newspaper Men.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] A. Toxen Worm, who has been the general manager of the Shubert's five theaters in Chicago for the past two years, was deposed today and ordered back to the Shubert's New York office. Sam P. Gerson of New York was installed as Worm's successor and will have charge of all Shubert houses in the Middle West.

Worm's disposal follows his inability to harmonize with the local newspaper men, who protested to the Shuberts against his arbitrary rule in the conducting of the local theaters.

J. J. Reed, who has been in charge of Shubert attractions on the road, becomes manager of the Lyric theater here. Mort H. Singer will continue as manager of the Princess in which he holds a quarter interest. Archy Levy, treasurer of the Shubert enterprises in Chicago, is the only man promoted, being made business manager of the Garrick.

Berlin Real Estate Concern Overspeculates in City's Growth—Big Failure Feared in Consequence.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—One of the largest realty building concerns here, with liabilities of over 50,000,000 marks ($12,500,000) is reported to be in difficulties owing to overspeculation on the growth of Berlin. The Tageblatt says the appointment of receivers has been applied for but confirmation has been hitherto unobtainable. Should the report prove true this would be the most extensive collapse in a long series which have recently occurred on the real estate market. The concern was formerly backed by several big banks but these have lately withdrawn their support.

NAVAL JUDGE ARRESTED.

Mutiny in Black Sea Squadron is Forerunner of Charge Against Police Spies.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—The mutiny in the Black Sea squadron of the Russian fleet has led to the arrest of the naval judge advocate at Sebastoped by the secret police who accuse him of showing partiality toward the mutineers.

Suspicion has existed for a long time in naval circles that the trouble among the bluejackets has been fomented by police spies who have instigated the sailors to create disturbances.

CROSS LINE IN AMITY. VISIT OF COURTESY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JUAREZ (Mex.) Sept. 5.—Gen. E. Z. Steever, commanding the department of Texas, with staff officers at noon today crossed the international line and paid a formal visit to Gen. Victoriano Huerta, commander of the Mexican Federal forces in the north. The American general was met at the international bridge by a troop of Mexican cavalry and a company of infantry.

Commercial Life Claims Two Ex-Belligerents.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Dr. F. L. Dunlap of the Bureau of Chemistry, and associate chemist under Dr. Harvey W. Wiley while the latter was chief of the bureau, resigned today to accept a commercial position in Chicago. Dr. Dunlap was a member of the Pure Food Board and came into public notice as one of the authors of charges of irregularity against Dr. Wiley.

At the time the charges against Dr. Wiley were investigated, Dr. Dunlay and Solicitor McCabe were members of the Pure Food Board with Dr. Wiley. The latter testified before the Congressional Committee that he was hindered in the administration of the pure food laws because Dr. Wiley and Solicitor McCabe voted against him. After Dr. Wiley's resignation the Pure Food Board was reorganized.

FREIGHT RATE INCREASE. NOT YET BUT SOON.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has renewed two important suspensions of freight rate increases, originally made last May. An increase of about 100 per cent. in west-bound rates in tinplate and sheet metal, suspended from May 7 to September 7 has been further suspended to January 4, and an increase of 3 cents per 100 pounds in east-bound rates on barley, which would have become effective September 9, has been further suspended to January 7.

THEY ADOPT PENSION IDEA.

POSTOFFICE EMPLOYEES WILL ASK GOVERNMENT AID.

Proposition, However, Causes Strong Opposition on the Part of Those Who Believe that New Plan Will Keep Down Salaries and Will Destroy Independence.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Sept. 5.—Opposition to pensions for superannuated government employees developed yesterday in the convention of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, but the advocates of a pension bill won the fight.

It was urged by the opposition that employees nearing the age of retirement would become subservient to political influence through fear of losing their annuities and that the pensions would be used as an argument against increase of current salaries. The federation met again in secret session today.

Oscar F. Nelson of Chicago was reelected this afternoon as president of the federation, and Indianapolis was selected as the next place of meeting.

The convention adjourned tonight.

WANTS UNCLE TO DO IT. VIRGINIAN HAS NEW PLAN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Sept. 5.—At the annual convention of first-class postmasters here today J. Morgan of Lynchburgh, Va., recommended that the Federal government take the place of surety companies to insure the honesty of postal employees. He outlined a plan for the establishment of a graduated assessment system which would create a fund of $170,000 from which the Postmaster-General could draw to reimburse the government and others for losses. Mr. Morgan declared that bonding companies collected $350,000 from the service last year, but paid out less than $20,000.

Two Splendid Suggestions For the Skin and Hair

Simple little home-remedies usually do more to conserve the complexion than expensive preparations, and especially is this true of a spurmax lotion for the face, neck, arms and hands. This is prepared by putting 4 ounces spurmax into ½ pint witch hazel or hot water, and adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. The spurmax lotion is invisible when on and imparts a delicate and velvety smoothness to the skin. Its use banishes all complexion upsets and protects the skin from chaps and roughness.

Shampooing with canthrox cleans the hair and scalp of all dust, dandruff and excess oil, and so energizes it that dull, faded, straggly hair takes on a bright lustre, rich even color and silken fluff. You can easily prepare your own shampoo by dissolving a teaspoonful canthrox in a cup hot water. Occasional shampoos with canthrox keep the scalp healthy and encourage a bountiful growth of beautiful hair.

A NEW TREATMENT FOR SICK HEADACHE

Made Possible by a Special Laxative Used With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Mrs. Walter Anderson of R.F.D., Valeda, Kan., suffered for a number of years from sick headache. She says:

"Ever since I was a small child, I suffered from sick headaches and when I was 13 years of age I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism in my limbs, which were terribly swollen. I suffered intense pain and from that time until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I suffered a general weakness. There was a constant pain through my head and I never saw a well day. I was weak, generally run down and had no ambition to work. My blood was thin and I lost in weight. I was tired and languid all of the time. I had no appetite and my stomach was out of order. Whenever I was chilled I was troubled with rheumatic pains in my limbs. I was very nervous and was often confined to bed for a week.

"The doctors did not do me a particle of good and they did not seem to know what ailed me. After I had been under their care for some time, my father decided to have me try Dr. Williams's Pink Pills. I could see that they were helping me after taking a few boxes as my strength came back and my headaches disappeared. I have been in very good health since."

As a rule a sufferer from sick headache can tell hours, sometimes days, in advance, when the headache is coming on. This fact makes it possible to use a laxative, as soon as the approach of an attack is discovered, to eliminate the poison from the system and prevent the attack or in a great measure moderate its severity. A new laxative, Pinklets, designed to be used in connection with Dr. Williams's Pink Pills, affords a perfect combination treatment.

We have prepared a pamphlet that not only describes fully the laxative tonic treatment of sick headache and gives specific directions for the use of the remedies, but contains also much valuable information regarding diet, exercise and the management of the sickroom during an attack. This pamphlet will be sent free on request together with a sample of Pinklets, the little laxative pills. Write today if you want to treat your trouble intelligently. Gone the Limit!

Prices on 1500 Men's New Fall and Winter Suits Dropped to Rock Bottom for Quick Riddance

Here they are—over 1500 of the latest fall models—the niftiest, smartest, classiest effects ever assembled under one roof.

Get in quick and go as far as you wish, you'll never have another chance like this. The more you think of it, the more you'll realize what it means to buy a new fall suit at the beginning of the season for less than any price you could possibly obtain, even at an end-of-season sale.

You would not be able to do so now were the large firm of Monroe-Davis-Herington Co., northeast corner of Sixth and Spring Sts., able to remain in their present location for another year.

Circumstances simply combined to such an extent as to practically force them out of business.

When they took over the lease on this corner, they expected to remain indefinitely. With this understanding, they ordered heavily of fall and winter suits last spring, paying a large deposit in cash at the time. Then, all of a sudden, without any warning, the site was sold to a company which expects to tear down the building and erect a skyscraper.

Naturally this invalidated the lease held by these big merchants and they were thus required to look for another location. This they did, but without success. No suitable store room could be found in a desirable location so they finally resolved to abandon their retail business.

Last week the first of the shipment (1000 suits) arrived: the second, consisting of 500 more, came a few days later, making 1500 in the lot. They had to either accept them or lose the big deposit paid with the order last spring.

Forced to accept these monster shipments of the latest and best styles in fall suits, they must dispose of them at once to clean up everything in order to vacate on time.

There is only one way to do it—drop prices so low that no man can resist them. Now it is up to you, as they have made every price a howl for quick sales.

Come now and prepare yourself for present and future needs. You are going to need a new suit this fall. This is your chance to get it at such a low price that even the big clearance sales way next spring can hardly compete with it. Sale starts today at 8 a.m.

Here are a few sample prices of the most tremendous values ever offered in men's clothing and furnishings. Read, then act.

Men's $15 suits, equal to any $15 suits offered, late styles, $5.65; $15 Cravenette overcoats, $6.45; $18 and $20 suits and Cravenette overcoats, only $7.35; $20 and $22.50 suits and Cravenette overcoats, $8.75; $25 and $30 suits and Cravenette overcoats, $10; $35 men's suits and Cravenette overcoats, the best quality turned out by New York's leading tailors, at $12.95 while they last.

Men's $3 pants, $1.45; $4 pants, $1.85; $5 pants, $2.25, and $7.50 pants, $3.15. Then for 5c you can buy handkerchiefs banded and marked 2 for 25c by the makers; 15c neckties and 12½c rubber collars; broken lines of Arrow, Silver and E. & W. and other brand collars; odd sizes, all styles; not all sizes in every style, but your style is among them—at 5c each. For 15c—50c four-in-hand ties, 35c silk or woll men's hose, 25c Boston garters and 25c suspenders. For 49c—$1 mercerized shirts, $1 natural wool ribbed underwear; $1 night gowns, outing and muslin; $1 and $1.50 shirts, plain and pleated bosom. For 69c—$1.50 French flannel night gowns, with or without collar; $1.50 merino wool underwear; $2 silk underwear, fancy and plain colors; lightweihgt $1.25 ribbed union suits; $1.50 Cooper spring needle underwear. For 19c—50c cashmere hose; 35c suspenders, "Police" and other styles, and 35c balbriggan underwear. Several hundred dozen extra values in shirts that sold for 50c, 69c and 75c—for 39c. Thirty-nine cents will buy 75c balbriggan underwear, strap drawers; 75c spring needle rib underwear; 75c nainsook athletic underwear; 75c work shirts. In the shoe department you will find $3 shoes for $1.45, $4 shoes for $1.95, $5 shoes for $2.45, and $6 shoes—button or lace, Goodyear welt, black or tan—$2.95. Boys' suits, $1.50 values, now for 69c; $2 values for only 98c; $3 values now $1.37; $5 values for only $2.38; $6 values for $2.65, and $7.50 values for only $3.10.

Mothers should not fail to see these.

Open to 9 p. m. daily; Saturdays, 11 p.m

FOR SALE—LETTER OF REALTY BROKER to client:—My Dear Client. Please see me about that thirteen acres of scenic hill-canyon land lying at the head of Mayflower avenue, Monrovia. I cannot say too strongly that this is distinctly and unmistakably "out of the ordinary."

You remember about the man who was willing to lose his eye-sight because he thought he had seen about everything. Well, if you find yourself similarly placed, remember you haven't seen NEARLY everything until you look at this thirteen acres. It is picturesque yet practical; isolated, yet supplied with city advantages; and its scenic possibilities give it rank as a masterpiece of nature.

$10,000 for the thirteen acres in certainly a wonderful bargain. The reason is long non-resident ownership. Do not let the opportunity get past YOU. Remember when this is sold there is nothing else as good to take its place. It is in a class by itself, and believe me, it is SOME class.

You know Cli, that I just love to write letters to you. But you must write soon and let me know your address because this newspaper correspondence has its draw-backs.

By the way, I have had experts pass on the horticultural, engineering, landscape, and architectural possibilities of this tract, and know just exactly where we are at. So don't hesitate to communicate with your willing little broker, IRVINE W. BIGGAR, 607 Union Oil Bldg. Main 1980; F3390. Agents invited.

A LOAN FROM US
Saves Money.
If you want money on FURNITURE, PIANO, horses, wagons, live stock or other personal property, without giving up the possession or use of same,
BORROW FROM US AND SAVE MONEY.
Our plan gives you a definite amount to pay each month, including both principal and interest, and you know just where you stand at all times, and if you find that you can pay before the loan expires you will receive a substantial rebate on the total cost. In this way a loan can be paid off much quicker and cost much less than the customary loan providing for payment of interest only. The reputation we have firmly established with those who know us is
A SQUARE DEAL ALL THE TIME.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Pasadena.

SEVERAL HURT IN COLLISION.

Pasadena Street Cars Crash at Busy Hour.

Children Driving Automobiles Menace to Public.

Deaf Woman Injured by a Speeding Motorcycle.

[Office of The Times, 62 S. Fair Oaks ave.]

PASADENA, Sept. 5.—Several persons were slightly injured and the street was littered with broken glass when a Lake-avenue car and a North Loop car, both outward bound, collided at the corner of Colorado street and Worcester avenue at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The place of the accident is one where a switch is so arranged that cars running in the same direction can come together unless care is taken. The car in front had not quite cleared the track when the second one bumped into it.

"Charlie" Grimes, of Tom Reed mine fame, was a passenger on one of the cars. He escaped with only a few bruises. M. O. Sanford, whose address was not learned, was bruised. W. E. Hodgkins of Corona was cut over one eye; M. Spier of No. 1027 Lakeview avenue, Los Angeles, had his back bruised; William Howe of No. 927 Stevens Court was cut on the hand; William Shepherd of No. 1326 South Lake avenue was bruised.

NO JUVENILE CHAUFFEURS.

Declaring that powerful automobiles are daily being run through the streets by children so small that they cannot possibly operate them without risk of injury to themselves and others, Chief of Police Wood announced yesterday that he intends to put a stop to the practice. All of the members of the police force have been notified to make arrests wherever they discover children under 15 years of age driving cars.

"There is an ordinance which provides that no person under 15 years of age shall drive an automobile within the city limits, and I shall enforce it to the letter," he said last night. "Violation of this ordinance is a misdemeanor, and children under the prescribed age who are caught driving autos will be taken into police court and fined."

Already one child has fallen into the toils, although this was before the Chief of Police declared for drastic measures. John Miller, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin H. Miller, of No. 245 Arcadia street, was compelled to appear before Police Judge McDonald yesterday to answer to the charge of driving his father's car. This is the first case which has been brought to the attention of the court, and the boy was "golden-ruled."

"Of course, the boy is under 15 years of age," said his mother last night, "but he can drive the automobile as well as any grown person, and I would just as soon ride with him as with an older driver."

There are reported to be more automobiles in Pasadena in proportion to the population of the city than in any other town or city in the world, and Chief of Police Wood declares that of late the habit of allowing children to run the cars has been increasing.

STRUCK BY MOTORCYCLE.

Mrs. C. F. Trask of No. 550 East Colorado street, a middle-aged woman, who is partially deaf, is in a serious condition as the result of having been struck by a motorcycle at the corner of Broadway and Sixth street in Los Angeles early yesterday evening. She was cut and bruised on the head, face and hips.

The woman was taken to the Receiving Hospital in Los Angeles and later brought to her home in Pasadena in an automobile. She was attended here last night by Dr. S. J. Madison.

Late last night Mrs. Trask recovered from her injuries enough to talk some about the accident, and she declared that the man who ran into her was driving his machine at so great a speed that she was unable to get out of his way, although she saw him coming.

ARDUOUS TASK COMPLETED.

The Pacific Electric Railway Company last week completed the rebuilding of the bridges on the Mt. Lowe line, a job on which it has been at work for the past year. There are thirty-five bridges and in order to construct them the workmen had to take out the timbers and replace them one at a time, as there is but a single line of track.

Work was begun just a year ago yesterday and yesterday saw the lying of the last new plank in place. These bridges are on the electric line which extends from the summit of the incline road on Echo Mountain to Alpine Tavern, near the summit of Mt. Lowe.

WORK IS BEGUN.

The work of bringing Lincoln avenue to grade, preparatory to the construction of the proposed electric line on that thoroughfare, was begun yesterday. The work will extend from Forest street to the north city limits. South of Forest street Lincoln avenue will be paved.

The committee which is collecting money which is to make the bonus required by the Pacific Electric Railway Company for the construction of the line is at work and the members say that they have no doubt that the sum will be on hand by the time the street is in condition for the laying of rails.

Mrs. Mary Flaherty of Oakland came to Pasadena at the expense of $20 yesterday to pay 30 cents taxes on property she holds here for the year 1912-13, and $4.36 on back payments due.

She is the owner of three lots in the Arroyo Seco, and having neglected to pay her taxes last year she made the trip personally to redeem the property. It is not quite time for the payment of taxes for this year, but she was permitted to pay her taxes in order that she might immediately return home. She thus became the first taxpayer this year.

PIES OF EVERY KIND.

The Committee on Arrangements for the entertainment of the Civil War veterans when they visit Pasadena next Monday, yesterday formally issued its call for the 1000 pies which it requests of Pasadena housewives. It is not specified what the pies are to be made of, or whether newlyweds are to essay one or not. The call simply states that all pies should be delivered at Library Park not later than 10 o'clock next Monday morning.

CITY BRIEFS.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Briggs of No. 71 South Euclid avenue, left yesterday for Lake Tahoe. They expect to visit several points on the North Pacific Coast before returning home.

Superintendent of Schools Rhodes will attend the annual convention of superintendents of schools of California, which will be held at Catalina Island, beginning next Monday.

The tenth annual convention of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Pasadena district of the Southern California conference, will be held at the Lake-avenue Methodist Church today.

The city is making preparations for the improvement of the East Side wash, permanent improvements of which are delayed by the disagreement over the boundaries of the proposed storm drain district in this part of the city.

Mrs. Arianda W. Sweet and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Walker of No. 283 South El Molino avenue, expects soon to leave for a tour of the South Sea Islands.

Rev. Clarence A. Spaulding, a graduate of Occidental College, has been called to the pastorate of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, corner of Lake avenue and Woodbury drive. He arrived in the city yesterday.

Supervisor Manning Asks Pomona to Join in Putting Garey Avenue in Condition—News Briefs.

POMONA, Sept. 5.—Supervisor C. D. Manning of the County Board of Supervisors representing this district has made it known here that the county is ready to pave Garey avenue from the Pomona north city limits to Foothill boulevard. If this city will pave Garey avenue to the north city limits or Harrison avenue, near North Pomona. The character of the paving will be of the best macadam. If this work is done it will result in immense advantage to this city, as it will be the means of bringing many more automobile visitors from the districts connected by the Foothill roadway.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The local committee of Masons which has in charge the arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors who are expected here as guests of the local Masonic Lodge during the week of the meeting of the Grand Lodge in Los Angeles, is preparing for a large crowd of honored guests. They will be given automobile rides about the city and a reception will be held at the new Masonic Temple at Fourth and Thomas streets here where a luncheon will be served. Monday, October 7, is the day selected by the general committee in charge of Grand Lodge arrangements, for the Pomona visit.

The women's drill team of the local lodge of Brotherhood of American Yeomen went to Ontario this evening and participated in an entertainment of the order there. This drill team has an enviable reputation in Yeomen circles for excellence in degree work and is officered as follows: Mrs. Hugo Schwichtenberg, Forewoman; Mrs. George Weigle, Mistress of Ceremonies; Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mistress of Accounts; Mrs. Cynthis Gillette, Chaplain; Mrs. Walter C. Griffin, Overseer; Mrs. Byrd Schooley, Correspondent; Miss Hazel Berry, Lady Rowena; Mrs. Hayes, Lady Rebecca; Mrs. Frank Glime, Lady Courier; Mrs. A. Cleveland, Knight; Mrs. Ernest Richter, Watchman; Mrs. Frank Hanson, Guard; Frank Glime, Drill Captain; Mrs. Monroe Thursman, Drill Leader, and Mrs. H. E. Brewster, Musician.

The remains of the late Mrs. S. W. Spencer, who died at her home, No. 217 North Gibbs street yesterday, will be taken to her former home at Waxahachie, Tex., where the funeral and burial will take place. The deceased was 42 years old and came here with her husband over a year ago from Texas.

Mrs. T. Hardy Smith, Mrs. Ruth Ayres and Misses Margaret Dills, Lilian Graham and Maud Mast, who composed a party which has been enjoying European travel this summer, sailed, the first of the week, from Liverpool for New York, on the steamship Mauretania. Mrs. Jean Wigton Avery, formerly of this city, who went abroad with the party is now in Scotland and will visit the lakes of Ireland and then go to Madrid, Spain, for a course in Spanish.

TO BUILD ASPHALT PLANT.

Standard Oil Company Plans Construction of Factory at El Segundo. Other Things Hatching.

EL SEGUNDO, Sept. 5.—The Standard Oil Company will begin the construction of an asphalt plant next week if the shipment of materials en route from Pittsburgh, Pa., arrives on time. This plant will be erected on a site just north of the boiler-house. Three stills will be erected for the asphalt plant and it will have a capacity of 25,000 tons of high-grade asphalt yearly.

A series of thorough and comprehensive experiments has demonstrated conclusively that local oil will produce a very superior grade of asphalt. With the tremendous growth and development throughout numberless Southern California cities and towns and the frequent rise of new towns, there will be an unlimited market for the asphalt produced at El Segundo.

The active construction work will require about a hundred men and the completed plant will give employment to quite a body of men throughout the year.

The Standard is also contemplating other projects in the development of its El Segundo plant. But as large projects demand considerable time in their development, therefore the great refinery cannot at the present time state anything definite, but are now working on these plans.

The Standard at present has now in operation fifteen stills, with a daily capacity of 5000 barrels. The huge wharf is now nearing completion, and is out nearly 4000 feet, and when finished will be the longest pier on the Coast.

WANT REFUGEES TO RETURN HOME

Mexican Official Visits California to Make Plea.

Senator Fall Absolves American Capitalists of Charge.

New Building Ordinance Planned for Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 5.—That the mission of Rafael Hernandez, the Mexican Minister now visiting in Long Beach is for the purpose of inducing wealthy Mexican refugees now staying in Southern California to return to Mexico under promise of being well treated by the Mexican government is the opinion of Senator A. B. Fall, who is at the Hotel Virginia for a short visit with his family.

Senator Fall was recently appointed member of a Senate Committee to investigate the report that American capital is responsible for the revolutions and rioting in Mexico. Senator Fall came direct from Washington and will be joined in a few days by Senator William Alden Smith, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, both going to El Paso to pursue their investigations. Senator Fall has extensive interest in Mexico and at one time lived in El Paso. Gen. Orozco was in his employ as a freight teamster. Senator Fall does not believe that American capital has anything to do with the Mexican revolution, though it may have something to do with its continuation. That, however, will be determined by the investigation. The Senator does not believe the revolution is nearing an end and doubts that Madero will ever be able to administer the Mexican government satisfactorily.

CITY'S NEEDS.

The Finance Committee of the City Council has recommended, if the City Attorney rules that it can be done legally, an appropriation of $4000 for the use of the committee of twenty-five in an investigation of the needs of the city for sewers, piers, City Hall and water frontage, preparatory to the calling of an election to vote a $1,500,000 bond issue, for such improvements.

QUICK RESULT.

As the result of the Ocean Park fire, the City Attorney, building inspector and Ordinance Committee have been ordered to draft a new building ordinance and the rules of the present ordinance will be strictly enforced from now on in fire districts Nos. 1 and 2.

FALL SEMESTER.

The Polytechnic High School opens for the fall semester next Monday with every prospect for a big enrollment. A number of new courses will be established, prominent among which are agriculture, economics, pattern-making and shop mathematics. Post graduate courses will also be given in history, mathematics and English, with opportunities to earn excess units of high-school cherits in other classes that will count toward college entrance.

The faculty will number forty-five this year, an increase of five over last year. Among the new teachers are Miss Claudia Clark, history; Miss Mae Burrell, commercial branches; Miss Jane Fox, English; John Turk, machine shop; Rexford Newcomb, drawing, and Miss Florence Kemp, domestic science. Prof. David Burcham will continue as principal, this being his sixth year.

TEELS AT VARIANCE.

George M. Teel of Orange was arrested this morning on complaint of his wife, charged with disturbing the peace. Teel and his wife, agreeing to disagree, had a division of household and personal effects, and Mrs. Teel in the deal drew an automobile. Later Teel decided he wanted the auto and, taking possession, drove it to Long Beach. Mrs. Teel followed and applied for replevin papers, but later changed her mind and swore out disturbance papers. The family linen will be aired before Justice Underwood tomorrow morning.

TEN-MILE SWIM.

J. G. and Lawrence Davidson, Ben Thresh and William Brown, three Long Beach boys, will attempt on Sunday next to swim from the outer wharf to the end of the breakwater and return, a distance of ten miles. The start will be made at 7 o'clock in the morning. A rowboat will accompany the swimmers to guard against accidents.

Miss Phillippine Schoeman, national president of the Daughters of Veterans, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Phillips, of the Snell apartments. Miss Schoeman is accompanied by Miss Mary McEnvoy, national secretary. The two women are here to attend the national encampment of the G.A.R. next week in Los Angeles. Miss Schoeman was formerly president of the D.A.V. of New York.

At the request of President Craig of the Board of Public Works, the Council last night appointed a special committee to investigate the action of the botard in the affairs of the water deparment, criticism of which was made by the City Club in a series of queries presented to Council some weeks ago. The City Club acted on information given by former members of the Water Commission and Craig intimates that pique alone is responsible for the charges of implied incompetency.

Residents of Belmont Heights this morning asked the Chamber of Commerce to withdraw its complaints against the Pacific Electric before the State Railroad Board on the ground that extensions of track were being held up in the eastern section because of the suits. The chamber, however, thought the interests of the city at large in the matter of lower fares and transfers was more important than the building of new tracks and declined to grant the request.

During the month of August receipts and shipments of freight at the city docks amounted to 478 tons of merchandise and cement, 1,428,475 feet of lumber, 69,934 feet of lath, 95,800 shingles and 1667 shakes. Wharf revenues for the month were $176.61.

James Lamb died last night at his home on West Seventh street. Mr. Lamb was 83 years of age, a native of Scotland and had resided nine years in Long Beach, coming here from San Bernardino. The remains will be taken to Los Angeles for burial.

THOUGHT THEY WERE THIEVES.

Covina Boy Shoots Neighbors Passing His Home—Oil Stove Explodes and Residence Is Burned.

COVINA, Sept. 5.—A frightened woman and a young man with a shotgun, caused a serious and unfortunate accident last night in West Covina, and as a result, Lloyd Powell is lying at his home with his thigh torn open with bird shot.

George W. Reynolds, a rancher, and his nephew, Powell, were coming home from the late car from Los Angeles, and with them was a young ranch hand whom Reynolds says they were trying to get home, the young fellow having been drinking. As the three men were passing the home of Mrs. C. W. Wright, a widow, the woman was awakened and believed that someone was attempting to steal the horses in the barn. Henry Wright, a 17-year-old son, went out with the shotgun, and saw the three men in the darkness. He fired, and as the gun blazed, Mr. Reynolds dropped to the ground, several small pellets of lead striking him in the scalp. Reynolds says that he rushed upon young Wright and grappled with him. In the struggle the gun was again exploded, and the full charge was received by Powell, who was approaching to assist Reynolds. The charge made a wicked wound in the man's thigh. After the men recognized each other, Dr. Collins of Covina was sent for and attended the wounded men. Mr. Reynolds said yesterday that although the attack by Wright was unprovoked, no action would be taken, as the affair was caused wholly by an unfortunate misunderstanding.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME.

The bursting of a coal oil stove at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning caused the destruction by fire of the home of Mrs. Anna Wolfe on Lark Ellen street. The building had been erected as a barn, and the family was living in it until the new house could be erected. All the contents were destroyed, and there was no insurance.

A fire that broke out in a small tent-house on Dexter street called the fire department out at 6 o'clock Wednesday night. The sleeping tent was occupied by James Hammer and family and was owned by A. Cashley. The firemen kept the blaze confined to the small building and prevented the residence in front from burning.

TWO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS.

M. M. Kern, one of the proprietors of the Central Garage, caught his left hand in the engine of an automobile last night and suffered broken bones. The injury was dressed by Dr. Manning Clarke. While Dr. Clarke was answering the call to attend the injured man, he lost control of his steering gear at the corner of Citrus avenue and Badillo street, and the machine crashed into the curbing. Ora Vincent, a rancher of Lark Ellen street, was struck and hurled in the air. His leg was badly bruised and lacerated, and he was taken to his home.

NEIGHBOR-CITY CELEBRATES.

The Covina Masonic Lodge will accompany its uniformed and crack baseball team to Pomona next Monday, to engage in battle with the team of the Pomona Masons. The day is to be spent in celebrating the extension of the Pacific Electric car service to Pomona, and Covina, San Dimas, Lordsburg and other towns will join with Pomona in making the day a memorable one. The Covino citizens will all be found in Pomona on this day.

GLENDORA NOTES.

GLENDORA, Sept. 5.—The Board of Trustees has voted unanimously to make a tax levy of $1 on the $100 to cover the expenses of the current fiscal year and provide for street improvements. A tax of one mill was also levied for the maintenance of the public library. On the basis of the present assessed valuation of $783,865.00, there will be collected for disbursements for municipal purposes $7838.65 and $783.86 for library maintenance.

The board also passed a resolution to purchase, subject to a bond issue, three lots with 129 feet frontage on Bennett avenue, and a depth of 175 feet on Michigan ave, for a city building; three lots at the corner of Minnehaha and Vermont avenue with a frontage of 120 feet on Minnehaha avenue (the foothill boulevard,) and a depth of 175 feet; the north two-thirds of block N, to be used for a public park for the convenience of the people on the north side of town, and a five-acre tract on the south side for similar use. The location desired is at the northeast corner of the Hommell ranch.

Resolutions of intention have been passed by the trustees providing for improving Bennett and Minnehaha avenues with paving, curbs and sidewalks. Negotiations are also well under way for a municipal lighting system to be purchased from the Glendora Light and Power Company. It proposed that when the transfer is made to install a modern street lighting system.

STEAMER RAMMED.

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 5.—The steamer Shasta, owned by the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, was rammed today by the steamer Saginaw and damaged to the amount of $5000. The Shasta was discharging lumber at the Wood wharf when the Saginaw shifted to the adjoining berth. Capt. Koffold was on the bridge of the Saginaw and says he signalled for full speed astern to check the steamer's speed. Instead he got full speed ahead, and the prow of his steamer crashed into the stern of the Shasta. The damage was all above the water line and the Shasta will be towed to San Francisco for repairs. The Saginaw is owned by the Hart-Wood Lumber Company.

LANDS SWORD-FISH.

AVALON, Sept. 5.—While fishing near Ship rock late last evening G. Cox of Los Angeles brought to gaff a monster sword-fish weighing 190 pounds, after a hard tussle lasting forty minutes. This is the first swordfish caught in Catalina waters this season. For nearly three months Angler Cox has worked to hook a swordfish in Catalina waters. Many fish of this variety have been brought to gaff in San Clemente waters. Several other varieties of fish were brought in today by anglers fishing off the west end of the island. The chief catches were white sea bass, yellowtail, barracuda and skipjack.

Many times doctor's bills have been saved by having a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—[Adv.

A Horse's working limit is 10 hours each day

ALCO

Motor Trucks

How to Solve the Rush Season Delivery Problem

Everyone knows that it is foolish to work a horse to death. Ten hours a day is a mighty long day for a horse. If you work a horse that long you ought to rest him one day out of every five. You get better results in the end.

But there are times in the year when it's rush work to make delivery—Christmas, Special Sales, Spring Seasons, Summer Seasons, The Fall, The Winter.

Every business has its seasons and at the top of each season the problem of delivery is difficult.

Now the solution is not by working the horses from dawn until midnight. That is false economy — and your horses under such pressure rapidly lessen their days of usefulness.

Consider Alco motor trucks. They can work twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, right through the severest rush of the severest season.

It has been demonstrated in Los Angeles. An Alco truck in the service of the Adams Express Company ran night and day for one hundred and forty-four hours. It was the week before Christmas. This truck delivered 450,000 pounds of merchandise.

There are many other similar instances. An Alco truck ran continuously in New York—three hundred and thirty-six hours without the motor stopping — for the United States Express Company.

Think this over and anticipate your next rush season by looking over the Alco truck now.

'Phone F2637 or Broadway 3973 and a Transportation Expert will call on you. No charge.

BOY LOSES HIS GREAT TOE.

Ontario Youth Is the Victim of a Peculiar Shooting Accident—Chavez Forfeits Bail.

ONTARIO, Sept. 5.—The vacation trip of Walter Axley, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Axley, this city, who left early in the week for Camp Baldy in San Antonio Canyon in company with Donald Stone, Floyd Rutherford, Merrill Brown, George and Lemuel Bogart, came to a distressing end late yesterday afternoon, when the accidental discharge of a 25-caliber rifle sent a bullet through the lad's foot.

The accident occurred shortly before 4 o'clock, but it was after 6 o'clock when the boy's family in Ontario, received the news. Yesterday afternoon the boys went on an expedition to Ice House Canyon, several miles above Camp Baldy. A large rattle snake was sighted in the brush and the lads gathered about prepared to kill the snake when he emerged. As the rattler put in an appearance one of the boys clambered over a rock to get a club, and in so doing dropped his rifle. It slid down an embankment and as it slid the trigger struck a twig and it was discharged, the bullet passed directly through young Axley's great toe on his right foot and emerging at the instep. The boys succeeded in carrying the injured lad back to Camp Baldy, from whence he was brought to this city in an automobile. Drs. Bacon and Warmer attended the boy and found it necessary to remove his injured toe.

BAIL FORFEITED.

Marion A. Chavez, charged with maintaining a "blind pig," whose trial was set for this morning at the City Hall, failed to appear when court took up and his cash bail of $125 was forfeited.

Chavez is thought to have gone to Mexico, but his whereabouts could not be definitely ascertained today. Chavez is quoted as having told Judge J. R. Pollock, before he was recently arraigned, that he would "see him in hell" before he would go to jail. His failure to appear has not, however, ended the case, since Judge Pollock this afternoon issued a bench warrant for him and in the event of his return, he will be arrested and tried.

COMMISSIONER RESIGNS.

Dr. T. C. Hardy, who expects to leave September 15 on a trip to Australia, last night handed in his resignation as a member of the City Board of Park Commissioners. His place on the board has not yet been filled.

PERRIS.

PERRIS, Sept. 5.—Election day passed off very quietly here yesterday, only 127 votes being polled. For Senator, Chapman 49, Anderson 40; for Congressman, Evans 48, Kirby 43; for Assemblyman, Milliken 56, Ellis 33; for Judge, Densmoore 72, Craig 41. For delegates to the Republican convention, Dr. D. W. Sheldon and Mrs. W. W. Stewart each received forty-four votes.

Mrs. J. H. Canning entertained the W.C.T.U. Monday afternoon. An interesting programme was given on "Origin of Peace Arbitration Day." At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen, and Mrs. May Hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Preston and little daughter have returned to their home in Oro Grande after an extended visit to their mother, Mrs. J. J. Preston.

Mrs. Dell Crandall and children have returned from Long Beach.

THEY PREFER DEMOCRAT.

San Diego Republicans Disgusted With Primary Result Line Up for the Bourbon Nominee.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Defeated in their effort to nominate a San Diegan for Congress, Republicans are lining up for William Kettner, Democratic nominee, and many of them today joined with members of Kettner's party in signing a pledge to support him in the campaign. About 300 had signed the indorsement up to 8 o'clock tonight, more than 75 per cent. of them Republicans.

"I am still receiving assurances from good San Diego Republicans of their support," said Kettner, who personally had charge of the canvass for names. "E. B. Gould of the Hazard Gould Company, this morning assured me he was for Kettner. I have the same assurance from other well-known Republicans."

Among the signers was Louis J. Wilde, who was perhaps the foremost supporter of Lewis R. Kirby, defeated Republican candidate for the nomination. Admiral H. N. Manney and F. Byron Naylor, and other prominent Republicans whose names appear on the paper.

From estimates of his support in other counties of the Eleventh District, made after a thorough canvass, Kettner says that if San Diego county will give him a majority of 3000 he can be elected.

WANTS IT BACK.

The case of August Fels, a wealthy rancher of Lemon Grove, this county, who sued his wife to recover $80,000 in property deeded to her in 1908, with the understanding, as he alleges, that it was to be re-transferred to him, is being heard by Judge T. L. Lewis. Mrs. Fel's attorney moved for a non-suit, arguing that he transferred the property to her to evade liabality to the Lemon Grove Fruit Association on account of a violation of contract.

Fels admitted on the stand that he contracted to ship fruit through the association, but after his first shipment was notified that he not only got nothing for his fruit, but owed the company $125. He thought he could get rid of his lemons in a cheaper way so changed shippers.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Viscount Benoist Azy, lieutenant in the French navy and naval attache of the French Embassy at Washington, is in San Diego, investigating fuel conditions, including the cost of coal and petroleum, the sources and extent of the supply. The data gathered is for use in a report to be made by Viscount Azy to his government. His investigation will cover the entire Pacific Coast.

A delegation of forty representatives from the Sacramento Valley, the North of Bay counties, the trans-Sierra County Association and Alameda county arrived here tonight on the liner Harvard. The purpose of their visit is to select a site for a northern counties exhibit building on the San Diego fair grounds. They will remain until Sunday morning.

SECESSION IS OPENLY TALKED.

ARTESIA AND NORWALK ARE WOBBLY IN LOYALTY.

Residents of Section State that Their Interests Are More Closely Affiliated With Orange County and that a Change Is Desired—Working on New County Charter.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 5.—Declaring that the sentiment in Artesia and Norwalk is almost in favor of annexation to Orange county, Dr. E. H. Diehl and Clarence Daugherty of Artesia today filed with the Board of Supervisors a petition asking that body to aid in the project to cut off from Los Angeles county and add to Orange county a section east of the San Gabriel River, the north line being a short distance north of Norwalk. The petition was signed by residents of the Artesia and Norwalk districts. Those on the petition represent about 3000 acres of land. It is estimated that there are between 8000 and 10,000 acres in the section concerned in the project.

"We feel that our interests are identical with the farming communities of Orange county," said Dr. Diehl, in presenting the petition. "We do not like the proposed consolidation of the city and county governments of Los Angeles. The sentiment in our communities is unanimous in favor of joining Orange county. Residents of Clearwater and Bellflower asked me to circulate the petition in those places, but I told them that I was confining my activities in the matter to the district east of the San Gabriel River. It is not a question whether or not we want to come; it is a question of do you want us?"

Daugherty stated that the reason Artesia and Norwalk want to leave Los Angeles county is that they have a good deal of taxable property and not many votes to protect it with. It is estimated that the population of the territory concerned is 1500.

Supervisors Talbert and Struck stated that they naturally would like to see Orange county's assessable territory increased, but they would not like to undertake any action without taking time to investigate. The five members of the board were appointed a committee to make the investigation.

NEW CHARTER.

The Board of Freeholders now preparing a charter to be submitted to the voters of the city, have tentatively adopted a prohibition section, which will start the city out under the new charter as now, a dry town, and allow its commissioners to grant a liquor license only on the authority of the people, the question to be submitted to the voters at a special election. A majority of the vote cast shall decide the question.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The Board of Supervisors today sold the $100,000 bridge bonds and the $60,000 hospital and poor farm bonds to E. H. Rollins & Sons, who put in the two highest bids, $4080 and $2448 being the premiums offered.

When the county tax rate is set the last Monday of this month, it will be 5 cents lower than last year. The Supervisors today decided to make the rate $1.45 outside incorporated cities and $1.05 inside cities. The reduction was made possible largely by the fact that the assessment was raised $8,000,000 this year.

The City Trustees last night granted a poolroom license to H. A. Jones of Los Angeles. Trustee McPhee made a fight against granting any more licenses, but the motion to give Jones a license was carried by a vote of 3 to 2.

In an effort to get control of her daughter, Carmen, aged 14, Isabel Valenzuela yesterday became the wife of Ceniseto Chaises. Carmen left her mother and went to live with her maternal grandmother, Refugia Vasquez. The mother applied to the Sheriff's office, and was told that the officers would not try to make the girl go to her mother because the mother was living with a man to whom she was not married. Immediately the woman married the man. She thought that ought to settle it. The girl's grandmother, however, declared that the marriage made the woman a bigamist in that Carmen's father, to whom she was married in Mexico, is not dead. The girl will remain with her grandmother.

GREAT CATHOLIC REUNION.

Redondo Beach Completes Plans for the Entertainment of Thousands of Visitors Saturday.

REDONDO BEACH, Sept. 5.—Arrangements are completed and Redondo Beach is prepared to entertain the largest Catholic reunion ever held in Southern California Saturday, when the annual Catholic reunion of Southern California will be held here.

It is estimated that about 30,000 members of the various churches of this part of the State will attend, and President D. F. McLaughlin of the Picnic Association and his committees have left nothing undone for the success of the reunion.

At 10 o'clock there will be a programme of sports and the baby show which is in charge of George Bertoneau. At 11 o'clock a programme of addresses will be given in the pavilion. Judge Paul J. McCormack will be the speaker of the day and Bishop Thomas J. Conaty will speak to his people. Miss Bess Harvey will sing. A dinner will be served at 12:30 o'clock at Hotel Redondo to the clergy and the committee for the picnic and at 2 o'clock the sports programme will be continued.

As many of the picnickers have arranged to stay over Sunday Rev. Father James O'Callaghan of St. James Church will read three masses Sunday morning at 7:30, 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock.

Lincoln Johnson Nixon, E. Smith and Benton of the Young Men's Christian Association of San Francisco are here practising daily in the plunge for the Pacific Coast championship races to take place here tomorrow and Saturday evenings. Johnson won the 440 championship from Ludy Langer the local favorite last year and a great race is anticipated between the two in the 440 Friday night. Both men are in excellent condition and both quite confident of success. Langer, Dolly Mings, Cliff Bowes, Ray Henderson and Vaughn Torrence are entered from here for the races.

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED.

Huntington Beach Trustees Plan a Winter of Activity and Many Things Now Needed.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 5.—Last night's meeting of the City Trustees developed a spirit of doing things.

It was decided to select a site and build a city hall, to install a street lighting system with lamp posts having three strong lights each, and of an ornamental design in reinforced concrete, to pave many of the unpaved streets, to keep the streets constantly clean and to have local taxes collected and property assessed by local officers appointed for the purpose instead of having the work done as at present, by the county officials.

Trustee French especially showed a desire to adopt measures for having a busy city this winter, all the measures above named having their initiative with him. He was heartily supported by the unanimous vote of his colleagues.

NEWS BRIEFS.

A Parent-Teacher's Association is to be organized here next week, when a public meeting for the purpose has been called by Mrs. H. C. Decker, wife of a prominent fruit grower of this city.

Hon. Yosaburo Takekoshi, member of the Parliament of Japan, accompanied by Prof. Yoshitaro Nogishi, his private secretary; G. Z. Matsushima, a student of the University of Tokio; T. Fujii, managing editor of the Los Angeles Daily Japanese News, and H. G. Noguchi of Talbert, were here today and this afternoon the Japanese statesman spoke to several hundred of his countrymen at the Wintersburg Japanese Mission. He left later for Santa Ana, on his way to San Diego.

MOB SEEKS LIFE OF A MEXICAN.

OXNARD POPULACE MAKES FURIOUS BUT FUTILE EFFORT.

OXNARD, Sept. 5.—Following the shooting late this afternoon of Officer John Higgins by Sam Martinez, a half-crazed Mexican, an attempt was made by nearly 100 citizens to lynch the assailant. Only rigid police interference stopped the attempt. As it was the Mexican was pursued by ten armed men through some of the principal streets, and a fusillade of bullets whistled about him. Only one struck, and this a glancing shot. The Mexican, after attempting to shoot up a saloon, ran into the street and was stopped by the officer, who attempted to take away his gun, and was shot in the scuffle that followed.

A mob was at once organized and gave chase to the man. He was caught in front of a building where workmen had allowed a rope to hang from a scaffolding. The mob endeavored to use this.

FIND A CLEW.

After a day's search in the hills near Moorpark, a posse of police and railroad officers came in with but one clue to the possible whereabouts of three men who attempted the wrecking of No. 9, the San Francisco-bound evening train from Los Angeles.

The men spotted are three of the higher class haboes who were acting suspiciously in this city.

The men had placed a tie on the track and when the train struck the designs were frustrated by the fact that the fender shoved the tie along until the engine could be stopped. A dozen officers are on the trail.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The first shipment of lima beans this season went out from Camarillo today. With the harvesting now on in earnest shipments will continue for some months to come, both by rail and water. The first beans to go out were from the harvest of the Hastings ranch.

Threshing crews are out on dozens of ranches, and the crops are averaging slightly better than had been anticipated earlier this year.

A moving picture concern is now taking several thousand feet of films of the local plant of the American Beet Sugar Company in operation, to be used in displaying the sugar industry in Southern California.

SNOW STORM IN MOUNTAINS.

Cleghorn Canyon Visited by a Heavy Precipitation.

Pioneer Weather Guessers Predict Rainy Season.

German Count Is Delighted When Liberated.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 5.—The first snow of the season fell Wednesday night in Cleghorn Canyon, and for miles along the northern slopes on the San Bernardino Mountains. For some time the descent of the whiteness was so dense that travelers were bewildered in trying to keep their course. The snow was a freak storm, limited to the canyon and the northern strip of mountains. On the mountain summit and in neighboring canyons the low pressure showed in a heavy hoar frost, which transformed vegetation into sparkling whiteness.

Not in half a century has a snowstorm been known in this county so early in the season. For days there has been an evidence of lowering temperature. The sun spots have pointed to atmospheric disturbances for months, and this freak snowstorm and a mercury climbing down below 40 deg., are results, it is said, of these strange appearances on the sun.

The cold weather will do no injury, unless a freeze should develop, which is not at all likely to occur. The indications are more favorable for a general rain, which would break the strange weather period, and either bring another heat wave or genuine winter. This prediction is based upon the experiences of pioneers, who remember weather conditions in a measure similar to the present conditions back in the late forties.

COUNT LIBERATED.

Count von Schoen, charged by Guy Fabun, a Cleghorn Canyon rancher, with battery, was quickly liberated today at the close of the trial. The evidence was not sufficient to fasten any charge upon the count, who was greatly elated over his easy victory. The accused is a desert miner, and has been camping in Cleghorn Canyon. He was taken to the Fabun ranch by Fabun, and remained there until a domestic upheaval occurred, which resulted in the visitor's arrest.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN.

The city schools will open for the fall term Monday, September 16, twelve days hence, as originally fixed. The Board of Education has made a thorough investigation of health conditions in Southern California generally, and finds that the threatened epidemic has been stamped out. Tomorrow the motion picture houses will also be thrown open to the children of the city, and no further restructions of any kind will obtain regarding public gatherings. The health authorities here attribute the checking of the threatened epidemic to the quick action taken by the Los Angeles Board of Health.

POSTAL RECEIPTS.

The total receipts at the local postoffice for the month of August were $3188.82, an increase of 20.4 over the receipts of August last year. The receipts for the first eight months of the current year amounted to $27,382.60. This is a gain of $2881.84 or 12 per cent. gain over last year for the corresponding period.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25c "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Resumes Meetings.

The Order of the Fifteen held its first regular meeting last night after a month's vacation. Addresses were made by Dr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Annie Rix Millets and others.

Superintendent Francis to Speak.

The members of the Woman's City Club will hear Superintendent J. H. Francis at their regular luncheon next Monday. His subject will be "The Development of the Public School System."

Fun for the Newsies.

Newsies who sell or deliver The Times are invited to attend the Century Theater in a body next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The management extends the invitation and promises a great time for every young news merchant.

Bankers' Club Banquet.

Twenty officials and employees of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank held a banquet last night at the Bankers' Club of Los Angeles, No. 625 South Hope street. Brief addresses were delivered by President Orra E. Monnette, Vice-President Charles G. Green and R. M. Andrews, assistant to the president.

To Rest Old Soldiers.

The members of post and corps of Bartlett-Logan and Kenesaw Posts, G.A.R., are collaborating in establishing a rest-room for the visiting veterans and their ladies at Berean Hall, in the Temple Auditorium building, all of next week. This is one of a large number of such resting places to be scattered over the city.

Mrs. Baker's Condition.

Despite the fact that she is still unconscious and partly paralyzed, the condition of Dona Arcadia Bandini de Baker continues unchanged. She is 89 years of age, and while no hope is held out for her recovery, physicians consider it remarkable that she has withstood for so long the shock of the apoplectic stroke which she suffered last Monday evening.

Services Resumed in Temple.

Regular services, which have been interrupted during July and August vacation, will be resumed in Temple B'nai B'rith this evening. Dr. Hecht goes to San Diego today to install the newly-elected rabbi of Temple Beth Israel, and Dr. A. Edelman will conduct the services and deliver the address in his absence. The choir will render a new musical service.

The Orange Their Emblem.

All arrangements are completed for the invasion of the North by the Native Sons of the Golden West, who are going to Stockton to attend the Admission Day celebration next Monday. The train will leave La Grande Station at 5:15 p.m. tomorrow. The Los Angeles natives will carry the gospel of the orange with them and will wear white trousers, white shoes, negligee shirts, orange belts and ties, and sombreros with orange bands.

Epidemic Stamped Out.

Only two cases of infantile paralysis have been reported to the Board of Health this week. All danger from this disease is rapidly disappearing, but the health commissioner is maintaining the strict quarantine on all houses where cases are confined. There are twenty-nine cases in quarantine. The order preventing children from visiting moving-picture shows and other places of amusement has been rescinded.

Lectures to Teachers.

Lectures on breathing and its relation to voice-production in talking and singing are to be given free to teachers only by S. Wesley Martin, in his studio at No. 302 Blanchard Hall. Diaphragmatic breathing as a cure for speaker's sore throat and hoarseness is to be strongly featured. It is proposed to thoroughly ground the teachers in the principles of breathing so they may properly instruct the children under them.

Busy Month for S.P.C.A.

August was a busy month for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, as shown by a statistical report issued yesterday. There were 153 complaints received: 212 cases investigated; 348 animals examined; 104 animals relieved; fifty-eight animals suspended from labor, and 125 animals destroyed, of which 106 were cats. Twenty-three animals rode in the big red ambulance; sixty-one warnings and reprimands were issued; thirty-three arrests were made and there were thirty-two convictions and one case is pending. There were three trials on previous arrests, two convictions and one acquittal.

SHE SWALLOWS POISON.

Girl Tells Friend She Is Tired of Life, It Is Related, and Falls to the Pavement.

Because she was disappointed in love and tired of life, Bertha Dively, a trained nurse, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by swallowing several poisoned tablets while standing on a street corner talking to William Steinway, assistant superintendent of a local brewery.

"I am tired of life and do not want to live any longer," she is alleged to have said to Steinway.

After she had swallowed the tablets she fell to the ground. Steinway called for an ambulance and the nurse was taken to the Receiving Hospital. After she had been treated she denied that she had attempted to end her life because of a love disappointment, although Steinway told the police that a love affair was the cause of her act.

MAYOR JABS THE ALDERMEN.

MAKES PLAIN CHARGES OF OUTRAGEOUS GRAFT.

Chief Magistrate of Metropolis Defends Police Officers—Demoted Inspector Denies Having Made Sensational Statements Credited to Him.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Mayor Gaynor took a fling at the Board of Aldermen today in a characteristic letter to one of their number. "I do not see how I can expect policemen to be honest," says the letter, "when they know that many, if not most, of the members of the Board of Aldermen are selling licenses for news stands and the like throughout the city at prices from $2500 down to $25."

Cornelius G. Hayes, demoted police inspector, denied today published statements quoting him as saying he would tell on the witness stand a story that would cause Commissioner Waldo to resign in twenty-four hours. The statements were said to have been made by Hayes to Dist. Atty. Whitman during the second conference he held with the prosecutor last Tuesday evening.

Dist. Atty. Whitman was surprised to hear that Hayes had repudiated some of the statements attributed to him.

Louis Libby, part owner with William Shapiro, of the murder car in the Rosenthal case, was called today before the grand jury which indicted Police Lieutenant Becker for the murder of Rosenthal. He denied having been told by Shapiro who were the occupants of the car and professed ignorance of the murder plot.

The investigation by the commissioner of accounts of alleged graft levied on owners of news stands resulted tonight in the arrest of Benjamin Strauss, an election district captain, on a grand larceny charge. According to the evidence of a witness at the investigation, Strauss acted as the agent of an alderman in the collection of graft.

Fatal Mistake.

HOLD-UP SHOOTS MAN GIRL LURES TO TRYST.

FATALLY shot and blinded, Clarence Reynolds, an Imperial Valley farm hand, staggered for more than a mile along sidewalks, last night, after being attacked by hold-up men while keeping a romantic midnight engagement with a girl he had met but a few hours before.

Using Reynolds's infatuation for her to decoy him, the girl asked the farm hand to meet her after 11 o'clock in the shade of an old fertilizer works near the S. P. track crossing on East Washington street. During the afternoon Reynolds, who had arrived from the country with a "roll," met the girl he called Viola, at a downtown cafe. Together they dined and drank, ending the afternoon in a merry party to Vernon. There Reynolds displayed his savings and the girl suggested that he should meet her by the fertilizer works near midnight. She then excused herself, saying she had to return to her home.

The police theorize that she is a decoy for gunmen, and as soon as she "spotted" Reynolds, went at once to notify them and arrange for the hold-up.

Reynolds went to the scene for the clandestine meeting early, perfectly certain that Viola, whom he thought was an only daughter of a well-to-do family, would meet him and go with him to Vernon for a merry soiree.

While standing in the shadow of the fertilizer plant two men approached in the darkness and asked him if he had any money. He said he had. They told him to hold up his hands. As he started to grab the weapon of the man standing in front of him, the one in the rear fired, shooting him through the small of the back.

Reynolds was blinded by paralysis, he said. Then he started for the city seeking help. By feeling the sidewalk he kept his way, although unable to see, and walked to Eleventh and Main streets, where he fell. The police were notified and Reynolds was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

ATTEMPTS TO TAKE POISON.

Fresno Man Who Broke Jail Is Captured and Says He Cannot Bear Imprisonment.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Crying that he could not bear to be returned to jail to serve another "jolt," C. E. Ross, who just completed a sentence of one month for a misdemeanor, today in City Justice Graham's court attempted to swallow antiseptic tablets, but was prevented from ending his life by the quick work of Deputy Sheriff Lacid and Court Reporter James G. Gearhart, who fought with the man.

Ross's wife fainted and dropped her little child on the floor. Ross while a trusty at the jail escaped, but was captured in Bakersfield. He pleaded guilty to jail-breaking, but before sentence was pronounced he created the scene. He will be sentenced Saturday. Ross says he will take his life.

MYSTERY IN DEATH.

FRESNO, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Day Wire.] Mystery surrounds the burning to death early today of A. D. Conrad in a lodging-house. Conrad registered at the place last night, giving his address as San Francisco. At 4 o'clock this morning the landlady smelled smoke and upon investigation found that it came from Conrad's room. The door was broken open and Conrad was found lying there, not badly burned, but apparently suffocated from smoke. A physician was summoned but Conrad was dead before he arrived. The flames were extiguished by the landlady.

FRUIT RUINED.

FRESNO, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Day Wire.] Local fruit men declare today that the Emperor table grape crop in Fresno county has been practically ruined as a result of mildew setting in after the recent rain. Even the most conservative estimates place the loss at from half to two-thirds of the crop. The local weather observer predicts further showers for tonight and it is feared that this may make the loss complete. The Malaga shipping grape crop, 40 per cent. of which is on the vines, is also in grave danger.

AGED PIONEER PASSES.

Joseph Hobart Eighty Years Old Dies at Home in Upper Ojai Valley—Short Stories.

VENTURA, Sept. 5.—Joseph Hobart, a pioneer of the State and county, died yesterday at his home in the Upper Ojai Valley, aged 80 years. Mr. Hobart was a native of Massachusetts, in which State his father started the first factory for the making of tacks in this country.

Hobart took to the sea for his health in his younger days, and he came to San Francisco in 1849 as a sailor. He returned to that city again in 1856, and, with his brother, settled there and engaged in the wholesale boot and shoe business. He conducted this business until 1864, when he sold out and returned to the East, but came again to California in 1871, and settled in this part of the country, in the Ojai Valley, where he has ever since resided. He established the first fruit ranch in that valley. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

Public Schools Again Will Use the Kurtzmann!

Award Just Made

For the third consecutive year have been awarded the contract to supply the Los Angeles Public Schools with TWENTY KURTZMANN PIANOS. This choice was made after a careful examination by the Musical Faculty of all Pianos that were offered. This selection means that a Musical Faculty of the highest standing has again selected the Kurtzmann. Remember, this is the third consecutive year for the selection of this famous

KURTZMANN

A Wonderful Piano at $375.00 Up

The Kurtzmann is positively unrivaled and unapproached at its price. For sixty-three years it has been a leading Piano. Today more than fifty-two thousand of these instruments are in use, including several thousand in Southern California alone.

The Kurtzmann is a splendid instrument for the home—musically perfect, sweet toned and perfect in tone and action. It is one of the medium priced Pianos upon which it is safe for your children

The new cases and designs in the Kurtzmann will add luster to this famous old make. Included are beautiful Mahogany veneers, Oaks in different shadings and finished to match any interior.

Kurtzmanns are purchasable on terms as low as $7 and upward monthly.

Kurtzmann Player Pianos at $650 and $700 are wonderfully perfect and will give thorough satisfaction. Come in and try the Kurtzmann Player—you will be delighted with it.

Slightly Used Kurtzmanns

These instruments have in some instances been used only a week or two by Traveling Artists, having been sent to their hotels for practice purposes. They are styles that sell regularly at $400, $425 and $450. Offered now at $295 and $325. These are shown in practically all the different woods and finishes.

Mandolins, Guitars, Etc., Reduced

We are closing out all odds and ends of slightly used Mandolins, Guitars, Banjos, Violins and other small musical instruments, including about 150 in all. These will go at about one-third of their original cost. They are practically as good as new—having been taken in exchange on new instruments or rented out for a few days—some being shop-worn or slightly bruised. Excellent Violin Outfits for beginners—would ordinarily be worth $30, $40 or $50—will be sold for $8, $15, $20, and $25.

UNION PACIFIC OVERLAND ROUTE

Development.

LINK BETWEEN RICH EMPIRES.

New Railway Line from Los Angeles to Spokane.

Surveys Finished; May Take Three Years to Build.

Cuts Hundreds of Miles from North to Southwest.

A new railroad, binding with ties of steel the great Northwest and the Southland, making possible the settlement and development of hundreds of thousands of acres heretofore far removed from avenues of traffic, is to link Los Angeles and Spokane. It will reduce the distance between them several hundreds of miles and bring this city nearly as close to the Washington metropolis as is San Francisco itself. The surveys have been completed and the new trans-State line will be finished within three years, or by the time the Panama traffic is well developed.

Advices received yesterday from towns which will be on the new line state that the plans have so far progressed that the actual work of construction is under way at two points, and before long the dirt will be flying at several others.

The new railroad is a part of the Harriman system and in working out the right of way several hundred miles of existing line is to be used; plus approximately 350 miles of absolutely new construction flung across rugged mountains, and about 150 miles of narrow guage reconstructed to meet the new requirements.

NOTABLE DEVELOPMENT.

What the new development means to Los Angeles and Southern California cannot be estimated even by the most optimistic. It means a fast, short outlet for the enormous tonnage which will come to the Los Angeles harbor for distribution after the canal is open. It means easy access to the Owens Valley and the rich country tributary thereto; it means the saving of many hours in reaching points in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Nevada; it means another massive link in the great chain welding Los Angeles to the world at large; it means that this city is to be the hub of western commerce.

The final survey provides for the use of the tracks of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company from Spokane, the northern terminal, to Lewiston, Idaho, a distance of about 200 miles.

From Lewiston the projected route is along the rugged sides of the Snake River, through some of the most picturesque scenery in the West, to Homestead, where connection is made with a branch line running from Huntington on the Oregon Short Line. This construction approximates 150 miles.

From Huntington the main line is to be used southeast to Nampa, Idaho, where a farewell is taken of civilization for about 250 miles through a wild, mountainous country, almost uninhabited, and necessitating much costly engineering, to Winnemucca on the main line of the Union Pacific.

From Winnemucca to Hazen, Nev., about 150 miles, it is plain sailing on a roadbed already constructed. There is already a narrow-gauge line in operation from Hazen to Owenyo in Inyo county, another 150 miles, and this road must be reconstructed.

RICH COUNTRY.

In discussing the possibilities of the new line to the north yesterday F. C. McGinness of the passenger department of the Southern Pacific declared that the country between Hazen and Owenyo is capable of great development, but that the grade will have to be considerably modified to meet the demands of heavy broad gauge traffic. Many of the towns are some distance removed from the railroad, and a relocation of a portion of this section may be feasible. Surveyors have been over the line and it is reported that two crews are already at the work of standardizing, but this announcement McGinness says he thinks is premature.

At Owenyo connection is again made with the line built along the aqueduct from Mojave and which is at present in operation. This is a standard gauge of heavy steel and well ballasted so that very little work is required to make it ready to turn over to the operating department of the through line when the first "solid" train pulls out for Spokane. From Mojave to Los Angeles the regular tracks of the Southern Pacific will be used.

The first work is to begin along the Snake River, and while the construction experts allow three years for its completion it is believed that this limit can be cut considerably.

The distance from Los Angeles to Spokane over the shortest existing line is 1550 miles. By way of the new road it will be reduced to about 1175 miles. It is now 1075 miles from San Francisco to Spokane, and this slight difference in favor of San Francisco will be more than offset be the elimination or material reduction of many heavy grades so that it will be cheaper as well as more expeditious to ship from Los Angeles than from San Francisco, taking into effect the haul between this city and San Francisco.

NEGRO MISSION MEETING.

El Paso-Pacific Conference Is Begun at Phillips Chapel and Will Continue Through Sunday.

The fourth annual session of the El Paso-Pacific Mission Conference of the Colored M. E. Church is in session here at Phillips Chapel, C. M.E. Church, No. 1406 Newton street. Bishop C. H. Phillips, D.D., of Nashville, Tenn., one of the best-known churchmen of the race, is presiding. Ministers from Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and other parts of California are attending.

The conference will last through Sunday, when the appointments for the next conference year will be read.

A number of local pastors attended the conference yesterday morning and were introduced. Bishop Phillips delivered an address, in which he urged the ministers to be honest and reliable

Projected Direct Line from Spokane to Los Angeles,

To be built as an addition to the Harriman lines and which will cut the distance between the two cities to a point but little greater than that from San Francisco to Spokane. The trackage shown from Spokane to Lewiston, along the Snake River to the Oregon Short Line, from Nampa to Winnemucca, to Hazen, to Owenyo (narrow gauge now,) to Mojave, to Los Angeles is the route. The road to be constructed is indicated by the dotted lines. The other roads shown are the present routes.

CROSS CONTINENT DASH TO CHASE AWAY ENNUI.

Here After Thrilling Transcontinental Ride.

SIX automobile enthusiasts, two of them young women of the fashionable set of New York City, their faces sunburned, their clothing showing marks of terrifiv wear and their machines covered from radiator to tail light with the mud of Wyoming streams and the dust of California deserts, arrived late yesterday in Los Angeles, closing a tour of thrills from the Atlantic to the Pacific. In the party that registered at the Alexandria were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Webb, Miss Jean Eastman, sister of Mrs. Webb, James Cunningham, Herbert Payne and Harry Amon. Nebraska was the scene of the only arrest, when Mr. Webb was called to halt by the constable of the village of Edison for exceeding the speed limit. Regular fines according to that dignified official were $25, but in cases where cash was at once forthcoming this was reduced to $5.

At Rock Springs, Wyo., the big Simplex car in the lead, plunged through a bridge into a swollen stream which had eaten away one embankment. The party, congratulating themselves on their narrow escape, had to practically rebuild the bridge with commandeered railroad ties and fish the car out of the creek before they could proceed. It took ten hours, everybody working with might and main.

While passing through the mountainous wilds the cars were parked and days at a time were passing in hunting and fishing. Mrs. Webb proved herself the Diana of the party with the handsome trophies she secured. On arrival at Tonopah, where the party went to look over some mining property in which they had special interests they were informed that it would not be necessary to carry an extra case of gasoline, since it was procurable at Rock Springs, 75 miles distant and from there on it was easily possible to drive to the next small town about 120 miles further.

Arriving at Rock Springs, they found the dealer just out of the much needed fluid. Night was falling. What to do? Pretty Miss Eastman settled it by leaping into the machine and making a wild night dash over the desert wastes back to the mining camp. It was impossible to follow her and when she returned at 5 o'clock in the morning, after her all-night run, she was voted the heroine of the journey.

James Cunningham, or "Happy Jim," represented his party through country towns as a troupe of actors, leading man of the party being Herman Dinglebender. Webb, who was pointed out as the famous character, is really a wealthy automobile dealer and closely related to the Vanderbilts.

After a week in this city, the party will proceed to San Francisco.

TO MAKE RIGHT STRANGE RITES.

First White Couple Ever Wed Navajo-Wise Elope.

Son of Trader-King Hubbell and New York Belle.

Romantic fiction in all its vagaries never set its signet to a stranger matrimonial alliance than that contracted with all the tribal ceremonies of the Navajo Indians between Roman Hubbell and Miss Alma Juliette Dorr, the former son of the chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Arizona, and the latter, daughter of a wealthy New York capitalist, residing on a country estate at Dolgeville, N. Y.

Fearing that such a ceremony would never find favor with their relatives and friends, and returning to a realization of more civilized conventions, the two young people eloped several days ago from the Hubbell hacienda, where they were the life of a gay house party, and came from Ganado to Pasadena, where, Wednesday evening they were united in civil marriage by a Catholic clergyman, both parties being members of that church.

It was while on a trip to Washington with his father, that Roman Hubbell, a stalwart, brown-eyed, handsomely featured Adonis, met Miss Alma Dorr, a svelte brunette, with black eyes, and blacker hair, who had just returned from school in Paris. The acquaintance lead to an invitation to the Hubbell rancho, which is famous throughout the country for its hospitality and as the place near which occurs every year the wonderful Moqui dance of the Navajo Indians.

STRANGE ROMANCE.

This remnant of the aborigines has looked upon the elder Hubbell as a semi-deity, for he has traded among them for forty-five years and is at the head of a chain of trading posts through the Southwest. Two sons of the family grew up among the members of the tribe, and were looked upon with nearly equal reverence, which explains the possibility of the sequel. This year, when preparations for the dance were started, invitations to the home of the Hubbells were sent broadcast as usual, and Miss Dorr was one of those to come, accompanied by a chaperon from the distant East.

Almost from the day of arrival she and Roman were inseparable. They rode together daily and walked in the evening in the by-ways of Ganado. On the night of August 15 they strolled two miles to the Indian encampment, and there, after awakening the tribesmen, suggested being married by one of them. Chief Miguelito, looking upon Roman as his own son, started the proceeding, when it was found that sufficient cornmeal was lacking to complete the ceremony.

Young Hubbell, barebacked, rode one of the Indian ponies to the store at Ganado, which he is owner of, and secured the meal. Returning, this was placed in a basket, solemnly mixed with waters, crossed in the directions of the four points of the compass, sprinkled with the strange herbs of the medicine man and partaken of by the two white people amid the chanting and dancing of the Indians. At the conclusion of the ceremony, which took place in the log hogan of Chief Miguelito, the wedded ones returned to the Hubbell hacienda.

They were reluctant to announce

VANGUARD OF INVADING HOST IS DUE TOMORROW.

SEVEN special de luxe trains bearing the advance guard of the veterans and delegates who are coming to the Forty-sixth National Encampment of the G.A.R. are due to arrive in Los Angeles tomorrow over the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe lines.

The special train carrying the Illinois delegation and Commander-in-Chief Trimble and 200 members of his staff is scheduled to arrive at the Southern Pacific depot at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A reception committee headed by Executive Director Osborne will meet the train and escort the commander and his staff to headquarters. The special left Chicago Wednesday night. It will stop over at San Francisco for a few hours tonight, where a reception has been arranged in honor of the distinguished party.

The specials will begin to arrive at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning and Director Osborne is anxious to have as many of the Reception Committee as possible on hand to welcome the visitors. In addition to the reception committee there will be about 100 Spanish War veterans posted at the depots to receive the old soldiers and escort them to their headquarters. The younger veterans will hold a smoker in honor of the visiting veterans Thursday night in the headquarters of the organization, No. 517 South Broadway.

By Southern Pacific—Commander-in-Chief's special, 11 o'clock a.m.; Illinois, Arizona, North Dakota special, 11 a.m.

By the Santa Fe—Connecticut special, 7:10 a.m.; Ohio special, 7:30 a.m.; Pennsylvania special, 6:15 p.m. Colorado and Wyoming special tomorrow night, time uncertain.

Headquarters have been established in the Pacific Electric building where the veterans and visitors may register and be assisted in securing accommodations. A G.A.R. button or Woman's Relief Corps badge will be all the credential necessary.

The Reception Committee held a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building yesterday and completed its final arrangements for the receiving of the visitors. The Executive Committee convened yesterday aftrnoon and considered ways and means for special entertainments. Director Osborne announced after the meeting that everything is now in readiness to greet the thousands of veterans and members of the various allied organizations.

The G.A.R. headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building presented a busy scene yesterday. Over fifty old soldiers from various parts of the country arrived yesterday and were escorted to the headquarters, where they were warmly welcomed.

One of the early arrivals was Col. A. S. Fowler of Little Rock, Past Department Commander of Arkansas. Col. Fowler is one of the youngest veterans of the Civil War. He enlisted in 1861 at Camp Mingo, O., when but 13 years of age. He served as a mounted orderly under Gen. Rosecrans during the greater part of the war.

Ameriacus Whendon, a member of the National Pension Commission and candidate for Junior Vice-Commander-in-Chief of the G.A.R., was also a caller at the headquarters yesterday. He is one of the best-known officials of the Grand Army and stands an excellent chance of being elected.

Chairman Jenkins, of the Automobile Committee, is in need of about 100 more automobiles to facilitate the work of locating the visitors. Owners of machines are reminded that most of the city's guests are feeble and unable to walk far without fatigue. Automobilists will

RARE AND UNIQUE.

United States Army Corps Badges in Colors.

The Los Angeles Times Illustrated Weekly for the current week (printed today and ready for the public tomorrow.) will contain a striking feature of peculiar interest to veterans and patriotic citizens as well. This feature will consist of a double-page reproduction, in colors, of an official chart issued by the War Department, entitled "Corps Badges of the United States Army—1865." The chart represents all the badges in use by all the army corps, regular and volunteer, at that historic period. These badges are now reproduced on the recently reconstructed seven-cylinder forty-page electroplate magazine perfecting printing press of The Times, and show the badges in facsimile as follows:

First Division, red; Second Division, white; Third Division, blue; Fourth Division, green; Fifth Division, orange. Also the badges of the different artillery and cavalry corps.

The reproduction will occupy the two middle pages of the magazine, printed as one. The sheet will be instantly pronounced both rare and valuable. It will be a good thing to secure and preserve. It is safe to say that not one person in ten thousand, including even soldiers, has ever seen this chart.

A view of the process of printing in colors, itself entertaining and informing, may be had by visiting veterans at the new Times Building, First and Broadway, between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 12 m. today, when they are invited to be present, and where they will be received.

CEMETERIES TO BECOME POPULAR.

MAY HOLD RECEPTIONS THERE, COUNCIL LEARNS.

Our Graveyards to Be the Most Attractive and Wholesome Places in the City, as Well as the Most Popular for Social Gatherings, Is Prophecy to City Dads.

"Uncle Jerry" Andrews, optimist and orator of the City Council, has visions of the time ahead when the city's cemeteries will be pleasant picnic grounds and you will give your friends a treat by inviting them to the graveyard.

"The old Methodist hymn that runs
'Come, dying man,
And view the ground
Where you so soon must lie,' is going out of popularity," declared Andrews to the Council yesterday.

"The cemeteries of Los Angeles in the future—and that not a distant future—will be the most attractive and healthful places in the city, and people will visit them for pleasure and rest. Not one body in 1000 will be interred, but cremation will prevail," he continued.

Representatives of the Undertakers' Association and those desiring the establishment of new undertaking zones were present at this committee meeting to urge favorable action on desired legislation.

They also want the ordinance amended so that they will not be considered constant law-breakers. At present nearly every undertaking establishment within Los Angeles is violating the provisions of the ordinance requiring that they must not be within fifty feet of any residence, school or church.

The committee decided to recommend to the City Council the elimination of the fifty-foot limit.

Councilman Reed urged the adoption of plans modeled on those in vogue in modern continental European cities, providing a two-block zone around all cemeteries, within which undertakers must find their locations. Reed would have this apply at once to any new establishments, and give those already established in the downtown district a period of five years within which to make the change. Reed also advocated the prohibition of funeral processions through the streets, declaring that bodies should be removed from residences to undertakers' establishments at night.

The changes proposed in the ordinance would provide an extension of the original undertakers' zone in the downtown district, so as to add territory on Los Angeles street, and the creation of new zones at Highland Park, Boyle Heights, Hollywood, Wilmington and San Pedro. The committee will visit these sections today to determine whether they shall be designated for this purpose.

FATHER RESPONSIBLE.

Benjamin Beckenstein will have to go to jail unless he keeps his two young sons off the street at night in obeyance of the curfew law, according to an edict handed down yesterday in the Justice Court. Benjamin's two boys, Jake and Lewis, who are 10 and 11 years old, have been roaming the streets at night, according to the police. They were warned to stay off but have not heeded, it is said.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Legislation Committee of the City Council recommended yesterday the removal of the limit on undertaking establishments. They are not supposed to locate within fifty feet of any residence, school or church.

Frank Schafer appeared before the Legislation Committee of the City Council and the Municipal Railroad Commission yesterday and said he represented capitalists who stand ready to build a railroad to the harbor for the city, and a belt line if desired.

Chief Sebastian said yesterday that he will propose to the Police Commission that women and girls be prohibited from working in any place where liquors are sold.

Mayor Alexander received more threats of a recall yesterday unless he persuades the Public Service Commission to change its policy in regard to assessing districts for water extensions.

The proposed storm drain for the Western avenue district, which is to be an outlet for the Arroyo de la Sacatella storm drain, was recommended yesterday by the Legislation Committee of the City Council.

A suit to determine who should be declared secretary-treasurer of the Socialist organization in this city came to naught in the Superior Court yesterday, for it was held the court has no jurisdiction to settle such a squabble.

At the City Hall.

OFFERS HARBOR LINE SOLUTION.

REPRESENTATIVE OF INTERESTS MAKES PROPOSITION.

Would Finance Project and Sell to City Within Reasonable Time Limit at Five Per Cent. Advance on Original Cost Less Net Gain from Traffic.

The Legislation Committee of the City Council, to which body was referred the resolutions of the Harbor Commission in regard to the creation of a holding company for the building of a municipal line on San Pedro street, and also the resolution presented by Councilman Reed, asking the city to take immediate steps towards building this line, adopted the following resolution yesterday:

"That the Municipal Railroad Commission be instructed to make arrangements and such plans as may be necessary for financing, either by popular subscription or by contract, the building of the municipal railroad on San Pedro street, from the Plaza to the harbor, and that that portion between the Plaza and Seventh street be constructed immediately. The said commission to consult with the City Attorney and Special Counselor Hewitt as to the legality of such a transaction, and to make a report direct to the Legislation Committee."

At this meeting Frank Schafer appeared and said he represents capitalists who stand prepared to build for the city the line to the harbor, and a belt line, if so desired; that they will finance the entire affair, and sell it to the city within a reasonable time limit at a 5 per cent. advance on the original cost less the net gain from traffic to the time the city shall take the line.

Later in the day Schafer met with the Municipal Railroad Commission in executive session, and was requested to put in writing the details of his proposition. These will be considered at a meeting of this commission to be held next Monday.

CHIEF HAS PDAN. WOULD PROTECT WOMEN.

Chief Sebastian at the next meeting of the Police Commission will advocate a measure which he believes would do much toward giving protection to women, and that would be in line with the general policy of the city government to throw rigid restrictions around the business of retail liquor selling.

The Chief will advocate a rule or ordinance prohibiting the employment of any girl or woman in any place where intoxicating liquors are sold. He says this is in line with his action at the last meeting of the commission, when he urged that a rule be adopted providing that no oriental cafe or restaurant holding a liquor permit shall employ white girls or women.

While he has had convincing proof that girls have launched on evil paths while working in oriental cafes, the Chief declares there are also constant cases coming to his knowledge of young women and girls who have become acquainted with evil associates while employed in other places where liquors are sold. He believes the whole system of employing women in such places should be abolished.

Expensive City Work.

The City Engineer estimates the cost of the Echo Park storm drain will be $21,951. The Legislation Committee yesterday refused to recommend that proceedings for this proposed improvement be continued until a statement shall be received from the Finance Committee that provision can be made for meeting this expense. Property owners around Echo Park are anxious to have the storm drain constructed before the next rains, as at present all the storm waters from Sunset boulevard are discharged into Echo Lake.

Mayor Is Worried.

Mayor Alexander is worried over the situation that has developed in regard to the policy adopted by the Public Service Commission. He has been threatened by the recall if he allows this policy to stand, without his protest, and he was visited yesterday by real estate men, who made personal protestations, the vigor of which was impressive.

The general understanding of the policy outlined by the Public Service Commission, says the Mayor, is that when the water service is carried into new districts, or a new system is necessary in a district already served, there shall be formed an assessment district to pay for such work. But, according to representations made to the Mayor yesterday, the policy also provides that when connection shall be made from existing mains to vacant lots, the property owner is to be charged with the original cost of the water main in front of his property, in addition to the connection charges and those that he must incur in carrying the water to his own property.

"I am not satisfied with this," said the Mayor, "and I shall at once confer with the members of the Public Service Commission in regard to it. I do not believe this is just, and it is going to make a vast amount of complaint."

Western Avenue Drain.

Another big link in the proposed general storm sewer system was approved by the Legislation Committee yesterday, when the Western avenue storm sewer was passed to the Council. This will be the outlet for the Arroyo de la Brea storm sewer, plans and ordinance of intention for which were adopted by the Council Wednesday. The Western avenue sewer will probably cost $500,000. A great assessment district will be created to pay for the work.

Automatic Light Plan.

The recommendation of the Police Commission that the City Council require the placing of a lighting device on all automobiles to show the speed of the machine by various colored lights, was ordered filed by the Legislation Committee of the Council yesterday.

While the members of the committee looked with favor on the device, they believed that in order to make it practicable a similar law would have to be applied to the entire State. Guy Garner, representative of this device, said yesterday that he proposes to try to get the indorsement of voters for it and an ordinance compelling its use. It is asserted by opponents that the company controlling it would probably make $500,000 or more were each autoist compelled to attach one of these $25 devices to his machine.

Stop That Smoking.

The Legislation Committee of the City Council recommended yesterday that the City Attorney and Chief of Police be instructed to prepare an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for owners or drivers of automobiles to allow any unnecessary discharge of smoke from these machines while on any public street. Chief Sebastian has recommended the adoption of such an ordinance.

Confer With Bannings.

The special committee from the Harbor Advisory Board, Gen. Chaffee, Commissioner Gordon of the Harbor Commission, and Special Counsel Hewitt, will confer with Hancock Banning at Wilmington this forenoon in regard to a proposed change of harbor lines on the Mormon Island Channel. The city officials wish to have the harbor lines so located that no matter what may be the outcome of the tidelands suits, the municipal wharf to be erected at Wilmington will be on city property.

Hollywood Municipal Hall.

Chief Inspector of Buildings Backus has requested the Fire Commission, Water Commission, City Engineer, City Attorney and Board of Public Works to advice him how much space they will require in the proposed municipal building for the lot in Hollywood that was donated by Mrs. Philo Beveredge for a City Hall before Hollywood became a part of Los Angeles. It is now proposed to utilize this lot for a municipal building to house branch departments of the city government and fire apparatus.

Appraisement Not Too High.

Commissioner Humphreys of the Board of Public Works made a report yesterday to that board on the application of the R. H. Raphael Realty Company for a vacation of a part of Chavez street, and its protest against the valuation of $2655 made by Humphreys on this land as one-half its value—the rule of the board being that when land is vacated the adjoining owner must pay half its value before it is allowed to revert to him. The realty company says it considers the land worth only $550, and that it is justly entitled to it. Humphreys says the land is undervalued at the price he set, and that no one is entitled to it, as it was originally part of the old pueblo lands and has been used from time immemorial for street and road purposes.

No Damages Wanted.

The time for filing petitions for damages on the proposed improvement of East First street, from Evergreen avenue to the easterly city limits expired yesterday, and no protests or petitions were filed. The improvement is an important one, as it will provide a paved street for the main travel from the east through Boyle Heights to the business districts.

City Hall Brevities.

The Harbor Commission has adopted a resolution asking the City Council to make an appropriation of $3500 to secure a boat for the use of harbor officials. This will go before the Council next Tuesday.

Representatives of the various steamship companies maintaining ticket offices here will appear before the Harbor Commission at its next meeting to discuss proposed provisions for an ordinance regulating the selling of tickets for steamship travel.

The City Engineer has sent to the Board of Public Works his estimate on the work to be required should the city construct culverts across the arroyo at First street and at Temple street, east of Alexandria street, as petitioned for by certain property owners of that district. The improvement would involve the grading of these streets and the construction of culverts to carry water through the fills, and the City Engineer recommends that this work be done under the Vrooman Act proceedings, to be paid for by an assessment district. He states that the improvement of First street from Alexandia easterly for 690 feet is all that would be required at present to afford suitable facilities for travel across the arroyo.

During the past week there were twenty-eight fire alarms, of which four were false. In only five fires was there property loss, and this is estimated at only $2885, according to the report filed by Fire Chief Eley with the Fire Commission yesterday.

The Fire Commission voted yesterday to extend to Fire Chief Eley and the fire companies that worked at the Ocean Park fire the hearty congratulations of the commission for their brave work in the face of peril. The Fire Chief made a report to the commission of the work done by himself and the local companies at the great fire.

SOCIALIST SPAT GIVEN AIRING.

OFFICE SEEKER'S APPEAD IS MADE IN VAIN.

Man Who Presumably Represents Faction Opposed to Violence Loses Out in Endeavor to Secure Place to Which Another Is Elected. Charges.

Internal troubles among the Socialists were again aired in Judge Monroe' court yesterday when a suit to determine who should be declared the local secretary-treasurer of the Socialist organization came up on demurrer. The court sustained the demurrer, holding that he had no jurisdiction to settle their squabbles. The plaintiff was also denied the right to amend his complaint. This action apparently takes the question out of the courts.

F. B. Merriam, the plaintiff, and T. W. Williams, the defendant, warred over the doubtful honor of being secretary-treasurer of the local branch of the State Socialist party. Both were candidates for the office, Merriam presumably representing a wing of the party opposed to violence.

The count of the votes showed on the surface that Williams had been elected. Merriam declared the election was illegal and tried to get an injunction from the court. He also brought suit.

The demurrer was on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction and arguments were made for several hours yesterday in support and against this proposition.

The controversy has already split the local Socialists and may be settled by the State Executive Council.

SEER HAS NO GOLD. FORECLOSURE SUIT ON.

Baba Premanand Bharati, a seer and religious mystic from India, who at one time created something of a flutter among women devotees of this city, has evidently found the practice of his cult isn't a financial success, for yesterday a foreclosure suit was brought against him in teh Superior Court.

The plaintiff, Eleonora Roemer, is administratrix of the estate of her former husband, August Roemèr. She wants to foreclose on property, No. 1430 Dana street, on which a $3000 mortgage is said to be due.

The deal was made in 1910, the defendant assuming a mortgage and paying $600 down and $400 about a year later. The complaint sets forth that the Indian soothsayer kept up the interest on the balance until last March, but has paid nothing since then.

John Doe and Jane Doe are named in the foreclosure proceedings as claiming some interest in the property, which consists of a two-story house, furnishings and lot.

GETS HIS DIAMOND. PAWNBROKER LOSES SUIT.

A decision was handed down yesterday by Judge Houser in the case of Frank Conley, boxer, against A. B. Cohn, a pawnbroker at Third and Main streets. Conley is awarded the diamond, valued at $400.

When the case was tried Cohn attempted to prove that he had lost a diamond and that when L. E. Brent, Conley's manager, took the stone to him he had at once recognized it as his. Despite the protestations of both Conley and Brent, according to the evidence, Cohn kept the ring.

ALLEGES JOY RIDE. WANTS DAMAGES FOR USE.

L. D. Loomis brought suit in the Superior Court yesterday against the White Garage and Motor Company, setting forth an unusual cause of action.

The plaintiff says he took his Pierce machine to the garage to be left there in storage until he wanted it. He avers that it was taken from the garage June 17 and unlawfully driven about the city by persons unknown to him. It is alleged the crank shaft was broken and other injuries sustained. For fixing his car, etc., the plaintiff asked $765 damages.

DEAVES LARGE ESTATE. DIVIDES HIS PROPERTY.

The will of C. C. Hess, formerly of Seward, Neb., was filed in the Probate Court yesterday. He left an estate worth approximately $100,000.

A one-fourth interest is devised to Ethel M. Graff of Seward; Arthur Graff of Bedford, Iowa; Florence Hess of this city, and the remaining fourth in trust for Francis E. Hess, a son living in Bedford.

No provision is made for Charles B. Hess, a son living in Gooding, Idaho, or for Hope Hess Therson and Lottie Hess, all having been given their share prior to their father's death.

MOTORCYCLIST RUN OVER. SUES OWNER OF AUTO.

E. F. Wood brought suit in the Superior Court yesterday against James B. Forbes to recover $20,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of an accident on Santa Fe avenue August 17.

The plaintiff asserts he was riding along the street on his motorcycle when the defendant came up in his motor car and in a careless and reckless manner swerved to the side where the plaintiff was, striking the motorcycle and hurling its rider to the ground.

Wood alleges he suffered many severe injuries.

COURTHOUSE NOTES. BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

AUTO STRUCK. Marshall A. Stutsman brought suit against the Los Angeles Railway Corporation yesterday for injuries sustained a year ago. He says while crossing Santa Barbara avenue on Figueroa street a street car struck his machine, inflicting damage to it and hurting the plaintiff. He asks $2000 damages.

TO CANCEL CONTRACT. E. D. McDonald filed suit yesterday against C. C. Shannon and J. W. McCawley to have a contract for the manufacture of a patent casket cancelled. He alleges the defendants did not act in good faith.

SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE. E. F. Gerecht filed suit yesterday to compel Helen R. Herrick to give deed to a lot at Temple and Douglas street which he says she agreed to exchange for certain Redondo Beach property and cash.

QUIET TITLE. Victor Humbert filed suit yesterday to quiet title to certain property claimed by G. G. Greenwood, administrator of the estate of Thomas J. Kirk.

LARGE ESTATE. A petition for administration on the estate of the late John Barry, a mining man, was filed in the Probate Court yesterday by his widow, Mrs. Olive Ione Barry. The real estate holdings amount to about $150,000 and there is $8000 cash.

DAMAGE SUIT. Margaret Garland Aycock filed suit yesterday asking for $50,000 damages for injuries received in an elevator accident in the Story building. W. P. and Nelson Story are made defendants. It is alleged that the negligence of the operator resulted in the plaintiff being caught between the floor and the elevator as she was getting out.

INCORPORATIONS. Santa Monica Bath House Corporation, incorporators, J. B. Proctor, W. J. Staedelman, C. W. Rogers, Harrison Cowell and A. M. Montgomery, capital stock, $35,000, subscribed, $500; Pasadena Lumber Company, incorporators, Anna M. Tallaksen, Selma A. Tallaksen and Thomine C. Tallaksen, capital stock $50,000, subscribed, $600; Alhambra Hardware Company, incorporators, C. F. Messmann, J. E. Dunbar and W. P. Middleton, capital stock, $25,000, subscribed, $300; The Neale Company, incorporators, W. J. Neale, F. B. Range and Elena B. de Neale, capital stock, $10,000, subscribed, $7100; Out West Commercial Company, incorporators, A. T. Arthur, J. B. Hoffman and Charles H. Morris, capital stock, $25,000, subscribed, $30; Eastwestern Trading Company, incorporators, Kichini Shikauri, Giichi Goto and Tokutaro Umeda, capital stock, $25,000, subscribed, $3000.

COMMISSIONER COMING.

Head of the United States Land Office to Visit Local Officials On Inspection Tour.

Fred L. Dennett, commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington, will be in Los Angeles next Monday, where he will remain that day and leave Tuesday for Salt Lake. The commissioner is on a general tour of inspection of the local land offices and has airdeay visited Denver and Portland, and is in San Francisco today. He will pay his respects while here to Gratz W. Helm, chief of the field division, Receiver Robinson and Register Buren of the local land office.

It is more than likely that he will take occasion to compliment the management of the officials here for the discharge of the important duties pertaining to their positions as during the past year the office of which he is the head has had occasion to reverse but once a decision of Register Buren and Receiver Robinson, out of the scores of cases that have been appealed by disappointed litigants having cases in the Land Office.

Chief Helm has been a big factor in the collection of data upon which the suits instituted by the government for the recovery of valuable oil lands now held by the Southern Pacific Railroad in Kern county, now in progress of hearing.

THE LAW AS SHE'S WRIT.

Cashier of Fishermen's Union Takes Serious Sounding Letter to Court. Charge Dismissed.

Details of the disruption in the Fishermen's Union at San Pedro came to light yesterday when Justice Reeve, on motion of Deputy District Attorney Graham, dismissed a charge of threats and extortion by letter against Paul Petrich, "cashier" of the union, preferred at the instance of Martin Miklauschutz, its deposed secretary.

Miklauschutz announced that the matter had been patched up at San Pedro. This is Petrich's letter, as set forth in the complaint:

SAN PEDRO (Cal.) July 9, 1912.

High, honorable and respectable.

Mr. Martin Miklauschutz: You as discharged secretary of the Fishermen Union of S. Cal. are hereby requested to bring within four days after having received this letter, all books belonging to the union to the Police Station or to the court in San Pedro, according to the laws of State Cal.

(II.) You have also to bring within the same time and to the same place the 85 dollars belonging to Market, which you have stolen from the court.

Should you not bring the things mentioned you will be arrested by District Attorney, county of Los Angeles—Penal Code of Cal. 504 or 153.

(III.) You have also to bring the 40$ which I gave you.

(IV.) Also the 35$ which you have collected from the members' and which you did not gave me according to law, you have to bring.

Now you have to answer within four days after receiving this letter, and if you bring everything you will be forgiven, otherwise you will be arrested.

You wanted to accuse me, that I have done all bad things in San Pedro and thought that you will gain something of it, but you have done worse for yourself.

You think that I have only one star when you went there.

I am waiting now for your answer within four days. Cashier of the Fishermen Union of S. Cal.

[Signed]

City Attorney office, San Pedro.

ASKING FOR ADVICE.

Deputy United States District Attorney Robinson yesterday received from the Department of Justice at Washington a communication stating that there had been filed in that department an application for the parole of the Magonistas, and asking for a recommendation. Under the Federal law the convicted men are eligible to parole upon application to what is known as the Parole Board of the Department of Justice.

FOR BALD HEADS

A Treatment That Costs Nothing If It Fails.

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our stores. The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle and Spokane.

Heavy Bodied Paint

Have you ever made a comparison of the working qualities of a first-class paint like Mathews Paint, and one of inferior grade? Don't paint your buildings again without doing so. Place two samples side by side—one of P. H. M. Paint and the "cheap" kind, and test them together. Note the greater covering power of the P. H. Mathews Paint; its heavy body and superior luster. Note the prices per gallon.

Rules That Will Govern The Times Booklovers' Contest

The contest is open to everybody. Only Times employees and members of their families are barred. Daily for 77 days will be published in The Times a picture representing the title of a book, one each day. Beneath this picture will be a coupon to fill in with the name of the book and the author, together with name and address of entrant.

Cut out the picture and coupon, filling in the book title and author's name, writing your name and address neatly and plainly in the place provided.

No restrictions are placed on the manner in which answers to pictures are secured. Each picture represents the title of one book only. If you are not certain of your solution you may send in one to ten answers to the picture. NO MORE THAN TEN ANSWERS WILL BE ACCEPTED TO A PICTURE. Incorrect answers will not count against contestant if correct answer is also given. And put one answer to each picture and coupon. Extra coupons must be secured and used for extra answers. All answers to each picture must be kept together in compiling your set.

Additional pictures and coupons may be obtained at The Times office, by mail or by person. Answers will not be accepted unless they are properly filled out on the coupons appearing beneath each picture. It is necessary that pictures be sent in with the answers in order that all answers may be uniform.

When you have all 77 answers, fasten them together and bring them or mail them in a neat flat package—not folded or rolled—to The Times office, addressed "BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST EDITOR." Prizes will be awarded contestants sending in the largest number of correct solutions. In the event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, the person using the smallest number of extra coupons in the set of answers will be declared the winner. In event of two or more persons having the same number of correct solutions, and using the same number of coupons, an equal interest in the prizes tied for will be given to each of the tying contestants, or the persons involved in the tie may choose any one of the other lesser prizes.

More than one prize will not be awarded to any one family, but each member of the family may enter the contest and submit a complete set.

Only one complete set (comprising not more than 10 answers to any one picture) of answers may be submitted by a contestant. Awards will be made strictly according to the merit of each separate list. The names of more than one person must not be written on any one coupon.

All answers will be considered on their merits. The first set filed will have no preference over the last set filed; provided only that answers must be filed within the time specified after the last picture has appeared.

The awards will be made by the Contest Editor and three well-known citizens whose names will be announced later.

The correct answers to the series of pictures will be filed with a local trust company or bank a week previous to the close of the contest.

Entry to the contest may be made at any time. All communications or letters of inquiry concerning the contest should be addressed to the Booklovers' Contest Editor, The Times.

Read This Carefully

If you have an Answer Book you need only one copy of each picture, yet you can make one or three or six or ten answers to each picture. You don't have to get extra pictures and coupons to make extra answers.

The top pages of the Answer Book are numbered from 1 to 77 inclusive. On the top of page 1, for instance, you paste picture No. 1. On the bottom of page 1 are ten spaces marked off. Here you write the answer or answers you want to make to picture No. 1. And so for picture No. 2. It is pasted on the top page of page 2, and the answer or answers written on the bottom of page 2, and so for the 77 pictures.

You need have only one copy of each of the 77 pictures, but you can write down as many answers to each picture as you want to, just so you don't make more than ten answers to any one picture.

The Answer Book is of convenient size to carry in the pocket or satchel. In shape it resembles a stenographer's note book—open from the bottom, like a note book, not from the side like a story book.

And, printed in the Answer Book are six certificates, each one of which is good for six pictures, with the exception of the last or sixth certificate, which is good for 5 pictures. To get these six certificates with the Answer Book, all that it is necessary &for you to do is to sign a three months' subscription blank, agreeing to take this paper for that period. You will need the paper every day, anyway, in order to get the daily picture, keep posted about the contest, and so you might just as well take the paper and get the 35 FREE pictures with the Answer Book.

Certificate No. 1 is good for pictures from No. 36 to 41 inclusive
Certificate No. 3 is good for pictures from No. 48 to 53 inclusive
Certificate No. 4 is good for pictures from No. 54 to 59 inclusive

Be sure you send in the proper certificates for the pictures you desire, and remember that no certificates are redeemable until the pictures for which they are good have appeared in the paper. For instance, suppose you wish pictures No. 36 to 41. If these pictures have already appeared in the paper, you tear out certificate No. 1 and present it at the office of The Times, and the clerk will give you the pictures, or send in the certificate by mail with the proper postage and the pictures will be sent you. If you wish pictures No. 36 to 47, tear out certificates No. 1 and 2. If you wish pictures No. 36 to 59, tear out certificates No. 1, 2, 3 and 4. Of course you cannot use a certificate for pictures until the actual pictures you want have been published in the paper. For instance, if you wished pictures No. 60 to 65, you would have to wait until pictures No. 60, 61, 62, 63, 64 and 65 had actually appeared in the paper.

HAVE YOU TIME TO WIN FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS?

Then Read This Story and Enter This Great Game.

There are seventy-seven pictures in The Times' great Booklovers' Contest. Each picture represents the title of a book, and those most successful in naming the correct titles will be awarded the $8500 in prizes!

And that is all there is to this game.

But learn this:

After the publication of the seventy-seventh picture The Times will grant an additional TWO WEEKS for contestants to finish the solving of the last pictures, look over their sets, get their sets ready for turning in, etc. During this two weeks' period no one will be allowed to send or bring in his set.

THEN will come a final week in which all sets must be sent or brought in.

So contestants will have THREE WEEKS' TIME after the publication of the last picture in which to continue solving pictures! Your set must be in by the end of that three weeks' period.

Thus, you have ALL THE TIME YOU COULD POSSIBLY NEED to solve the contest pictures. Get the back pictures to date, get the FREE pictures and save the balance of the seventy-seven pictures as they appear in The Times day after day. The game that has half the fun of this contest has never been invented, and the prizes to be awarded are magnificent!

And it is all pure fun. There is no canvassing, no soliciting, nothing of the usual contest about this.

Get a contest catalog for 35 cents, or 40 cents by mail. With each catalog go seven certificates, good for the first thirty-five contest pictures. Of course you know that the catalog is a list of about 4500 book titles, and that it was from this very list that the seventy-seven titles represented by the seventy-seven pictures were selected! In other words, ALL THE SEVENTY-SEVEN CORRECT TITLES ARE IN THE CATALOG.

And the pictures from No. 35 on you get free in this way: Get an Answer Book. This is a book of seventy-seven double pages, and on each page you paste one of the contest pictures. Then beneath each picture you write from one to ten answers, if you so choose. Thus, if you have an Answer Book, you can make as high as ten different answers to each picture, and yet have only ONE copy of each picture. The Answer Book costs 70 cents, or 75 cents by mail.

Listen: Ordinarily the Answer Book is sold alone. But if, when you buy it, you agree to take, or to continue to take, The Times for three months, you will be given, with the Answer Book, six certificates, which are redeemable for the pictures from No. 36 to No. 70, inclusive.

That is the way to get all the pictures to date, and more, free. Get a catalog, and when you get an Answer Book agree to take The Times for three months.

ATTITUDE OF THIS JOURNAL.

For the country and the flag.
For the Constitution and the courts.
For upholding the honor of the army and navy.
For orderly liberty under law.
For an Ocean-to-Ocean highway.
For true freedom in the industries.
For unshackled labor, nation-wide.
For Labor's protection, reward and repose.
For the home and its safeguarding.
For social order and business solidarity.
For world-wide peace with honor.
For security in the State.

For TAFT AND SHERMAN

And against their allied antagonists.
Against political fads, freaks and frenzy.
Against the Big Noise and the Big Stick.
Against the new-fangled judicial recall.
Against free trade and free soup.
Against union conspiracy and misrule.
Against the un-American closed shop.
Against industrial discrimination and proscription.
Against, not organized labor as such, but Against its acts when law-defying.
Against the bomb, boycott and bludgeon.
Against strikes, picketing and violence.
Against "progressivism" backwards.
Against treason and the red flag.

GETTING LAZY.

Five hundred ear specialists met in Boston and discussed a programme for abolishing noise. What's the use of having ears if one can't listen to the big sound? Besides, if a noisy noise annoys an oyster, it should not have this effect on an ear doctor whose business depends on persons going deaf.

JOHN BULL AGAIN.

John Bull "officially" denies that he has attempted to bully Uncle Sam into walking into the deadfall of The Hague tribunal. If so, your uncle will accept his apology. England would like to get the best of us—or of any other nation—in a diplomatic deal. That's business, of course. That is why her Oxford students study Vatel and Puffendorf. But when it comes to quarreling with us seriously, she has neither the heart nor the unwisdom to attempt it.

COMMERCIAL SLANG.

The most confusing thing in our language to a foreigner is its commercial terms. He reads in the market reports that there is "great activity" in pig iron. He supposes that pig iron is prancing around and he wonders at it. He reads that hops are "heavy" and he questions whether the weight of them will affect the quality of beer. Butter is said to be "strong"—it sometimes is at cheap boarding-houses. Barley is "off"—where has it gone to? Corn has "recovered" and "shows material strength"—glad that corn has convalesced. Wheat has been "supported on spots"—what spots? Pork is "rising"—let it arise. Let every pig climb to his proper place in life.

AUTOS AND RAILWAYS.

The auto is giving railroads in the West a sharp competition for their local passenger traffic and is menacing their local freight traffic. In a certain section of the West, it is said, "trains are running half-full of passengers, and the country roads that parallel the railroads are crowded with automobiles all day long and half the night." Inquiries made of the Secretary of State of Nebraska resulted in the information that there is one automobile for every forty persons in the State, or one for every ten families.

The farmers are extensive purchasers of autos and they buy high-priced cars. In towns not large enough to make a trolley line profitable omnibus autos are run between the railroad station and the outskirts of the town.

TWENTY-THREE BRITISH COLONIES.

Not counting Canada, or India, or Australia, or any territory acquired by Great Britain by any process prior to the year 1810, her subsequent acquisitions of territory, alphabetically arranged and classified as to manner of obtainment, are as follows:

Aden, purchased in 1839.
Ascension, seized in 1815.
Basutoland, seized in 1885.
Bechuanaland, seized in 1885.
Cyprus, purchased from Turkey in 1878.
Hongkong, taken possession of in 1841.
Labuan, swiped from the Sultan of Brunei in 1846.
Malacca, swiped from Siam in 1824.
Mauritius, captured from France in 1810.
Natal, "proclaimed" into Great Britain in 1843.
New Guinea, seized by Great Britain and Germany and divided between them in 1885.
North Borneo, ceded by the Sultan in 1878.
Perim, purchased in 1855.
Port Hamilton, swiped from Korea in 1881.
Sherbeo Island, ceded in 1862.
Mannah, ceded in 1883.
Socotra, swiped from Sultan of Keshin in 1886.
Tristan da Cunha, "claimed" in 1810.
Transvaal, acquired by conquest in 1902.
Zululand, swiped in 1887.

Two of the foregoing twenty-three colonies were acquired by legitimate conquest. Two were taken possession of with the consent of the inhabitants. Six were purchased and thirteen were obtained by the process invoked by the highwayman who takes the purse and watch of an unarmed traveler.

IRRIGATION AND DRY FARMING.

The present land laws do not encourage dry farming. Under them the desert entryman cannot obtain title except by irrigation. The object of the law is to reclaim arid land so as to make it produce crops. Some lands cannot be reclaimed except by irrigation. On other lands bountiful crops can be obtained by dry farming.

Irrigation is older than modern civilization. The waters of the Nile, the Tigris and the Euphrates were used for irrigation a thousand years and more before the Sermon on the Mount was uttered. The Spanish conquerors of South America found great dams and aqueducts in Peru and Chile and Mexico. In Arizona the surveyors of the first great canal in the Salt River Valley could find no better route than to follow the ruins of an ancient Aztec aqueduct which supplied water to thousands of acres that had been graded for irrigation by some prehistoric race. The government of the United States has constructed and is continuing to construct in the intermountain country great irrigating projects.

The cost of these reservoirs and canals is properly placed upon the lands beneficially affected thereby.

Yet there are vast semi-arid tracts where the rainfall is from eight to twenty inches per annum, where the land cannot be brought under irrigation, but where dry farming can be made profitable. The Farmers' Bulletin says:

> "By means of special methods of cultivation, requiring in some instances special tools and implements, and by the use of drought-resistant crops and varieties arid farming may be placed on a much safer basis than heretofore. The fact should not be disregarded, however, that under semi-arid conditions without irrigation crop failures are bound to be much more frequent than in regions of adequate rainfall, and it is generally conceded that, in order to establish a permanent home on the dry lands of the western plains, provision should be made for the irrigation of a small area on which vegetable food for the family and forage for the stock may be grown with certainty every year to tide over the seasons of possible failures on the unirrigated portion of the farm.
> "The first essential step in dry farming operations is to plow the ground deeply in order that the soil surface may be made receptive to rainfall. In many localities it is necessary for best results to subsoil to a depth of as much as thirty inches in order to break up the hard layer of soil often to be found beneath the surface in this region. With the soil thus prepared, the rainfall will sink rapidly to a depth of from a few inches to a few feet, according to its amount.
> "The second important thing is to prevent the evaporation of this rainfall after it has been received into the soil. This is accomplished by cultivating the surface of dry-farmed fields after each rain. The mulch of pulverized soil thus maintained on the field acts as a protecting blanket, which prevents the moisture from the deeper inches or feet of soil from evaporating at the surface.
> "A third important matter is the selection of crops which are especially suitable to our climatic conditions and to dry-farming methods of agriculture. There are many crop plants, such as milo maize, kaffir corn, sorghum, native varieties of maize and beans, together with such vegetable crops as melons and squashes, which do well under our climatic conditions. These crops, at the proper time of year, are planted down to soil moisture and then covered deeply with the surface mulch. The young plants will come up through a surprising depth of this mulch—as much as six or eight inches in the case of corn—and if the ground water supply is sufficient, and especially if the summer rains are favorable, a crop thus started may be brought to maturity."

Senator Ashurst of Arizona has introduced a bill to exempt from cancellation and provide for patenting of desert land entries reclaimed by dry farming processes. The bill reads as follows:

> "Be it enacted, etc., That no desert-land entry heretofore made under the public-land laws, for lands, shall be canceled or in any wise impaired because of any failure on the part of the entryman to make any annual or final proof falling due upon any such entry prior to December 31, 1913. Provided, however, That patent shall be permitted to issue to any desert-land entry when the proofs disclose that the land embraced within such entry has fairly and in good faith been reclaimed to agricultural or horticultural crops by the dry-farming process."

No more meritorious measure or more necessary for the encouragement and protection of dry farming has been presented in Congress. It is to be hoped that at the December session it may become a law.

FIGHTING THE STEAL.

A steamed Progressive contemporary is taking uncheerful news of the political situation. For three days it has been "daring" the Supreme Court of California, or the United States Court, or any old court "by its decree to set aside the deliberately-recorded mandate of the people of this State"—as it calls the late election—in favor of stealing the Republican name for its bolting candidates. That is to say, inasmuch as about twelve voters out of 100 voted for stealing the Republican organization for the Progressive party, and eight voters out of 100 voted against such a steal, and eighty out of 100 did not vote at all, therefore the robbery favored by one-eighth of the voters should be permitted to stand, and any judge who shall "dare" to attempt to divest the thieves of their stolen raiment will be guilty of judicial jugglery," and will "substitute his petty individual preference for the solemnly-declared judgment"—of 12 per cent. of the voters of California.

Our steamed contemporary evidently has a poor opinion of the courts. The Times will not quote, as it might, the ancient couplet:

"No thief e'er felt the halter draw
With good opinion of the law."

The Times will admit that, after an enterprising thief has climbed a porch, and broken into a bedroom, and stolen the best suit of clothes of the inmate, and arrayed himself in them, and started strutting for the street, it is hard for him to run into the grasp of a myrmidon of the law, who will divest him of his plunder and restore it to the rightful owner.

The Times will not attempt to untangle the Gordian knot of sophistries, and subterfuges, and trickeries, and technicalities which progressiveism has woven around its assumption that its seizure of the Republican name and organization for Roosevelt is "justifiable" larceny. The Times contends only that Republicans who have for years been members of the Grand Old Party should not now be compelled to accept the disagreeable alternative of voting the Democratic ticket in order to vote against the man who has betrayed and wrecked the Republican party.

Surely there ought to be some method by which those voters who favor the election of Taft will be able to vote for Taft. Whether that method shall be by the costly, dilatory and clumsy method of petition or by a decree of court—if such decree can be obtained—The Times does not assume to suggest.

It does suggest, however, that the Old Guard will not submit without a struggle to the outrageous attempt of the Progressives to drive them into either the Democratic corral or the third-term slaughterhouse. The stalwart Republicans have the will to defend their rights, and "wherever there's a will there's a way."

Popular in Los Angeles.

A RAILROAD TO SPOKANE.

Final surveys have been completed for an entirely new railroad line between Spokane and Los Angeles. It will be built by the Harriman system, which includes the Oregon Railway and Navigation, the Oregon Short Line, the Central Pacific and the Southern Pacific. It will be an almost straight line and will traverse fertile agricultural and fruit land, timber land, and mining districts.

Between Spokane, Wash., and Lewiston, Idaho, there is a road already constructed. From Lewiston a road will be built up the Snake River to the tracks of the Oregon Short Line, and thence the tracks of the Oregon Short Line will be used to Nampa, Idaho. From Nampa a new line will be built to Winnemucca, Nev. From Winnemucca to Hazen, Nev., the tracks of the Central Pacific will be used.

There is a road from Hazen to Tonopah Junction. From Tonopah Junction to Owenyo in Inyo county the track of the narrow gauge California and Colorado Railroad will be used. This track is now being changed to a standard broad gauge. A new line will be constructed from Owenyo to Mohave along the line of the Los Angeles aqueduct. At Mojave the road will strike the Southern Pacific track, which will be used into Los Angeles.

The work will largely consist of connecting existing lines.

Work has already been commenced. Two crews are standardizing the narrow-gauge line. Two crews are on the line between Hazen and Winnemucca. Crews will be placed at once on the new line on the upper Snake River. The completed line is promised in three years, but may be finished in much less time.

The road will tap a country heretofore untouched by steam transportation. Spokane will, by means of this direct line, be brought almost as near to Los Angeles as it now is to San Francisco.

The new line will, in a way, parallel the present line between Los Angeles and Seattle, but the parallel will be on the eastern side of the Sierras, hundreds of miles from the present route. The heavy grades on the present Oregon and California Railroad will be avoided.

The road will make a considerable addition to the trade empire of Los Angeles.

AMERICANA CATCH-PENNY.

The new game of Americana Catch-Penny is proving very attractive in England just now, with British antiquities as the bait. It has reached a most scientific pitch—and the winnings, in skillful hands, amount to fabulous sums.

You start out by discovering one British antiquity, maybe the old mantel-pieces from Tattershall Castle, maybe the carved oak room at Banbury Inn. In the latter case, the most recent of the games played, an antique dealer secures an option on the room for $10,000. Then he writes a letter to the papers saying what a shame it is, that such famous old British antiquities should come under the hammer and probably go out of the country forever. Next some noble Earl or fair Countess—in this case Lord Curzon and Lady Waldegrave—add their voice to the protest and rush off to Banbury Inn to inquire if this dreadful story is really true. Proprietor of Banbury Inn tells hard-luck story and regretfully confesses has given option to dealer. Fair Countess rushes to dealer and demands his price. He, however, regrets he has given an option to "a rich American" (all Americans are rich in England) who is to let him know next day. Fair Countess writes to noble Earl and more correspondence appears in the papers. General outcry. Dealer says rich American anxious to ship to United States, but sympathizes with British sentiment. What offers can he make to rich American. Possibly for a small profit. . . . Yes, rich American was to have given $100,000. Will waive his prior claims for $150,000. Subscriptions roll in from obedient public.

Then Mr. Pierpont Morgan or some other patriotic American hears about the case. England has enough and to spare of these antiquities, and this carved room at Banbury Inn would be a real acquisition for the United States. He offers $200,000. Frantic Countess and noble Earl make urgent appeals for more money—can't raise more than $5000. Noble Earl adds another $5000. Social climber adds $5000—only $15,000 and second rich American bidding $200,000. National hysterics. Bargain closed. Banbury Inn goes to America.

HIGH, LOFTY AIMS.

Senator Cummins of Iowa says of Sam Gompers and his skindicate: "The Federation of Labor has many high, lofty aims; it has many exalted standards of conduct."

If these few feeble remarks had been made six months ago Teddy the Terrible might not have been able to capture the Progressive convention so unanimously. But 1916, like old black Joe, is "coming," and Cummins probably hears the angel voices calling him.

The Senator generalized too loosely in his speech. He should have dwelt upon particulars. He should have told us whether, among its "high, lofty aims," the Federation of Labor aimed to get its president, its vice-president and its secretary into the penitentiary. He should have advised us whether the "exalted standard of conduct" of the federation had emblazoned upon it in letters of living light "Disobey all orders of courts," "Violate any and all injunctions," "Boycott, picket and dynamite employers who disobey the orders of the unions," "Demand an increase of wages and give the increase to Gompers, Tveitmoe and Darrow," "Send Darrow another donation; $200,000 is no money at all for inducing the McNamaras to plead guilty," "Assure our brethren who languish in San Quentin merely for murdering twenty scab workmen that our hearts go out to them."

NUMBER THIRTEEN.

When Premier Borden of Canada visited England last month one of the big social events was a dinner at the most exclusive club in the world, the Carlton. Place-cards were all numbered, and it is noteworthy that No. 13 was omitted—and this when all the guests were the great men of the British empire.

Superstition is not exclusively a creed of ignorance, and almost all the greatest men of our time acknowledge some small superstition. We may jeer at that long list of old remedies with which the sick were cured in the poor, ignorant old days—the longest tooth of a black dog, the nose of a mouse wrapped in pink cloth, the heart of a serpent cut out with the left hand—but, after all, they were no whit sillier than our belief that ill-luck comes with the spilling of salt, the breaking of looking glasses, the coming of rats and crows, or with particular numbers.

The population of San Francisco is now estimated at 435,000 people. It is evident the transient rush of World's Fair visitors is setting in thus early.

THE MARINE GARDENS.

(Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal.)
BY JAMES M. WARNACK.

I have seen you, bright garden of Neptune,
Rare pearl of the great, mystic blue—
Though I had not believed, in my dreaming,
That the sea held an Eden like you.
On the white ship of fancy my spirit
Had wandered through ocean and air,
But never before had encountered
A vision so wondrously fair.

There is naught in the domain of beauty
That your forests and hills do not hold;
Your rocks are all spangled with silver,
All lined are your caverns with gold;
Your trees and your flowers are springing,
Like sentient things, from their caves,
And they rise in unspeakable splendor

His hair all entangled with seaweed,
And crowned with a circle of foam,
With his emerald cloak wrapped around him,
The ocean king enters his home;
In his hand he is bringing the jewels
He has plucked from the fathomless deep,
And he scatters them over his palace
Where the mermaids are lying asleep.

O twin of the kingdom of silence,
What wonders within you abound!
Your hills never echoed a footstep,
And your music is softer than sound—
But the creatures that move in your shadows,
Though they utter no audible word,
Are prophets that speak of the future,
And of songs that are yet to be heard.

You belong to the dawn and the sunset,
For yours is the glory of time—
You cannot be painted on canvas,
You cannot be pictured in rhyme.
A poem made of God, you are written
On the scroll of an Infinite Plan:
An epic too grand for translation
Or interpretation by man.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

Though luck be on the bum, wear a brave front. What though disasters come? Wear a brave front. Say stoutly: "I won't whine, throw spasms or repine; I'll have no grouch in mine!" Wear a brave front. Though life's a toilsome climb, wear a brave front; all griefs will end in time—wear a brave front; though other pilgrims stop, of all their woes to yawp, strive and you'll reach the top—wear a brave front. Tears never helped a gent; wear a brave front; grumbling's not worth a cent; wear a brave front; though you are tired and faint, plug on without complaint, sounding your warcry quaint—wear a brave front. Kicks never smoothed a road; wear a brave front; oaths never eased a load; wear a brave front; no one admires the guy who ceases not to sigh—he with the briny eye—wear a brave front. Bad luck must leave at last; wear a brave front; troubles will soon be past; wear a brave front; fate is a mean old hag, but she will cease to nag men who don't chew the rag; wear a brave front.

The Ohio Societies will hold an informal reception at their headquarters in the Westminster Hotel tomorrow evening in honor of the Ohio delegation of the G.A.R. A Reception Committee will meet the Ohio veterans and their families at San Bernardino tonight and escort them to this city. On Monday evening the Ohio delegation will be given an entertainment and campfire at Blanchard's Hall. Congressman Stephens will deliver the address of welcome and Dr. Charles W. Blodgett, Department Commander of Ohio, will respond. Mrs. Kate Brownleigh Sherwood will speak of the "Women of '61." President C. L. F. Miller of the Ohio Societies will preside.

Santa Barbara will send 150 veterans to the National Encampment here. Executive Director Osborne is in receipt of a telegram from Capt. Waters of that city stating that the delegation will arrive here Monday. They will be accompanied by a band of seventen pieces.

Capt. Murray of the police department, is planning for policing the business streets during the parade Wednesday. Chief Sebastian has detailed 250 officers to the business district. Four officers will be stationed at each corner along the line of march and two officers will patrol each side of the street between the crossings.

TROLLEY CAR HAS PUNCH.

Vanquishes Veteran of Indian War Who Never Was Injured in His Life Before—Record.

Here is the record of the "charmed life" of George H. Benjamin, 68 years old, who lives at No. 1564 East Thirty-fifth street. Benjamin has been shot at several thousand times, was uninjured at the battle of Little Big Horn, where Custer made his last stand, and altogether has been a lucky person.

It remained for a Los Angeles street car to break the long list of victories that Benjamin has achieved. He is at his home suffering from injuries inflicted yesterday by a street car and for the first time in his life he is suffering from bodily injuries.

This is Benjamin's record:

Five thousand bullets also missed him at the same battle.

Twenty-five bucking horses known as "man-killers," failed to do him injury.

Four men tried to kill him and failed.

Seventy-four thousand two hundred and sixty meals have been consumed by Benjamin without giving him indigestion.

Benjamin was hurt when he was standing at East Twenty-fifth street in the path of a Long Beach car. He was tossed out of the way by the fender and sustained numerous bruises. Benjamin says if any other person had been hit by the car the way he was that person would have been killed.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CORCORAN
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $[illegible]
CORCORAN, CAL. July [illegible], 1912.

Alfalfa Farming and Dairying Co.,
Los Angeles, California,

Gentlemen:-

After due consideration and careful investigation of the prospects, possibilities and merits of your proposition, I have decided to accept the presidency of your company.

I assume this responsibility only after due deliberation and well knowing that at times I may incur the displeasure of some, but I have the utmost confidence in the success of the proposition, otherwise I would not become connected with or allow my name to be used in connection with the proposition.

The eyes of the world are upon California and upon the San Joaquin Valley, and the monies of the world are seeking investment in the various farming interests of the State.

The Alfalfa and Dairying industry of the State offers one of the most lucrative and promising fields for investment that has come under my observation and the plan of your company opens up a field to the small investor which has heretofore been available only to the person of means, or to one who used his individual efforts in the enterprise.

The Alfalfa and Dairying interests have in the short space of five years converted our immediate territory from a vast and almost desert range into one of the most promising dairy sections in the state, and many engaged in it have acquired wealth.

The large tract of land which has been secured for your company cannot be surpassed in this or any other state as an alfalfa producer, and being already developed it places the company in a position to become a dividend paying institution at once. In addition to this I confidently believe that the property will double in value within the next three or four years.

I beleive that the proposition will open up a field to the small investor that will be at once both safe and profitable. It is for this reason and for the further reason that I have the utmost faith in the integrity and business ability of those who are associated with the enterprise that I have consented to accept the trust imposed.

Miss Blanche Ford,

Who has been on a northern trip for a month and will return tomorrow.

THE wedding of Miss Carrie May Warden, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Warden of Monrovia to William A. Peterson of Bard, Cal., son of Mrs. Eliza G. Bard, occurred last evening at the home of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Warden, No. 507 Fair Oaks avenue, South Pasadena. The ceremony was conducted by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Los Angeles.

Miss Warden wore an elaborate gown fashioned of white charmeuse satin heavily trimmed with real lace. A veil of tulle fastened with orange blossoms and a shower of bride's roses completed the becoming attire. For traveling Miss Warden chose a jaunty tailored suit of navy blue.

Mrs. C. P. Warden assisted as matron of honor and was robed in white voile over yellow satin and carried an arm bouquet of yellow dahlias. C. P. Warden was the best man. The little flower girl was Violet Cardwell, dressed in a white French gown, strewing roses before the bridal party.

The garland bearers making the aisle were little Louise Fallis and Charles Warden, and Master Robert Allen carried the ring on a white satin cushion. Before the ceremony Mrs. Belle Lamb sang several delightful selections, and Mrs. Arthur Cardwell played the popular wedding marches.

The decorations formed a setting which completed the beautiful scene. The entire home was heavily canopied with asparagus plumosus and the lights were shaded in ferns and yellow tulle streamers and bows. The young people stood for the ceremony in an arbor formed of pepper boughs, interspersed with white roses, and burning candlebra were placed on top of same. A large center piece of yellow dahlias graced the bride's table with streamers and bows of yellow tulle.

At the conclusion of a wedding trip to Coronado and Catalina, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will make their home in Bard, where the groom has charge of the Government Experimental Agricultural Station, as well as several other government experimental stations. Mrs. Peterson was a student of U.S.C. and a member of the Entre Nous Sorority. She graduated from Normal in Los Angeles and has been teaching school for two years. She is popular among the members of the younger set who are loathe to see her leave Southern California.

Will Return Home.

Miss Blanche Ford, who has been the guest of friends and relatives in San Francisco, Berkeley and Oakland for a month, will return to her home, No. 907 West Forty-ninth street, tomorrow.

Card Party.

A group of young men and women who will leave shortly for eastern schools and colleges were the complimented guests at a card party given last evening by Miss Lucy Railback at her home, No. 504 Oxford boulevard. Military five hundred was played, but instead of forts, tables represented the cities in which the colleges are located. A profusion of asters in the dainty pastel shades ornamented the rooms given over to the affair, and following the games prizes suggestive of the approaching journey were awarded to Miss Irma Hageman and Miss Lucille Hills. Tally cards were hand-painted sketches of miniature suit cases, the work of the hostess. Elaborate refreshments were served.

The honored guests were Miss Lucille Evans and Miss Vera Barnard, who, with the hostess, will enter National Park Seminary at Washington, D. C.; Miss Lucille Jones, who will enter Sweetbriar College in Virginia; Miss Ruth Ackerman, who will enter the Nebraska University, and Walter Brewer, who is planning to leave for the Arizona University at Tucson. Other guests were Miss Freda Baskett, Miss Mildred Twosley, Miss Vera Barnard, Miss Irma Hageman, Miss Marguerite Cardwell, Miss Lucille Hills, Miss Gladys Findlay, Miss Gertrude McLin and Messrs. Paul Griffith, Gordon Findlay, Braddis O'Neal, Clarence Olson, Wallace Bodge, Lawrence Baird, Ted Bergman, Tom Spaulding, Barry Cool, Jesse Wood and Glen Thompson.

Automobile Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wells of Pasadena, with Miss Louise Wells, A. J. Deitrich and A. F. Barnard were the members of an automobile touring party through the northern part of the State last week, breaking their journey at Del Monte, where they stayed for several days. Their Cadillac car is one of those miracles of comfort which make traveling so simple nowadays.

Another party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. N. Edwards, Miss M. L. Edwards, K. B. Edwards, B. H. Edwards and C. A. Rassey, the two latter driving their respective cars, a Stevens and a Chalmers, with which there was endless rivalry. They, too, have traversed the northern part of the State and are now spending a few days at Del Monte, on the return journey.

Happy Returns.

Miss Margaret Daniell, the fair daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Swift Daniell of this city, has just returned from her visit to Col. and Mrs. Irons at Ft. Douglas, where she has been feted and flattered and the recipient of complimentary entertainments the whole time she has been away.

Mrs. William Kirby of Twenty-ninth place has also just returned from her European tour, after spending over six months in Ireland, where she visited Mr. Kirby's relatives. Returning by way of England, France, New York and San Francisco, she has made visits at each place, spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Angell in the last-named city.

Society Golf Meeting.

A large number of our well-known society people have gone up to Del Monte for the golf meeting, which commences tomorrow, indeed, 123 members of the Los Angeles Country Club alone, besides many from Pasadena, Riverside and Redlands are to be there.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Cochrane arrived on Sunday, as also did Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Sale, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacKeigan, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kleinberger, Arthur H. Braly, A. B. Van Deerlin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Simons. The last-named is the well-known poet, of whom California has been proud for nearly half a century now.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKee arrived on September 1, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Douglas, Mrs. Clara W. Gries, Mrs. A. S. McKevitt, were among the large party arriving last Friday. H. G. Pattee of Riverside, George O. Brewster, S. H. Kaminski and C. B. Rome, all of Riverside, are also among the arrivals, while the golfers' train, which left here on Wednesday evening, carried over 100 Los Angeles and Riverside people to the scene of action.

Many others, as Mr. and Mrs. H. Jevne, L. T. Bradford, Conde Jones, etc., are now en route by automobile and should arrive tonight. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Steham went up by train on Saturday.

A like number of golfers and society folk are going down from San Francisco, Miss Edith Cheeseborough, Miss Alice Warner, and a number of visitors left over from the Crocker-Whitman wedding, notably the Alexanders, will be there. Indeed, the five northern country clubs claim to be sending nearly 100 members each.

From the Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Danz, No. 1444 Ridgeway, have returned from their summer outing at Balboa Beach, where they spent three months at the cottage "Peach-a-ba-Roney" by the sea.

Miss Estelle Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Summers, No. 1738 Seventh avenue, was married at her home this morning to Mora E. Smith, Rev. Will A. Knighten performing the ceremony at 10 o'clock.

The bride wore a dainty creation of white silk trimmed with Chantilly lace, and her only ornament was a rare string of pearls collected in the Orient by the groom. Two young sisters of the bride, gowned in white lingerie frocks, the Misses Mamie and Lucille Summers, held ribbons to form an isle to the altar, and a cousin, little Mary Carpenter, was the flower girl.

An especially attractive arrangement of white carnations, white roses and ferns were used to ornament the home. Mrs. H. W. Brewer played the wedding marches, and Miss Kathleen Lockhart, a cousin of the groom, who has just returned from Europe, sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because."

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left today for San Francisco and other northern points, expecting to be absent one month. After November 1 they will be at home to their friends in Imperial, where the groom is owner of a large ranch. Mrs. Summers, who has been a teacher in the public schools of Imperial for some time, is popular with many friends there, as well as here, and many complimentary affairs were given in her honor.

Mexico Guests.

Senor A. L. Torres and family from Guaymas, Mex., are in this city for several weeks, and are stopping at Hotel Alvarado. Senor Torres is the son of Gen. Torres.

Five Hundred Party.

Mrs. William Copeland of San Francisco was the honoree at a card party given by Mrs. Fred Pipher recently at her home, No. 1734 Berendo street. Pink carnations and ferns were used exclusively in decorating the rooms, where the card tables were arranged and the dainty refreshments served. Following the games Mrs. Otis Green contributed several songs.

The guests present were: Mrs. C. J. Boutellier, Mrs. Robert P. D. Smith, Mrs. William Wurzburger, Mrs. A. N. Lord, Mrs. E. P. Huntzinger, Mrs. S. Otis Green, Mrs. M. MacIntyre, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. H. O. Bower and Mrs. Louis Stermhagen. Mrs. Copeland will leave for her northern home Sunday, and while in Southern California has been the guest of Mrs. C. J. Boutellier of Long Beach.

Visitor From Australia.

Mrs. H. W. Cooper of Sydney, Australia, is passing the summer in this vicinity, and is at present the house guest of Mrs. C. C. Cooper at her home, No. 1613 Monterey road, South Pasadena. Mrs. Cooper will leave for Australia the latter part of November.

Marriage Announced.

The marriage of Miss Helen Willard, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Willard, to Arthur A. Smith was solemnized Saturday afternoon, August 31, at 3 o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leigh H. Robins, No. 1018 South Union avenue, Rev. Darneille of Hueneme officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Stella Baker of Santa Paula and the groom was served by Robert Magill of Los Angeles.

The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white asters, asparagus fern and fern baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a short wedding trip to Catalina, and will then make their home at No. 682 Twelfth street, San Pedro, where Mr. Smith holds a responsible position with Wells-Fargo & Co.

DECIDE ON DUTIES.

Layman's Committee on Infantile Paralysis Plans to Visit Vernon District Tomorrow.

The first regular meeting of the Laymen's Committee appointed by the City Council's Special Committee on Infantile Paralysis, met in the City Council chamber last night. This committee is composed of F. V. Owen, Mrs. George Macauley, Mrs. O. P. Clark, Mrs. J. von Wagner and Mrs. A. N. Davidson.

A general discussion of the powers of the committee took place and it was decided that as the Physicians' Committee had gone exhaustively into the investigation of whether the quarantine of actual cases and suspected cases was justified and whether an epidemic of infantile paralysis has actually existed, the scope of the Laymen's Committee should be to investigate causes giving rise to the disease and the general sanitary conditions surrounding these cases.

A visit to the Vernon district, where the first cases originated, and where the largest number were reported, is to be made tomorrow afternoon. Later other districts will be visited.

The committee also plans to make an investigation as to the needs of the city for more extensive work on sanitary lines, and it was suggested last night that investigation should be conducted as to the advantage of the city employing a sanitary engineer and securing a sanitation survey of the entire city.

Members of the committee expressed themselves as being desirous of having the numbers of the committeeman increased to nine or eleven so that the work could be better divided, and the City Council committee will be asked to name new members.

The committee may hold some public hearings, but this will be decided after the visits made on Saturday.

THROUGH OPEN DOOR.

The Sheriff began a search yesterday for thieves who took a Peerless automobile late Wednesday night from the garage of John Parkinson, No. 600 St. Paul avenue, senior member of the architectural firm of Parkinson and Bergstrom. The car is California 57667. Parkinson stated in his complaint that the garage had been left open and that no violence had been done to get into it.

LANDED BY LIPPS.

A. G. Richings, wanted in Riverside on a charge of forgery, was arrested here yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Lipps. He was lodged in the County Jail pending the arrival of a Deputy Sheriff from Riverside.

TO CELEBRATE OPENING.

South Pasadena Improvement League Sets Last Week in September as Date for the Affair.

SOUTH PASADENA, Sept. 5.—It was decided at a meeting of the Lincoln Park Improvement League last evening, in the Lincoln Park Schoolhouse, to place the date for the celebration to be given by the league, in honor of the opening of the new Arroyo Seco bridge, near the Cawston Ostrich Farm, the last week in September, as it is thought the paving on either side of the bridge will be entirely completed at that time.

It was made evident at last night's meeting that the celebration is assuming large proportions and promises a splendid programme from many of the representative men and women of Los Angeles and South Pasadena, from the fact that acceptances have been received from the following civic organizations: Los Angeles City Council, County Board of Supervisors, presenting as the speaker of the day, R. W. Pridham, who has worked so faithfully for the bridge; Garvanza Improvement Association, presenting Ernest Braunton as speaker; the Arroyo Seco Chamber of Commerce will be represented on the programme by the president, H. M. Chapman; Los Angeles Park Commission present as their speaker, J. B. Lippincott; South Pasadena Chamber of Commerce; Oneonta Civic League, and the Women's Improvement Association, the latter two also of this city, none of the three having decided on their speakers.

The celebration will be held in Mineral Park, and it is the intention of the several committees in charge to make the grand stand and grounds as attractive as possible.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The members of the Student League of the High School in this city have joined with the student leagues of Los Angeles Polytechnic, Manual Arts Hig, Hollywood High, El Monte High and Glendale High in a camping trip to Catalina at White's Landing under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. and will remain until next Sunday. The time will be passed in boating, swimming, long hikes, tennis, baseball, track meets and camp fire chats, in fact, all things that go to make up an ideal summer outing.

Dr. Marc Ray Hughes of St. Louis, Mo., a former school mate friend of John D. Reavis, will be his house guest for a month. Dr. Hughes is one of the most eminent neurologists in the world, and is a member of the London Society for Physical Research.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Young are planning to move to Altadena, where Mr. Young has a large contract for the cement work that is being done on the new Nazarene College in that city, as the work requires his constant supervision.

As a surprise to those who enjoyed the recent Chamber of Commerce banquet, comes the announcement from that body, that on September 23 another unique affair will be given of a totally different nature, and the same policy of secrecy will be carried out. The sale of tickets will be limited to 150, as that is all Ong's Hall can accommodate. No definite arrangements for committees has yet been made, but it is understood that the same young girls, with an additional five, who have returned from the mountains and seashore, will make up the hospitality committee.

AZUSA.

AZUSA, Sept. 5.—W. C. Hendrick, manager of the Azusa-Covina-Glendora Fruit Exchange, makes the encouraging statement that taking the valley as a whole there never was a better prospect for a crop both as to quantity and quality. Both the trees and the fruit are in excellent condition. San Gabriel Valley ranchers believe in the traditional ounce of prevention and are constantly having their groves inspected by experts. At present the ranches of the Azusa Foothill Citrus Association are being gone over by Harry Davis of Baltimore, Md., and a graduate of the agricultural department of Cornell University. Mr. Davis has already spent six weeks at his task, and will require some months yet in which to give each individual tree his most careful attention.

Azusa's tax values have passed the million dollar mark, her assessable property now being valued at $1,008,900, as against $887,400 one year ago. Of this $702,980 is in real estate, $192,540 in improvements, 113,380 in personal property. The board of equalization has just fixed the rate at $1.50 per $100.

Pleads Guilty; Denies It.

NOTORIOUS "DOCTOR" TO GO FREE ON PROBATION.

APPARENTLY deeply moved by the plea for probation made by "Dr." J. A. Mead, who pleaded guilty some weeks ago to performing the illegal operation which caused the death of little Miss Margaret Cross, Judge Hutton yesteday continued the matter of sentence until the 17th inst. The court asked that the State and defense be ready with some additional medical authority that Dr. Bahrenberg, a doctor in the same building with Mead, be subpoenaed.

Mead, a voluble witness in his own behalf, pleaded with Judge Hutton to give him probation. The "doctor" who says he now is a real estate agent, took numerous tablets during the hearing, as he explained to "keep his heart action up." He swore he would never have pleaded guilty to the charge except that he feared a court trial would have brought about his death. A little later he declared he would rather be hung than undergo the blot upon his name. Previously he has said that he pleaded guilty to save the county the expense of a trial.

Deputy District Attorney Veitch, who conducted the preliminary examination, seemed surprised at the course yesterday's proceedings took. He had obtained a confession from the defendant, and a plea of guilty to the charge of performing an illegal operation was made in open court.

But, disregarding all this, Mead launched into an attempted denial that he had performed the operation in question and declared that if any were performed it was done by another. The defendant declared that he was suffering from blood poisoning at the time and with a crippled hand could not have done any surgical work even if he had wanted to.

"I realise the right of a physician to perform such an operation when the life of the patient is at stake," said the court, "and I would like some reputable doctor here in order to put a hypothetical question to him whether under the circumstances in the present case, a surgeon would have been justified in taking extreme measures."

Capt. G. G. Merrick, a Civil War veteran; A. J. Wilson, commander of Bartlett-Logan Post, G.A.R., and John Davis, for twenty-three years adjutant of the same post, testified that as far as they knew the reputation of the defendant was good.

Documentary evidence was also introduced to show Mead served in the Civil War. It was, however, suggested by the prosecution that no matter how good a soldier Mead may have been, that would not justify him in any way for committing a crime and that he had already admitted this fact.

If evidence is needed the District Attorney will produce it at the next hearing to show the circumstances surrounding the case.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Careful washing of the face at night before retiring is an essential of a good complexion, and there are but few [illegible] which do not need soap and water at least warm.

[illegible] the removal of the [illegible], one of the big department [illegible] which has a theater in connection, has invited children to visit the [illegible] place free, during the [illegible] that the embargo should [illegible] taken off a little while be[illegible] time, so that the little ones [illegible] have at least a partial vacation, [illegible] may do whatever they wish [illegible] wherever they will?

[illegible] not suppose they have really [illegible] from restraint, but one thinks [illegible] as a time of genuine [illegible], and when told that one must [illegible] must not do that, one's va[illegible] changed into rather a com[illegible] affair.

[illegible] should always mean free[illegible] in clothes and I cannot but [illegible] when I see families at the [illegible] note that the children are [illegible] up," that it is really too [illegible] I hope that those children who [illegible] the theater or of any kind [illegible] amusement will have plenty [illegible] to improve the remain[illegible] of their vacation; and it is cer[illegible] upon the part of the [illegible] to give to them welcome.

Odd Panniering.

An odd and novel "panniering" is that which falls close to the foot of the skirt instead of below the hips. I like the new manner of wearing the fullness better than that which first appeared, and I believe it will be more becoming to the average form.

Fashion's Limning.

Accordion pleatings in mousseline and supple tissues are much used as trimmings.

Some of the slashed skirts are prettily filled in with bright contrasting color.

Pleated skirts always have the pleats taped underneath to keep the straight line.

Some of the most beautiful wraps for winter are in lovely foreign shades or red.

There is a new "hair lace" which is first cousin to the favorite shadow lace of this season.

For rainy or windy weather nothing is better than a stitched cloth, linen or pique hat.

FATHER AND SON REST TOGETHER.

WILLIAM J. MURPHY REACHES HIS JOURNEY'S END.

Worthy Successor of Great Temperance Exponent Succumbs After Long Struggle With Wasting Illness—Story of a Life Well Lived and a Battle Bravely Fought.

In the death of William J. Murphy, honored son of the distinguished father, which occurred at the family home, No. 1332 West Fortieth place at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the cause of temperance loses one of its most able exponents. After the death of Francis Murphy the work to which he had dedicated his life fell largely upon the shoulders of the cold water apostle's first lieutenant and son.

William J. Murphy,

Son and successor of Francis Murphy, temperance evangelist, who died at his home in this city early yesterday morning.

W. J. Murphy was born in New York State fifty-four years ago, and after graduating from the Chester Military School in Chester, Pa., soon found himself actively in the harness with his father with whom he toured the country, and for fourteen years aided and assisted him in his work.

The younger Murphy, inheriting many of his father's mannerisms, of speech and action, soon acquired a large following on his own account, and it is related that he has personally added more than 2,000,000 signatures to the famous Murphy pledge.

It was the custom, after the father and son developed their "team work," for the latter to commence a series of meetings in a community and, after they were well started, to turn them over to Francis Murphy, who came from another series for the purpose. W. J. Murphy would then proceed to new fields, and thus a chain of temperance revivals was kept going.

The younger Murphy was an organizer of exceptional ability. After his father's death he settled in Los Angeles with his family to carry on the work of the Francis Murphy Association, a work which now devolves in turn upon his son, Thomas, vice-president of the association.

Battling for years against increasing ill health William J. Murphy had come to be known throughout this city and the country as a man of strong character, settled convictions, and a fixed purpose to carry on the great work to which his father devoted a lifetime of endeavor. His death removes a striking figure from the religious world.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

JUDICIAL VOTE IN THE BALANCE.

FREDERICKSON AND MYERS ARE CLOSE CONTENDERS.

Seventy-five Ballots Separate Candidates With Few Country Precincts to Be Heard From—Brolaski May Contest Because Returns Were Burned in Ocean Park Fire.

The contest between Police Judge Frederickson and Louis Myers for the tenth place on the judicial ballot to be voted on in November is so close that it will probably take the official count to decide it. In the light of late figures, which reached the County Clerk last night, there seems to be only about seventy-five votes between them.

The Board of Supervisors began the official canvass yesterday afternoon, when there were still many county precincts missing. It is expected that these will drift in as the official canvass proceeds. Totals in the several districts will not be ready for several days.

Harry Brolaski, straight Republican candidate for the Assembly from the Sixty-second district, still has hopes of beating F. H. Bloodgood, but the returns show that he is more than one hundred votes behind. Several precincts in the district have not been heard from. The ballots in one of the Venice precincts were destroyed in the fire. Brolaski may contest the election if the official count shows him to be a loser by a few votes.

In the Seventy-first Assembly District, E. A. Emmons, the straight Republican candidate, is nominated by a big majority. When Edward W. Close, the Progressive candidate in this district, withdrew after learning that the grand jury was investigating his police record, the Lissnerites indorsed Emmons and now claim that Emmons will vote for Roosevelt

ROOSEVELT ELECTORS.

The returns show that R. H. Jackson of Long Beach, straight Republican candidate for the Assembly from the Seventieth District, is defeated by John H. Strine, the Lissner candidate, by thirty-three votes. The result may be changed by the official count and the nomination go to Jackson.

The result of the Democratic vote shows that a full Democratic county and State ticket will be put in the field in the November election. In many of the districts the names of the Democratic candidates had to be written in, but in each instance sufficient votes were obtained to nominate.

FARE OF THE FAIR.

Southern Dinner and Fashion Show Treats of the Ladies, by the Ladies and for the Ladies.

It was agreed yesterday by the women Democrats of the County Branch League to give their next southern dinner at Hamburger's cafe in conjunction with the opening of the Fashion Show on the 19th inst.

The fair caterers can accommodate 500 guests and have already disposed of more than 400 tickets. The women will cook the meal and serve it as they did before and will have the assistance of Manager Livingstone of Hamburger's. In addition to the tables already announced, they are planning a separate table for the judges of the county, the candidates for the Superior Court, regardless of party, and their wives. They will probably have another table for the Daughters of the Confederacy. Two short after-dinner speeches will be made and one set address on the topic of the hour.

Miss Mary E. Foy, as president, and Mrs. Charles P. Huey, as secretary of the California Women's Democratic League, issued an open letter yesterday to all of the women in California, announcing the annual convention of the league, which will be held at San Luis Obispo October 8 and 9. This being the first political convention of women ever convened in California or in any other State, they feel that it is of national importance and that it will rank among the most significant assemblages ever organized, officered and conducted by women. They have invited women of all political affiliations and beliefs to attend and they feel that those who are interested enough to come should be made welcome, not only to the public addresses, but to the more formal deliberations of the convention. They are planning to secure speakers of national reputation to entertain and instruct the convention.

Here is a message of hope and good cheer from Mrs. C. B. Martin, Boone Mill, Va., who is the mother of eighteen children. Mrs. Martin was cured of stomach trouble and constipation by Chamberlain's Tablets after five years of suffering, and now recommends these tablets to the public. —[Adv.

GREAT BRIDGE IS COMPLETED.

SAN PEDRO-WILMINGTON LINK IS UNDER TEST.

One of Greatest Drawbridges of Type Ever Built—Cost Three Hundred Thousand Dollars—Weighs Twenty-seven Hundred Tons, Lifts in Few Seconds.

Cut another notch in the marvel-stick of the Great Southwest. The Southern Pacific has completed its great drawbridge between San Pedro and Wilmington at a cost of $300,000, and it is under test. The bridge swung open for the first time on the 1st inst.

It is one of the greatest of its type ever built and has a span of 187 feet and measures eighty feet from the trains to the top of the structure.

Weighing 2700 tons, it is so nicely balanced that it can be opened in fifty seconds. It carries a double track and the powerful motors are assisted in the great lifting feat by a counterbalance of 1800 tons. Fifty thousand rivets help to hold it together. The bridge affords a clearance of 185 feet for the passage of vessels, and great ships will be able to enter the inner harbor when dredging operations shall have been completed.

The bridge will be officially known as the San Pedro-Wilmington Drawbridge and will replace the present wooden trestles of the Southern Pacific and the Pacific Electric.

G. W. Rear, general bridge inspector of the Southern Pacific, built the bridge, while the local force was in charge of J. Gratto, superintendent of bridges, who for thirty-nine years has been in the Southern Pacific employ in similar work.

The completion of the bridge opens a large area of the harbor which has been previously cut off from development.

BRIGHT EYES CAUSE WAR.

Jealousy for Smiles of Italian Belle Leads to Harmless Shooting and Bloodless Cutting.

The bright eyes of Mary Aloi, an Italian belle, who for beauty might well be a Neapolitan flower-girl, brought Mike Tangora before Justice Summerfield yesterday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Tony Mancini, his fortunate rival, who alleges Tangora nearly killed him with a knife.

Tangora was held for trial in the Superior Court and went back to the County Jail in default of bail.

Mancini's injuries, apparently, consisted mainly in the laceration inflicted on his feelings and the shearing away of his coat tails by Tangora's knife, according to the testimony. Mancini had been calling at the home of Miss Aloi with a friend, Roger Marino, and the two left at about 1 a.m. Tangora lay in wait, they allege, with Mike Catalina, who had a revolver that was discharged but did no harm.

Catalina has been arraigned on a charge of assault and will be examined today.

AN EXPERT JOINER.

Pomona Miss Comes Here to Have Justice Tie Knot Because He Performed Ceremony for Sister.

Because her sister had been married seven months a go by Justice Summerfield, Gladys C. Waid of Pomona, who is 17, went to the Courthouse yesterday to have her own wedding ceremony performed by the same knotter of knots. The bridegroom is Norman Thomas Brewster, 21, scion of a prominent family in Claremont.

Because she is under age, Miss Waid could not procure a license until her father, Malvern Q. Waid, had signed an affidavit. The young pair left the Courthouse furtively, trying to dodge kodaks and interviewers, who seemed to grate on Waid's nerves particularly.

FREE COUNTY LIBRARIES.

Board of Supervisors Passes Ordinance Creating System to Provide Reading For Suburbanites.

The Board of Supervisors passed an ordinance yesterday creating a free county library system. This will be put in existence under a State law, and an appropriation of one mill on each $100 assessed valuation outside incorporated cities throughout the county will be levied for its support.

The project has been agitated for the past two years, largely by improvement associations and women's clubs in the cities as well as the outlying territory of the county. A chain of libraries will be established in such locations as will best serve county residents.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

TWO CARBUNCLES ON BACK OF NECK

Suffered Intense Agony. Could Not Rest or Sleep. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Carbuncles Gone. Completely Cured.

Veteran's Home, Napa Co., Cal.—"I was afflicted with two carbuncles on the back of my neck. The doctor said they were the largest carbuncles he ever saw. I suffered the most intense agony, so much that I could not rest or sleep for about a month. One was lanced four times. When the first began to get better another broke out and was equally as painful as the first one. I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment being good for such things, so I procured a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I washed both the carbuncles with Cuticura Soap frequently whenever any pus began to gather, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. I felt relief after the first use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in a week's time both carbuncles were gone and I was completely cured. I have not been troubled since.

"I also had eczema of the scalp. My scalp itched fearfully and pimples began to break out which emitted pus, and my head became sore and scaly. I had dandruff also. I used Cuticura Soap for a shampoo with hot water, and used the Cuticura Ointment on my scalp, and it afforded instant relief, followed by absolute cure." (Signed) George H. Wetsell, Dec. 11, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

STOCK LETTER.

[Furnished by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchanges, Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The market displayed considerable strength and activity compared with the tone of recent sessions. The coppers were conspicuous for their strength, as were Missouri Pacific, Mexican Petroleum, and a few others. There are not as yet any strong indications of the market having forced itself out of the rut, and the advances recorded today appeared for the most part the result of short covering, a moderate amount of scattered outside buying, and pool operations. It is believed that all low-priced issues, such as coppers, equipment issues, and steel stocks, will present the greatest attraction on the buying side during weak periods.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The first pomegranates of the season, twenty-four boxes in all, arrived from one of the local districts yesterday, and are selling at $1.25 a box. Large shipments of this fruit are expected in a short time. Several cars of potatoes from the north, three cars of bananas and a car of onions were also received. The price remained steady on these products. The crop of silverskin onions is short, and they are selling at $1.25 a hundred pounds. Five cars of pears are expected from Hemet today. The product of that section is very high class. The shipment will be placed in cold storage. Local pears are still arriving, although the crop is now pretty well harvested. Only a few apricots are left.

Fifty sacks of peas were received by one firm, and are selling at 5 cents a pound. Other summer vegetables, with the exception of tomatoes, are still quite plentiful.

There was a rise of 2 cents in the price of eastern and Kansas-Nebraska eggs. The former are selling at 32 cents, and the latter at 28, although yesterday some eastern eggs were offered in the street at 28. Some Petaluma-Santa Rosa storage eggs were also offered at 28, and some eastern storage at 26½. The rise in the price of eastern eggs was caused by the very light receipts of the past week or so. Receipts yesterday were 207 cases.

There were some changes in the poultry market. Prices on broilers, young cocks, young, old and cold storage turkeys, advanced slightly. Other staple products were steady. The arrivals of butter and cheese were 55,606, and 12,415 pounds, respectively. Fifteen boxes of apples, 34 sacks of beans and 652 sacks of potatoes were also reported in.

The price on engine distillate oil in iron barrels, drums and tank wagons advanced half a cent yesterday, and the price of distillate in cases 1 cent.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE.

Trading Unusually Active, But Practically Limited to Oil Stocks. One Industrial on List.

Although confined almost exclusively to oil stocks the volume of business was larger yesterday than it has been for some time. There were three strong features on the boards—Union, Amalgamated and National Pacific oil stocks. Of the first 250 shares changed hands at $98.25, and of the second 100 shares at $83. There was a slight decline in the bid and asked prices of National Pacific stock, and the average rate at which sales were made was lower than the day before. No less than 35,000 shares of this stock changed hands; 2000 sold at 4⅝, 2000 at 4½, 5000 at 4⅜, 10,000 at 4¼ and 16,000 at 4⅛. Three thousand shares of California Midway oil stock changed hands at 9½; United Oil, 2000 at 25, Olinda Land, 500 at 39½ and Associated Oil, ten at $43.62½. The only industrial stock furnishing any business was United States Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph, ten shares selling at $11. There was no trading in bonds or mining stocks.

BUMPER WHEAT CROP ASSURED.

SEVENTEEN MILLION BUSHELS OVER LAST YEAR'S YIELD.

Report Depresses Price, December Wheat Closing Heavy—Corn Shows Net Decline—Oats Off—Provisions Lower.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Wheat today closed heavy after touching the lowest price of the season, 91 a bushel. An estimate that this year's crop in the United States would be 17,000,000 bushels large than the yield twelve months back was mainly responsible. Final sales ranged from 1 to 1⅜ under last night. December wheat swung between 91 and 92⅝ with last sales 1¼ down at 91¼. Corn closed at a net decline of 1¼@1⅛. At the close oats were off ¼ to ⅝ to ½. Provisions closed 5 to 32½ lower.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour, steady. Rye No. 2, 66@68. Barley, feed or mixing, 45@63; fair to choice malting, 61@68. Timothy seed, 3.50@4.50. Clover seed, 13.00@17.00. Mess pork, 17.25@17.37½. Lard, (in tierces) 11.10. Short ribs, (loose) 10.87½.

Grain Statistics.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Total clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 104,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,958,000 bushels, compared with 1,299,000 bushels the corresponding day a year ago. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 280 cars; corn, 334 cars; oats, 424 cars; hogs, 13,000 head.

New York Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—During the early trading this morning the market was sold down on prospects of showers by leading spot interests and local professionals. The feature of the trading on this decline was the frequency of offerings in blocks of 25,000 bales by some of the local bears, but there seemed to be considerable buying orders in the market on the scale down for European account. This, in connection with scattered buying on reports of continued deterioration served to hold the market steady around 11.15 for October, and 11.30 for December, and when some of the early aggressive sellers tried to cover the market rallied sharply about 18 to 20 points during the last hour. It is thought by some that there is no comparison of conditions this year and last year. Last year the crop entered the fruiting stage about August 1, with a condition of 89, while this year the crop did not reach this stage until about August 25, when the condition was 75. The acreage this year is 7 per cent. less than last year, indicating a crop of about 21 per cent. less, or in round figures about 12,600,000 bales. If there is any virtue in this argument, the present price is very cheap. At this time last year the world knew that a large crop was assured; business was not being conducted with any degree of confidence. The feed crops in this country were practically a failure. This year the size of the crop is much in doubt, with the percentage largely in favor of a small crop. The wheels of industry are commencing to hum, the grain crop is of a record proportion, the buying of merchandise both here and abroad is being conducted with confidence, and manufacturers are well sold ahead for the first time in four years. Exports so far today were 7205 bales, making 61,690 so far this season, against 95,769 last year.

COPPER INDUSTRY.

Hoovey, Kenny & Co. say: "It is currently reported that Wolverine Mine's life time is from eight to fifteen years more, and as a liquidating proposition the stock is not worth over 75. The superintendent says there is no cause at the property for this selling, that output for August was an increase over former months. The stock sold at 91½ yesterday, is off 7 points. A $2 assessment has been called on Keweenaw to cover prospect in Nevada property to be acquired by consolidation."

A comparison of the three bottom levels of the Ojibway, which are developed sufficiently to give a reasonable idea of their contents, with those above, shows that the hope of the mine is with depth. Those levels all disclose good commercial rock. The fifteenth has been drifted upon for the distance of about 300 feet, the sixteenth 100 feet, and the seventeenth 110 feet. They are much richer than those opened previously and have more heavy copper.

Five drills are now being employed. Two are sinking at No. 1 shaft, which is nearly down to the eighteenth level. One is drifting at the eighteenth and one at the nineteenth. The fifth is engaged in cross-cutting from the shaft of No. 2 on the nineteenth level at an agle of sixty degress south to the lode. It will cut the footwall branch not far from where it was penetrated by the diamond drill. The core showed a very good mineralization. The cross-cut now has the length of about 100 feet and is expected to reach the lode almost any time.

The finding of copper by this diamond drill driven out underground from the shaft to the south affords some ground for the belief that the mineralization disclosed at No. 1 in the three lowest levels extends in this direction. If so it would have quite an extent on the strike of the lodes, as the distance between the two shafts is 1116 feet. If the good rock persists with depth the possibilities are very great, as both shafts can be sunk for about 6000 feet further on the property. The equipment for exploratory purposes can be operated at least to a depth of 3600 feet, which will undoubtedly be ample. The shaft is of a permanent character and has a concrete collar and concrete roadbeds.

The monthly expenses are about $6000. There is in the treasury an amount sufficient for two or three months. The number of shares issued is 84,000, and $14 per share has been paid in.

We have heard criticism of the Greene-Cananea Company treating Miami concentrates at a profit of $25,000 per month when it could be using this capacity for its own ores at a profit of 8 cents per pound of copper.

The facts are that Miami concentrates are fed direct to the converters and do not go through the smelter, hence it is not taking smelter capacity, thought it does converter capacity, and it is largely by reason of this that the company has been enlarging its converter capacity so it will be able to produce 6,000,000 pounds of its own copper per month this fall.

In fact, last week two of its new converter stamps have gone into commission, so that there should be immediate increase in Greene-Cananea production, and there is no doubt of Greene-Cananea going on a 25 cents per share quarterly dividend basis this year, for we have official information that the directors have already decided upon this matter and that a quarterly payment of 25 cents will be made the latter part of this year, making a total of 75 cents per share to be disbursed to stockholders in 1912, two 25-cent semi-annual disbursements having already been made.

Present quotations for Utah Copper recall a high price for the stock of 67¼ in 1909, when the company was just beginning to be recognised as a big mine, and when it was producing about 4,000,000 pounds of copper per month and paying $2 per share in dividends. At that time it was also facing heavy construction charges to be paid for out of earnings.

Today the company is producing at the rate of 125,000,000 pounds of copper pear year, and earning at the rate of $9 to $10 per share, while it is paying dividends of $3 per share per year. It has passed the period of heavy construction charges and earnings from now on will be available for strengthening the already large cash surplus and for increased dividends; in fact, there are prospects of the stock going on a $4 dividend basis in the comparatively near future.

Certainly the potentialities that made Utah Copper sell at 67 in 1910 have now become realities and realities should be worth more than probabilities. The question resolves itself into what should a demonstrated manufacturing property, with an assured life of forty years, sell at as a $4 dividend payer, earning its dividend two and a half times over, which gives prospects of still greater dividend payments in the future?

The directors of the Calumet and Hecla have declared a quarterly dividend of $12 per share, payable September 20 to stock of record August 22. Three months ago $10 was declared, a year ago $6.

With the payment of the $12 dividend just declared by the Calumet and Hecla Mining Company stockholders will have received $118,850,000 in dividends since the formation of the company.

The company's dividend record since 1896 has been as follows (per share:)

1912	*$30	1903	$35
1911	24	1902	25
1910	29	1901	45
1909	27	1900	70
1908	20	1899	100
1907	65	1898	50
1906	70	1897	40
1905	50	1896	25
1904	40

*Including present declaration.

Calumet and Hecla, exclusive of any interest in its subsidiaries, is today producing copper at the rate of 70,000,000 pounds per annum at a cost of 8¾ cents per pound, and is earning therefore at the rate of $6,000,000 or $60 per share after allowing for interest on its $6,819,000 outstanding notes.

Including an equity of $1,700,000 in the profits of the subsidiary companies it is entirely conservative to figure that Calumet must be earning at the rate of $75 per share.

On the basis of 10 per cent. earnings on selling price Calumet is entitled therefore to advance materially from its present level before it can be considered as selling higher than the general level of the dividend-paying copper shares.

On September 1 the company will retire $1,000,000 5 per cent. notes, dated March 1, 1909, the directors having availed themselves of the clause in the indenture which permits the notes to be called at par on any interest date. With the cancellation of this indebtedness there will remain only $5,819,000 notes, which were issued in part payment for the so-called Bigelow stocks. With the retirement of this $1,000,000 of notes the company will have paid off a total of $2,700,000 out of the $8,519,000 originally issued, saving $135,000 per annum in interest charges.

Although the management of the subsidiary properties have issued statements showing estimated production, costs and profits for the first six months of this year, Calumet and Hecla proper will not, this year at least, issue a similar report covering its own operations.

Banks Lose Last Week's Surplus to Sub-Treasury—Further Outflow of Funds to the Interior Suggested by Day's Trading—Bonds Are Irregular.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—On a comparatively small volume of business stocks today manifested a decidedly stronger tone than they have recently shown. Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and the anthracite shares were most prominent features of the railway division, in which New York, New Haven and Hartford alone developed some heaviness. Among the industrials United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and the equipment issues rose from one to over two points, while gains in the tobacco group, Mexican Petroleum and Texas Company as well as a half score miscellaneous stocks ranged from two to eight points. Money was less a factor, the rate for call loans once approaching yesterday's high rate of four per cent., most borrowings being made a shade under that figure. Since last Friday local banks have lost over $4,000,000 to the sub-treasury, that sum just about representing last week's actual surplus reserves of the clearing-house institutions. Exchange on Chicago today advanced twenty-five cents per $1000, suggesting a further out-flow of money to the interior. Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,680,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Activity in the mining list on the curb today was limited to three or four issues, among which figured La Rose and Consolidated Arizona. The undertone was steady. United Copper was in better demand than for some time, advancing half a point on what was supposed to be foreign buying. British American Tobacco and United Cigar Stores made new high records on heavy buying. Outside of the continued liquidation by small holders of Wolverine, Boston stocks ruled generally good, and generally stronger than for the past few days. Wolverine sold down from 98⅜ to 91¼, then rallied to 97. Mayflower and Old Colony were strong. Lake made a gain of 1¼. Butte and Superior, Chino and Ray held around last night's close. Butte and Superior continues strong around 45⅝. Following are the closing bid and asked prices:

COUNTY SCORES AGAINST VENICE.

BEACH POLICE OFFICER IS PUT UNDER ARREST.

Grand Jury's Indictment Furnishes Legal Cause for Action—Bitter Feud Among Former Political Rivals—Accused Is Released Upon Giving Bond.

Another gun was fired in the warfare between the detective force of the District Attorney's office and the Venice police yesterday when Officer Pete Pirotte was arrested and taken to the County Jail by Deputy Sheriff Woods.

The charge against Pirotte is false imprisonment and was brought through an indictment by the county grand jury. It is alleged that the Venice officer erred in arresting William Bright, George Nolan, R. E. Rankin and Bert Ramsey of the county detective force when they went to the beach last week to investigate illegal fishing at the Hyperion sewer outfall.

Pirotte was taken before Judge McCormick yesterday afternoon and Saturday was fixed as his time for pleading. He was released on bond of $1500. Later in the day he was in conference with members of the law firm of Rogers & Dehm. Dehm said last night that he had not decided whether to undertake Pirotte's defense.

It was stated yesterday at the District Attorney's office that no indictments had been returned by the grand jury against Chief Lingo, Sergt. Cavanaugh and Officer Wallace Copping of the Venice force for participation in the detention of the Los Angeles detectives.

"I shall fight the case," said Pirotte yesterday. "The detectives did not disclose their identity to us until we had released them after finding only old clothes in the suitcase that had aroused our suspicions. Deputy District Attorney Hill telephoned us an hour after they had gone and asked us why we had detained county officers. That was the first certain knowledge we had that they were connected with his office. They were merely detained, anyway; they were not arrested."

The detectives assert that Pirotte and the others at Venice could not have failed to know them.

"We saw the crowd the day before the arrest took place," said Bright. "We told them then who we were. Pirotte saw us during his connection with the McNamara trial, anyway, and Ramsay used to be chief down there. It's absurd to say they didn't know us."

Pirotte is bitter against Ramsey and the detective returns the compliment with interest. Both men believe that past politics at the beach town is figuring in the fracas.

Murderer Sentenced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Charles H. Bonner, the youth who murdered Bernice Godair on June 3, was sentenced today to life imprisonment in San Quentin Penitentiary. A stay of execution for ten days was granted while Bonner's counsel is perfecting an appeal.

In the School World.

PEDAGOGUES ARE GIVEN PLACES.

SEVERAL RESIGNATIONS AND LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Proposition to Purchase Bethlehem Baths Is Referred to Building Committee—Physicians and Probationary Teachers Receive Appointments.

School teachers who want positions have been waiting the report of the Teachers and Schools Committee and the action of the Board of Education on the new assignments for the coming school year. The report was made to the board yesterday and it was promptly referred to the Committee on Teachers with power to act. This the committee did as soon as the board adjourned, with the result that only three minor changes were made in the report. All of the teachers not mentioned in this report as new appointments or transfers are retained in the service and will remain at their old posts.

In addition to the main report the Teachers and Schools Committee made another report on resignations and probationary features. It also recommended that the rule in force last year allowing teachers ten days' sick leave during the year on pay be amended so that the teacher provide a certificate by a reputable physician, but this amendment was not adopted and the teachers will be allowed their ten days as formerly. A majority of the board expressed their confidence that this measure would not be abused.

A plan to purchase the Bethlehem Baths at Ducommun and Vignes streets was referred to the Building Committee. The lot occupied is 75x125 feet and the plant cost $5000. Superintendent Francis recommended its purchase at the initial cost price.

Resignations were accepted from Grace A. Smith, Clara E. Sherer, Kate N. Desmond, Jessie B. Hayward, Clara McMillan and Lina Huff. Leaves of absence were granted Mae McGarth to October 21; Ruth Crouch, to February 10, 1913; Bonnie C. Green to June 30, 1913; Bess L. Marsh to November 4; May Sylvester, February 10, 1913; A. H. Gibson, February 10, 1913; Sylvia M. Davies to December 2; Helen M. Hawk, to June 6, 1913; M. Luella Rin, to June 30, 1913. Dr. Charles L. Edwards was elected supervisor of nature study on half time.

The commissary equipment at the Fremont-avenue school was ordered removed to the Grand-avenue school. Three portable bungalows were ordered, two for the Virgil-avenue intermediate school and one for the new site at Sixty-first and Figueroa streets.

Adaline Spaulding was appointed librarian at the San Pedro High School; Clara Clark was appointed clerk to the principal at the Sentous intermediate school, and Drs. Lillian K. Ray and H. W. Spiers were appointed instructors and physicians at the elementary school department. E. J. Edwards and Mary Ferguson Coble were appointed probationary teachers in the intermediate schools, and Mrs. Isabel M. Gray, Matt Ryan Draper, Edith A. Coombs, Ebba Johnson, Kathryn McLaughlin, Kathryn L. Johnson, Virgil R. Delleu and Estelle Lubin were appointed probationary teachers in the elementary schools.

ALLEGE INFRINGEMENT.

Patentees of Casing Perforator Sue User of Device Which Latter Claims Is No Original.

The evidence involving the alleged infringement of a patent automatic casing perforator for oil wells was heard in part yesterday by Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court. The orators are Edwin A. and Wallace L. Hardison, the original patentees, and J. J. Deuel, assignee, against A. E. Raine. The patent was issued May 22, 1900, and assigned to Deuel October 27, 1910.

It was claimed by the defendant that there was nothing original in the patent and that the machine had been used generally by oil well operators for more than two years before the patent was allowed.

Some extent of the use of the device may be understood by the testimony that for the past ten years more than fifty a month had been sold to old prospectors in the Kern county oil field alone. The case has been pending for several years and was transferred for trial from the northern division of the United States Court, all of the parties being residents of Bakersfield.

CUTTING TURKISH TOBACCO.

Growers of the Imported Weed Near Dinuba Will Reap a Rich Harvest from Crop.

DINUBA, Sept. 5.—Turkish tobacco cutting has started in this district and the crop this year promises to be the limit of excellence. Armenian growers, in the employ of San Francisco jobbing houses, have watched the crops this year in this district and the buyers are authority for the statement that the leaf this year very closely approximates the very finest imported.

In view of the fine quality of the Turkish this season the prices will run close to $1 per pound. This price will mean returns of $1800 to $2000 per acre for the better crops.

One of the finest features of the new industry is the fact that the leaf makes the best crop on lands which are practically worthless for any other purpose. It requires little irrigation and little hard work in its culture. Several hundreds acres will be put out to this crop next year.

EXETER.

EXETER, Sept. 5.—A new record price has been established for alfalfa lands in the Exeter district, an eighty-acre tract having been sold to Howard Mills, recently from Iowa, by O. L. Jordan. Jordan, who is a Whittier man, bought the land three years ago and paid $150 per acre for it. The sale made to Mills represents a cash profit of $20,000. The tract is all planted to alfalfa. Mills will make a stock farm of the property.

Small Railroad Operating as Part of Larger System Not Amenable to Federal Tax.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The small railroad operating under lease as part of a larger system is not directly amenable to the Federal corporation tax, according to an opinion by Judge Hough of the Federal District Court here.

In the case of the New York Central as lessee of the West Short and Mohawk, and Malone railroads, and the Lackawanna as lessee of the Morris and Essex Railroad against Internal Revenue collectors who levied a corporation tax upon the smaller railroads, Judge Hough upheld the contention that the leased railroads were not amenable to the Federal tax as the lessees had complied with the corporation tax law.

[Seal] T. L. CHAPIN,

A. L. Dennis, being duly sworn, declares that he is and has been for twelve years Superintendent of Circulation of the Los Angeles Times; that the above detailed statement of circulation for the month of August, 1912, is correct, and shows the circulation of The Times for each day of the month named.

A. L. DENNIS,
Superintendent of Circulation, The Times.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of September, 1912.

[Seal] T. L. CHAPIN,

The Times is the only newspaper in Los Angeles that does not make a practice of permitting agents, newsboys and dealers to return unsold copies of its issues. Neither does it misbrand or predate its editions, or inflate its circulation by printing more copies than are actually necessary to supply its patrons.

The Times entire circulation is practically net, and it is more genuine and superior in every respect to that of any other newspaper in Southern California.

Back to Work.

FEDERAL JURY GETTING BUSY.

Has Many Cases to Take Up to Complete Term.

Smugglers and I.W.W. Matters to Be Investigated.

Evidence Sifted Down to Be Concise in Form.

The Federal grand jury will begin work for the July term this afternoon, and a number of important matters will be investigated. Among those of minor moment will be the inquiry into the white slave traffic, as indicated by developments following the arrest of Frank Martin at Florence, Ariz., ten days ago. It is believed it will develop a wide range of this sort of violation of law.

The case against "Billy" Gerald, the alleged Chinese smuggler, and the trip of the "Starlight" from Ensenada to Half Moon Bay, where the boat and a load of contraband Chinese were picked up some time ago, will be investigated. It is understood that at least one prominent man was engaged with Gerald on the job and an effort will be made to secure incriminating evidence against him. It is believed that Gerald has smuggled several hundred Chinese at various points along the coast of California. It was asserted some time ago that Gerald would make a confession and tell all he knew of the traffic, but for some reason he has changed his mind and declares that he does not want any lawyer to defend him, and that he will appear in his own behalf for trial in case he is indicted.

COMPLAINT READY.

On Tuesday next the jury will take up the complaint lodged against Peter Shea, Robert Ray, A. Johnson, Sam Rosenburg, H. Gurley, Leonard Mann and Edward Rooney, who are in the County Jail at San Diego charged with conspiring to carry arms and munitions of war into Mexico.

Johnson and Ray are members of the I.W.W. organization and the first named, according to incriminating evidence found in his possession at the time of his arrest, is a duly accredited advance agent of the Stockton local lodge. Johnson has been allied with the army of undesirables ever since the agitation began at San Diego months ago, and Ray is known as one of the leaders of the gang, although it does not appear that he holds an official position.

The men were arrested at El Cajon August 22 last, and eight Springfield rifles, 800 rounds of cartridges, eight cartridge belts and six dynamite bombs were found in their possession. They claimed to be surveyors, and they had a number of sharpened sticks to make that assertion at least plausible. But when asked how they proposed using the arms, ammunition and bombs in connection with the work of surveying, there was no answer.

Two angles of this case will be taken up by Assistant United States District Attorney Robinson, who will have charge of the investigation before the grand jury. One is that the defendants belonged to the gang that threatened to blow up the waterworks or Spreckels's Theater in San Diego; the other that they were seeking to join the forces of Gen. De La Tobo, an insurrecto leader, who has been operating in Mexican territory below San Diego since last spring.

Efforts have been made by Federal officials here to capture De La Tobo, but they were unsuccessful, although he was taken into custody once and allowed to get away before his identity could be established. It is now stated that his force has been recruited to the extent of more than 100 men and that it consists largely of Yaqui Indians, who have joined in the movement and who know how to fight.

SEEKING EVIDENCE.

From time to time members of the I.W.W. have left San Diego and joined De La Tobo and it is possible this was the destination of the men when they were captured at El Cajon, but this must be established by the evidence before the grand jury. It is the view of District Attorney Robinson, however, that they were violators of the proclamation of President Taft based on a resolution of Congress prohibiting any person from carrying arms and munitions of war from this country into a neighboring country at peace with the United States. At least the investigation will be prosecuted with this line in view.

Later on the investigation of the activities of the I.W.W. in San Diego that formed the basis of the inquiry by the predecessor of the new inquisitorial body, will be resumed.

Family Wrangle.

BREACH IN BOOTH FAMILY SEEMS AS WIDE AS EVER.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The death of "Gen." William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, has reopened the discussion concerning the breach between himself and his son, Ballington Booth, which, contrary to all expectations, not even the death of the evangelist has put an end to.

The utmost secrecy has always been observed by all the members of "Gen." Booth's family concerning the wrangle. "Gen." Booth would never mention it in an interview, and Ballington Booth has been equally reticent, except for one or two trivial interviews, in which he said he was grieved that "Gen." Booth had made no conciliatory overtures to him.

Bramwell Booth, who was chief of staff of the Salvation Army, has succeeded his father, and Eva Booth has been reappointed head of the organization in America.

Mrs. Bramwell Booth.

MAKE STRANGE RITES.

what had occurred, particularly since the Indians had admonished to silence for the time being and because of the fact that they were the only white people ever so united in the tribal history of the Navajos. Consequently, they decided to further seal their allegiance and started out for Gallup, N. M., the nearest station to the ranch, on their horses. They made the sixty miles with a margin of less than five minutes to catch the train for Los Angeles.

Fearing detection in this city on account of being well known, they dropped off at Pasadena and there sought the home of the Catholic priest, to whom they explained their plight, and were remarried. Then they came to Los Angeles and were recognized at the Alexandria. Charles Hubbell, uncle of the groom, who happened to be on a visit, hurried in with congratulations and advised the young people to wire their respective parents, which they did.

Mrs. Hubbell is related to a number of the prominent families of New York and Washington, and her union with a son of the West, as she put it, "a wild cowboy," will come as a big surprise. Hubbell is also well known in Washington, where he has visited frequently.

SALES AND EXCHANGES.

The Frisbie-Justema Company reports the following sales and exchanges: To E. W. Spaulding from D. H. Hillman, twenty-acre ranch at Oceanside for cash and city property, $12,000; E. M. Hudson to P. H. Marley, 480 acres in Nebraska for cash and Los Angeles property, $16,000; Richard Taylor from A. Keller, twenty-acre ranch at San Jacinto for cash and Pasadena property, $10,000; from J. H. Stehlik, city property and cash for 160-acre ranch at Acton, $6000; house from L. Burck Company to Miss Lane, $2800; J. A. Headlee to W. C. Showalter, 160-acre ranch at Owensmouth for eight acres at Downey, $14,000; F. C. Waldschmidt, ten acres at Hansen to W. S. Willey for cash and Inglewood property, $4500.

OAKDALE TRACT OPENED.

The new 1000-acre tract of the Conservative Investment Company at Oakdale was opened Saturday by that company with a special excursion over the Southern Pacific to the property. The opening of the Oakdale tract marks the closing of a big irrigation project in this section of the State and the beginning of a new citrus district. The tract has been subdivided into ten-acre plots on which houses will be built to suit the purchasers. The land is supplied with water from the Tuolumne River. Oakdale, the nearest town to the tract, is three miles distant.

LOTS TO BE MARKETED.

Seventy-four lots, between the first and second sections of Rodgers Park and in the vicinity of Florence and Vermont avenues, are to be put on the market at once by the Los Angeles Investment Company. A strip between the two sections of the big Rodgers Park subdivision contained several homes at the time the company bought the large acreage. Everything was improved around these houses, in accordance with a general scheme of street parks, fountains, playgrounds, tennis courts and trees, but because of these few residences a strip was laid out to await a consistency of building. The company plans to sell the seventy-four lots without building them up with houses.

WAGON RUNS OVER A BOY.

Visalia Youngster Topples From Load and Wheels Crush Leg and Arm—Short News Stories.

VISALIA, Sept. 5.—Joe Garcia, Jr., aged 10 years, was severely injured when he fell from a load of wood near Goshen Station and the heavily-loaded wagon passed over his body. The lad's right arm and right leg were broken, two ribs were fractured and he was badly cut and bruised.

He was brought to this city and taken to the General Hospital. His youth is in his favor and the broken bones may not be fatal.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Clyde Lisman, a former employee of the Visalia Co-operative Creamery, has brought suit for damages against the creamery company, asking for $5450 as compensation for injuries received while working about the boiler in the plant.

Lisman was badly scalded by an explosion in a firebox of the boiler, and he alleges in his complaint that he had called the attention of the responsible parties to the condition of the plant and the consequent danger from working about it.

Lisman figures his burns are worth $2500; $200 is asked for lost wages, $250 for hospital bills and $2500 for general damages.

Government officials connected with the United States Weather Bureau have arranged for the display of rain signals throughout the raisin district, and as soon as unsettled weather sets in daily warnings of conditions will be sent out.

This year for the first time the signals will be sent out through the rural districts, and when a rain signal is received a telephone message warning the raisin men to stack their trays will be sent out to all the subscribers on the farmer lines

$75000 LOSS AT BEACH FIRE

N. G. Baida, 352 S. Broadway, who had a branch store at Ocean Park, No. 3, Auditorium building, suffered a loss of $75,000 in valuable Oriental Rugs, Indian Blankets and Laces, none of which was insured. Mr. Baida's stock consisted of 480 Rugs—the choicest collection in America. Everything was totally destroyed by fire, with absolutely no insurance, his policy being canceled just a few days prior to the fire by the company. —Adv.

Hundreds of DIVIDEND CHECKS have been drawn and are now being distributed to their rightful owners, among our 800 stockholders. TWELVE PER CENT. DIVIDEND a year on par was the rate declared by Conservative Investment Company, payable August 28, 1912. The Conservative is already a wonderful success. It is simply a reorganization and continuation of the marvelous business built up here in Los Angeles during the past 28 years by Mr. Theodore Wiesendanger, our President and General Manager. He has turned over to the Company his properties, Apartment Houses, Residences, Bungalows, Villas, Hotels, Stores and Business Buildings and many tracts of land, improved and unimproved, having a total present value of over $1,400,000. We house in our buildings about 2500 individuals—quite a city in itself. The present income from rentals alone is $140,000 per year. Other sources of profits are the increase in land values and from subdivisions and building operations.

Stock Purchase is made easy for those who cannot pay all cash, by our monthly installments plan of 16 payments:

Some Confidence.

HOGAN THINKS TIGERS BEST.

Declares His Team Will Beat Angels Easily.

Hap Secured New Pitcher from Nebraska League.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Hap Hogan is still confident of capturing the pennant and he puts it this way:

"The Los Angeles club could not beat us out for the pennant in a year of Sundays. We are going to win the pennant. Get that down in your cranium some place, and we are going to win it by giving the Los Angeles club the trouncing of its young career the next time we clash with them. Los Angeles is the club that is worrying and the high tension at which they are traveling will tell on them before the season is much older. Every player on their club has his little notebook out and is figuring the standing it will have to achieve in the next few weeks to retain the lead.

"My men are not worrying in the least, but instead every player on the club is confident that we will win the pennant. You know that's the feeling that helps. My club is intact and playing great ball. When Baum joins us our pitching staff will be much stronger. I expect Baum to pitch at least three games a week for us when he is right, and the Spider has given me his word that he will be in shape to work for the Los Angeles series in two weeks.

"I have also closed a deal for a young pitcher who has been working for a superior club of the Nebraska League. He is said to be the best young pitcher in the league. You just keep your eyes riveted on the old Vernon boys and you will see them in the lead when the season closes."

CHANCE FOR JOHNNY TO SHOW HIS CLASS.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Veteran Johnny Thompson closed up a couple of matches today through his manager, Larney Lichtenstein. On the night of September 10 he will meet Knockout Brown, the Chicago middleweight who is now fighting at top speed. The men will go ten rounds at Peoria.

Cincinnati has closed for a Thompson-McGoorty match which will take place in that city two weeks after the Thompson-Brown fight. Thompson has instructed Lichtenstein to endeavor to get him at least one match a week all winter.

HOW TIP FIGURES HIS LEAGUE STANDING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—President Tip O'Neill of the Western League today announced the following corrected standing of the clubs in that league up to and including games played on September 4, with the protested game thrown out. The announcement is made today because of the confusion in the standing on account of the tie game and the protested game, which was ordered played over.

FAMOUS PLAYER DEAD.

AUBURN (N. Y.) Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Relatives here received word today of the death of John Arundel in the Willard State Hospital. As "Tug" Arundel, he was known thirty years ago in professional baseball. He was catcher for Indianapolis and Washington in the old National League; was with Detroit in the Western League days, and was at Savannah in the Southern League.

He Did the Business.

Walter Slagle,
Whose great pitching yesterday put the Seraphs back on top.

What! Again!

LOOKS AS THOUGH RIVERS AND MANDOT WOULD FIGHT

Billy Nolan Comes Down from San Francisco to Match Willie Ritchie With Mandot but Probably Won't Connect—Wolgast's Accident Will Change Things—Jimmy Johnson's White Hopes.

WHEN all these clouds have swept away Joe Mandot will probably be matched to fight Joe Rivers again. That's the "low down."

Mandot wants to fight Wolgast.

Willie Ritchie wants to fight any one or all of them.

Wolgast wants to fight the highest bidder.

While Managers Tom Jones, Harry Coleman and Joe Levy were arguing the matter all over the lot yesterday, Billie Nolan made a running jump and landed in the midst of them from San Francisco.

Billie has complicated the matter considerably as well as adding to the terrors of the night down on Fighters' Row.

There isn't a lightweight in the country who doesn't shudder at the mention of Willie Ritchie; there isn't a manager in the country who isn't a little nervous about getting into a business deal with Bill Nolan, who holds all championship belts for getting what he wants. As Bill is now managing Willie Ritchie, his entrance onto the scene made considerable commotion.

Nolan came down to make a personal demand upon McCarey for a match between Mandot and Ritchie. He made the atmosphere a little more tense; but he didn't get the match.

Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast, started for the East yesterday, so Nolan missed him; but he saw Harry Coleman, the manager of Joe Mandot, and Uncle Tom McCarey and put forth Ritchie's claims to them.

Coleman said that Mandot wouldn't fight Ritchie unless the latter made 133 ringside; and Ritchie declines to do this for anyone except the champion. The best he will do is 133 at 10 a.m.

Uncle Tom McCarey suggested to Nolan that Ritchie take Rivers instead. Nolan accepted this with a certain money stipulation. At this point, conversation seemed to pall. Nolan wanted too much.

As Wolgast also wants a staggering sum, the process of elimination seems

WOLGAST BADLY HURT BY AUTO.

[A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CADILLAC (Mich.) Sept. 5.—Ad Wolgast, lightweight pugilistic champion, sustained an apparently severe injury to his arm today while cranking his motor car. A physician declared the accident would keep Wolgast out of the ring for six weeks which, if true, means that his match with Packey McFarland in New York this month probably will be postponed.

As soon as possible Wolgast's injured arm will be placed under an X-ray. The fighter cried bitterly while being treated in a doctor's office and apparently seemed to realize that his fight with McFarland will have to be called off, at least temporarily.

Style Is Factor.

MANDOT VICTORY NO GAUGE FOR WOLGAST BOUT

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

THE defeat of Rivers by Joe Mandot has started a lot of arguments and guessing as to what will happen to Mandot if he meets Ad Wolgast.

The Rivers-Mandot-Wolgast combination reminds me very much of the Joe Wolcott-George Gardner-Kid Carter affair that took place in San Francisco some years ago. Gardner beat Carter, Carter beat Wolcott and then Wolcott beat Gardner.

Many think that Rivers beat Wolgast, and Mandot beat Rivers, but that does not signfy that Mandot can beat the champion. Different men make different fights. Rivers did his best work with Wolgast when he slugged with him, and did better with Mandot when he was boxing at close quarters. Mandot did not seem to be able to get away from Rivers in the rough, close work, but did about as he pleased with him at long range.

Mandot will find Wolgast much harder to hit at long range from his peculiar defense. No one that Wolgast has fought yet, except Abe Attell, has been able to keep away from him when he takes the notion to carry the fighting along. Mandot is hardly fast enough on his feet to keep away.

It is also doubtful if Mandot is as rugged and strong as Wolgast. Many would like to see Rivers and Wolgast meet again, notwithstanding the poor showing Rivers made against Mandot. There is no question that Rivers was not in good condition, and if he meets Ad again will probably be better than he ever was. The last trimming he got was the best lesson he ever will get as long as he is in the game.

Mandot is entitled to a match with Wolgast for the title more than any lightweight in the game, from the fact that he got a twenty-round decision and championships are settled these days over that distance.

Willie Ritchie got a decision over Mandot, but it was over a short distance and he is making a strong bid for the chance to meet Wolgast on these grounds, but coming right down to the merits of the thing, Mandot should be given the preference over Ritchie.

The first man that beats Wolgast over the twenty-round distance will be the champion, and since the Wolgast-Rivers affair and the Mandot-Rivers contest, all the lightweights in the country are after Ad.

Pitchers' Battle.

FINE FLINGING FEATURES SHUT OUT FOR SEALS.

New Heaver Bonner Holds Angels to Three Widely-Scattered Swats and Yet Loses Through Wildness. Slagle Pitches Good Ball—Both Teams Put Up High-Class Fielding Game All the Way.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

WITH the Vernon Tigers tangled up in another mud hole, the Seraphs again hurdled over them and into first place yesterday, gaining that goal by virtue of a 2 to 0 victory over "Bill" Reidy's traveling troupe.

Superlative slab work by Walter Slagle enabled the Seraphs to return the cipher compliment of Wednesday. Albert Bonner's baffling box work was another big feature of the alliterative occasion. In a way he outpitched Slagle, permitting the Seraphs to pick off but three hits while the Seals spanked out four. There was just a trace of wildness in each man's work, but Slagle's didn't hurt a bit while Bonner's inability to keep the ball within the lawful zone wrought his downfall. A pass and a punctured batter figured in the Seraph's first run, a sixth-inning concoction, and then Bonner potted Boles in the eighth, said deplorable act being the genesis of the second run.

This one, however, was a present from Umpire Phillip Knell, who imagined that it was Boles's birthday. Walter did not exhibit the slightest anxiety to remove himself from the danger zone, which wasn't so very dangerous at that, as the ball was slower than sorghum molasses in a Klondike mining camp.

Bonner has as many curves as a chorus girl, a sidearm delivery attachment on his right side and more changes of pace than a five-speed machine. "Bill" Reidy found him toiling in comparative obscurity in Spokane not long since. Albert had a cup of coffee and a sinker with the Philadelphia Athletics last spring. If his behavior continues to be as exemplary as it was yesterday, he will some time get beyond the soup on the major league menu.

PITCHERS CRIPPLED.

With Walter Leverenz suffering from chilblains, gout, ennui or some other gentlemanly humor; "Bill" Tozer lugging a concrete cast around on his broken wing and Walter Nagle again in the infirmary, Dillon found it necessary to drag Slagle away from the peace and quiet of his Glendale ranch. Slagle depended almost entirely on his "parsnip ball," a creation which he evolved while herding garden truck on his vegetable hacienda. The ball looks as big as a dirigible balloon when it leaves Slagle's hand. It begins to dwindle with startling suddenness and by the time it reaches the plate it seems to have shrivelled to the dimensions of a mustard seed and the batter cannot see it any more than the mariner can see the hidden shoal, which is not.

Gedeon, Corhan, Bonner and Howard were the only aliens to get a piece of this ball, and these fragments were scattered through as many innings. Corhan and Howard were the only hostiles to set foot on third base, and both were subsequently ambushed.

Corhan made his expedition in the second inning. He accepted the courtesy of the house, was sacrificed to second by Hans Wagner's distant relative and gained third while Dillon's activities were centered on yanking down a tropical clout promoted by McArdle and his maple accomplice. Schmidt smashed the ball to Metzger. Corhan tried to regain that sanctuary, but his spikes failed to hold and he went down like a wounded buck. Metzger captured him without a struggle.

Slagle displayed slight symptoms of making an ascent in the fourth, but was held to earth by the trained arm of Walter Boles. Slagle papered Howard, and Boles promptly pegged him out in an attempted theft of second. Slagle continued wasteful, and walked Zimmerman. "Heinie," not profiting by his mate's untimely fate, had his bright young base running career cut short at second, Boles to Page. Very thoughtful for Mr. Boles. Corhan, the next man up, blazed beautifully to center, and you all know what would have happened had Howard and Zimmerman been in a position to enjoy the benefits of this swipe. Wagner, a young man who runs largely to legs and wears his belt under his arms, fanned.

DEL HOWARD DOUBLES.

Howard caused Slagle's alabaster brow to shed a few beads of clear, cold perspiration in the sixth. With one shelved, Del slammed the ball out between Daley and Heitmuller in a vigorous and left-handed manner. This deposited Howard's bulk on second, and he hurried along to third while Page and Dillon were spearing Zimmerman at first. Corhan here came into possession of his second pass. He started boldly to buccaneer second. Slagle's attention was attracted by his strange actions. This encouraged Howard to venture quite a distance down the line toward home. Slagle suspecting as much, whirled and shot the ball to Metzger. That Howard's case was desperate is to be gained from the fact that he tried to slide back to the base on the side of his face. That the human countenance was never intended to serve the purpose of a sled runner is proved by the fact that Howard stuck fast before reaching the base. For an hour, Del put in his spare time digging the loose gravel out of his right ear.

Berger was the first batting gent to solve Bonner. He bounced a fretful crack off that young man's glove. This so peeved Bonner that he paid no attention to Berger, but instead, tried to throw the ball through the crust of the earth. Bonner recovered his composure after Berger had stolen second, and prevented Daley and Heitmuller from doing anything for their country.

BOLES SCORES TWO.

Bonner benevolenced Boles in the sixth, and Slagle sacrificed. Page poled a long one that Howard handled according to Hoyle, or some other authority. Bonner then mistook Berger for a duckpin, and bowled him over. It was a venomous thrust, and Joey hopped up and down on one foot for quite a bit. Daley, who is again earning his salary as a regular, believes that the only way to hit the ball is on the proper spur of the proper moment. He did that very thing. It was a clean single, despite the fact that some contend you can't do anything like that with a dirty ball. Boles scored and Berger went to third. Much was demanded of Heitmuller, but it was not his day to home-run, and he was stored on a grounder to Corhan.

Boles, the first man to look at Bonner in the eighth, managed to wiggle around in front of a slow one. The ball hit him in the middle of the back. Boles was badly hurt. He must have been. A blow in the back never fails to injure a man's left elbow, and Boles proved that his injury was genuine by grasping his left elbow. He also writhed. This settled it in the mind of Umpire Knell, who is opposed to murder in any degree. Boles got his base, nursed his left elbow clear around to third on Slagle's sacrifice and Page's infield out. He writhed over the plate when Berger stung Bonner's glove with a shot that ricochetted on down into the meadow for a whole base. Daley had already done his duty, and succumbed good-naturedly on a drive to Bonner. The score:

ENGLAND IS TRYING TO EXPLAIN RESULTS.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Great Britain's failure to get better results at the Olympic games at Stockholm is explained today in the report of the British Olympic Committee.

"It was not mere specialization which enabled Sweden and the United States to do better than the British empire," says the report. "The only winner of three gold medals came from Finland. The pentathlon and decathlon were won by an American who showed quite extraordinary all-round ability. Sweden won its points by cultivating every form of physical ability possessed by her inhabitants, and her strength and capacity as a nation have been enormously increased in the process."

The lack of serious interest in the games on the part of the British public is declared by the committee to have greatly affected the enthusiasm of the British competitors. Owing to want of funds these also were deprived of opportunities for training under trainers acquainted with the best scientific methods.

It rests with the British public, says the report, whether this state of things shall be remedied in the future.

BIG CATCH.

M. C. White came back from Balboa yesterday with good reports of the fishing conditions and the fish to back up his claims. Over 300 pounds of albacore and barracuda, together with some very large yellowtail, was White's catch.

DELHI OFFERED TO THE SERAPHS.

"Bill" Reidy, manager of the San Francisco club, yesterday offered to sell "Flame" Delhi outright to the Los Angeles club. Before leaving the North, Reidy informed Ewing that he is through with Delhi, and would endeavor to dispose of him at the earliest opportunity.

"Delhi's arm has not been right since he returned from Chicago," said Reidy last night, "but it is my opinion that a short sojourn in the South where it is warmer would put him back in winning form. Learning that Berry and Dillon were compaining of injuries and illness on their staff, I made the offer to them yesterday afternoon. Regarding the price, it will be necessary for them to negotiate with Ewing."

Dillon stated last night that the deal has not yet progressed beyond Reidy's offer to sell. They have taken it under consideration.

New Yorkers Take Double-Header from Philadelphia. Cubs' Hopes Go Glimmering Before Pitching of Cincinnati Recruit—Pirates Win from St. Louis—Brooklyn Turns Tables on Boston in Ninth.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] The Giants virtually cinched the National League pennant this afternoon by defeating Philadelphia twice, while the Cubs were losing to Cincinnati.

Mathewson pitched the first game, being steady and sure at all times. Ames went along in good style in the second, being taken out for a batter in the eighth. New York won in the ninth through heavy hitting. Snodgrass made a home run with a man on base.

DODGERS BEAT BOSTON.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

BROOKLYN, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Brooklyn landed on Tyler in the ninth and Smith's fourth hit, Cutshaw scored the tying run. Daubert was purposely walked, but Wheat's single scored the winning run. Smith, in four times at the bat got two doubles and two triples, while Hummel collected four singles out of five trips.

MUNSELL TO RETURN EAST.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Pitcher Munsell, who has not had much success in his short stay with Sacramento in the Coast League, has been recalled by the New York Giants.

He went to Sacramento from Buffalo, but the Buffalo club held him only under an optional agreement with New York.

REFEREE IS CHOSEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] It is announced today that Jim Griffin will referee the bout between Frankie Burns of Oakland and "One-Round" Hogan of San Francisco, to be held here on Admission Day, September 9. Griffin was referee for the last Attel-Murphy bout here.

GAME IS PROTESTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] President Fogel of the Philadelphia National League club sent a telegram to President Lynch of the league, protesting today's first game with New York, which the visitors won 8 to 1. The ground for the protest is that Umpire Rigler illegally called out Sherwood Magee, notwithstanding that Catcher Wilson dropped the ball while running down the left fielder in the sixth inning.

POLICEMAN HONORED.

POTCHEFSTROOM (South Africa) Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A triumphal reception was given today to Kennedy K. McArthuh, the South African policeman who won the Marathon at the Olympic games He was met by the Mayor and a great procession at the head of which he marched through the town. Troops lined the streets and public buildings and residences were decorated and illuminated in his honor.

Seraph Batting Order.

Manager Dillon figures that he gets the maximum of batting strength by this arrangement of the club.

Members of Troop D, the crack local cavalry organization, were deprived of the chance to go out after doves on opening day, as the troop was ordered out to the East Lake range for rifle practice, but many of the boys will lay aside the government rifle the coming Sunday and spend the day with the "wide nozzle" shooters.

Cigarette brands come and go but Imperiales go on and on with an ever increasing number of smokers who know real quality and stick by the cigarette that gives it.

The popularity of Imperiales is due to two mighty important features:—

The expert Imperiales blend of high grade tobaccos cut into fine silky threads that burn evenly—.

The modern mouthpiece that cools the smoke and gives you the rich flavor and fragrance of the blended leaves.

The smokers of Imperiales not only get a rich full-bodied cigarette of high quality, but in each package is a coupon, twenty-five of which can be exchanged for a beautiful felt pennant (size 12 x 32 inches).

In the selection are pennants of the colleges and universities and most of the fraternal orders.

You will find a partial list of the pennants on the reverse side of the coupon.

AMERICAN PENNANT IS SLATED FOR BEANEATERS.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Buck O'Brien and Tris Speaker clinched the American League pennant for Boston this afternoon, O'Brien by fine box work, and Speaker by his terrific batting.

The defeat of Washington puts Boston in such a position that the club can virtually lose one-half of its games for the balance of the season and with Philadelphia winning three-quarters of its games, the Red Sox will still win the flag.

Speaker, in four times at bat, scored a single, double and triple. All counted in sending runs over the plate. Cashion was wild while O'Brien showed world's series form. The Washington pitcher gave seven bases on balls, Wagner being walked every time he came to bat, and Carrigan getting three walks out of four appearances.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Joe Birmingham made his first appearance in Chicago as a big league manager and while he played well himself, his team was defeated, principally through the excellent pitching of Doc White. Borton, the new first baseman from the Western League was the big factor in batting home runs for Chicago.

HIGHLANDERS LOSE.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] The Athletics went into second place by giving the Highlanders two decisive beatings. In the first game Mack's men scored nineteen runs on twenty-three hits for a total of thirty-five bases, Caldwell, Davis and Priest being batted to all corners of the lot. Brown let down with a safe lead.

In the second, Plank was hit hard only in the fifth. The game was called on account of darkness, the first game taking almost two and a half hours to play.

KLAWITTER SHUTS OUT SENATORS IN WET GA

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Despite the rain, which made them homesick, the Beavers walked off with a game today that had about as much snap to it as a wet cracker. The defense put up by the Senators looked as if they were sorry they won yesterday. Klawitter had no difficulty in shutting them out, and his team-mates found it reasonably easy to collect a half-dozen runs.

The teams played in intermittent showers, and rested for ten minutes in the sixth inning, not because the players were exhausted, but to allow them to find shelter from a passing shower. The Beavers had the game sewed up, 5 to 0, by that time and were indifferent whether it continued or not.

Gus Fisher's war club chased the joys from the Senatorial camp in the third inning, when he boosted the ball over the fence for a home run, with two men on bases. Prior to that time, in the first, careless playing had permitted a Portland run. Chadbourne reached third on a single and a sacrifice by Sheehan's error of an easy throw from Gilligan, and scored on Butcher's sacrifice fly.

The third inning opened with the Portlanders in a vicious mood. Roberts rapped out a single to left, and Krueger laid down a bunt, advancing him. Butcher beat out an infield chance. Doane slammed a two-bagger into right field that scored Krueger. Rapps beat the air; and Fisher batted for a home run.

Gilligan tightened up after that and would have blanked the Oregonians had not the latter run wild on the bases. Bancroft got a start on free transportation, ambled to second on Rodgers's bunt, went to third on a wild pitch and then made a steal home. Cheek dropped the pitched ball, but Butcher drove to left for two bases and stole third, but died there.

Seraphs Strong on Road.

Frank Dillon is nowise perturbed by the fact that the Seraphs will have but three weeks at home between the close of the present series and the end of the season. He regards the Seraphs as one of the best road machines ever put together, and supports his contention by pointing to the fact that they have lost only one series abroad to date. This reverse was at the hands of Oakland, who grabbed four games out of seven after much toil and uncertainity.

Enforced Rest for Tozer.

"Bill" Tozer's fractured left arm was yesterday boxed up in a plaster cast, and it is probable that he will be required to go around thus weighted down for nearly three weeks. Berry and Dillon believe that this will freshen Tozer up for a strong finish, and are banking on him to bag a bunch of the games at the rate of two a week in the closing weeks of the scramble.

Washington	156	98	58	.628

Club—	Played.	Won.	Lost.	P.c.
New York	125	87	38	.696
Chicago	126	80	46	.635

Now, we'll suppose another slump and winning streak, the former by New York and the latter by the Cubs. Out of the twenty-five games each club still must play, let's suppose New York loses fifteen and wins ten and Chicago wins fifteen and loses ten. Chicago has been going only at this pace recently, while the Giants have been doing a little better than break even. This will leave the standing:

Club—	Played.	Won.	Lost.	P.c.
New York	150	97	53	.647
Chicago	151	95	56	.629

It would still give McGraw a margin.

President Johnson said tonight that the world's series would start on October 8. The city will be decided by the choice of a coin.

Very Close Finish.

DEN WINS RICH STAKE ON HARTFORD COURSE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FORD (Ct.) Sept. 5.—Baden, Jersey City stallion, owned driven by A. S. Rodney, won trophy at the Charter circuit races today, but a hard-fought battle. The the full five heats. Esther second place and Ruth was third.

third heat Baden went off the start and before he under control the field was eighth of a mile ahead. drove to the limit and at quarter mark not only had the leaders, but had re- the pole. It was the prettiest seen on the track in years. however, broke about a hun- from the finish, and was the wire by Esther W. and Annie Kohl.

The fourth heat developed into another battle royal between Baden and Esther W., the latter finishing a few inches ahead.

In the final heat Esther W. held the lead until the half mile was reached, when she broke and trailed. Cox soon had her to her gait again and by a magnificent spurt she became once more a contender, finishing only a nose behind Baden. Results:

The Charter Oak, 2:14 trot, purse $10,000, won by Baden; Esther W., second; Ruth McGregor, third. Time, 2:10.

The Juvenile 2:30 trot for 2-year-olds, purse $2000: Dillon Axworthy, won; Nathan Axworthy, second. Time, 2:13½.

The 2:20 trot for 3-year-olds, purse $2000: Axworthy, won; Senorita second. Time 2:13¼.

MANY ENTER IN WATER EVENTS.

Races at Redondo Tonight Draw Many Experts.

Southerners Will Try to Dim Northern Stars.

Boys Under Twelve Years of Age Will Have Chance.

Like the Spanish Armada of old, the San Francisco Y.M.C.A. swimming team has come south to battle with the local Vikings for the supremacy of the southern brine. The first engagement is to start tonight at the Redondo plunge and the war will end tomorrow evening at the same place. The Southern California Swimming Association has made a great effort to make this tournament surpass all others in point of class and number of entries, and it looks, by the list of contestants, as though the association would have its wish.

After the upsetting of the dope by this same set of northern aquatic stars last year, the Southern California swimming championships have developed into a struggle between the north and south, and take it from one who knows, the feeling runs high even past the 'Nth degree. Ludy Langer is thirsting after the blood of Lincoln Johnson, who took the Kinsey cup away from him last year in the 440, after Ludy had scored two wins on the trophy and only needed one more to gain permanent possession of the cup. Not only is Ludy parched, but all the southern water fans are nearly dying of this thirst, as it cost them a pretty penny last year.

The list of events for tonight's schedule is as follows: Fifty-yard dash heats; 440-yard dash, one race; boys' diving contest, under 12 years of age; fifty-yard dash, finals; 100-yard dash for women; 100-yard dash, heats; men's diving contest; 220-yard dash.

Following is the complete entry list in the order of competition:

The 440-yard dash—Harley Burke, Long Beach; Pete Towne, L.A.A.C.; Ludy Langer, Redondo; Murray Benton, S.F.Y.M.C.A.; Lincoln Johnson, S.F.Y.M.C.A.; Harry Lenz, Long Beach; Ernest Miller, Dyas-Cline; Ben Watlington, L.A.A.C.; George Lee Harding, Redondo.

Woman's 100-yard dash—Mrs. Dorothy Newkirk Gray, Ocean Park; Miss Dolly Mings, Redondo; Miss Inez Fanjoy, Bristol Pier, Bathhouse; Miss Gertrude Johnson, Ocean Park; Miss Lilly Burt, Redondo; Mrs. Emma Newkirk Willis, Santa Monica; Miss Richmond, Ocean Park; Miss Dolly Conolly, Redondo.

The 220-yard dash—Carlton Armitage, Sunset Beach; Pete Towne, Harold Baker and William Henry of L.A.A.C.; Ludy Langer, Redondo; Murray Benton, Lincoln Johnson and Ernest Smith of S.F.Y.M.C.A.; Harry Lenz Long Beach; Ray Henderson, Redondo.

The 880-yard dash—Ben Watlington, L.A.A.C.; Harley Burke, Long Beach; Pete Towne and William Henry of L.A.A.C.; Ray Henderson, Ludy Langer, Gerald Witt and Billy Blevins of Redondo; Lincoln Johnson, S.F.Y.M.C.A.; Harry Lenz, Long Beach; Ernest Miller, Dyas-Cline; George Lee Harding, Redondo.

Juvenile fifty-yard dash, boys 16 years or under—Morris Sparling, Los Angeles; James Montgomery, Long Beach; Beryl Tower, Ray Henderson, Gerald Witt and Billy Blevins of Redondo; Murray Benton, S.F.Y.M.C.A.; Clyde Gegins, Redondo.

Women's 440-yard dash—Mrs. Dorothy Newkirk Gray, Venice; Miss Dolly Mings, Redondo; Miss Inez Fanjoy, Bristol Pier bathhouse; Miss Gertrude Johnson, Ocean Park; Mrs. Emma Newkirk Willis, Santa Monica.

Dr. Beach, referee; Bob Weaver, starter; A. L. Watson, clerk of course.

Announcer—Fred Tesche.

SEYMOUR GETS BILLIARD TITLE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By defeating W. Grant Johnson of the Cabrillo Club here tonight in the final round of a 1200-point 18-2 balk line billiard match, Arthur H. Seymour of the Los Angeles Athletic Club won the Coast championship. The score was Seymour, 1200; Johnson, 1035. Seymour's high run average for the entire match was 8 1-3.

SHOOTING NOTES.

W. L. McAdams cannot complain this season. He has one of the three record bucks brought in to his credit and says the one he has spotted will beat anything seen in these parts for several years. McAdams has a number of friends who are inclined to say, "Pretty lucky," but the hunter declares there is luck to a seven-point buck at any time and pins all the honors on his new model 22 high-power rifle.

L. H. Davis came into the city yesterday with a two-spike buck which he shot in the Santa Monica mountains yesterday. Davis says that there are plenty of deer in the Santa Monica range, but they are rather hard to get at.

Edward C. Crossman has received one of the new trombone action Savage rifles for trial, from the factory. The well-known shooting authority said yesterday that this promised to be the most successful high-power pump gun put on the market up to this time. In a short time the local sporting goods houses will have a line of these rifles in stock. Crossman expects to leave for a hunting trip of several weeks' duration, in a short time and he will take his "experimental model" with him into the hunting grounds of the northwest.

Gus Markman and wife are enjoying a vacation in the Malibu. Word was received from their camp yesterday to the effect that Gus had shot a big five-point buck and was anxious to get back to the city to tell about it.

Not even the attractions of dove season are strong enough to pull the old stand-bys away from the traps. Last Sunday and Monday there were large crowds out at Venice and Glendale. This week there is expected a larger number out.

The over-head blue rocks are making a great hit at the Los Angeles Rifle and Revolver Club's range. Last Sunday Dr. L. M. Packard, E. C. Crossman and Harry Miles tied for high score with nineteen out of a possible twenty.

George T. Kellogg, the well-known rifle shot, took his first degree in the trap shooting game only a week ago and is now one of the regulars. After making sixteen straight, the boy blew up on the last four, with a run of sixteen out of twenty. He now says that the traps beat rifle shooting and the over-head blue rocks are the greatest ever.

Dr. L. M. Packard divides his time equally between the over-head blue rocks and the straight-away, but he seems to show more class on the flyers.

V. R. Hoffman of the Bisbee, Ariz., Rifle Club is in the city on a short visit and is being shown a good time by the members of local gun clubs.

Bill Cornett is planning a hunting trip to his ranch next Sunday and expects to take R. C. Fike and Frank Holborow along to enjoy the dove shooting. If he were wise, the Holborow person would be forgotten as the swimmer is color blind when he goes shooting. They say he went out last season with a party and knowing no better, shot into a flock of quail, thinking they were doves.

VERY FAST MILE.

HAMLINE (Minn.) Sept. 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Dazzle Patch, owned by M. W. Savage, and the two-year-old pacing son of Dan Patch, world's champion pacer, in the feature event of the day's Great Western races here yesterday, made a mark of 0:59½ for the half mile, the lowest mark ever officially made by a two-year-old pacer. Dazzle Patch has an unofficial record of 0:59 and will attempt to make a lower mark on Friday.

RIVERS AND MANDOT.

to bring the match down to Rivers and Mandot for a return match. This is said to be McCarey's real intention.

Rivers and Mandot are likely to part, however, without a definite agreement.

Mandot goes north on the Owl tonight. A special dispatch to The Times from San Francisco last night stated that Jimmy Coffroth is plotting to get Mandot up there, kidnapping him from McCarey. Jimmy wants to pit Mandot against the winner of the Frankie Burns-Jack Hogan fight next Monday afternoon. He then proposes to match Wolgast against the winner of that fight. By special invitation, Mandot will be at the ringside in San Francisco Monday.

Rivers will leave for Wheeler Springs Saturday morning. He says he is going to work up there in the mountains as he never worked before. He expects to put in about three weeks in the mountains.

Jimmy Johnson Says.

Jimmy Johnson sent a special telegram to The Times, telling of the Kilbane-Dundee fight. He says, in the early rounds, Kilbane lagged behind. But seeing Dundee gaining, jumped in and made a good fast fight of it for the last four rounds. At the finish Dundee was tired and holding on.

Kilbane and Uncle Tom.

He says that Jimmy Dunn told him he would be perfectly willing to have Kilbane fight again in Los Angeles. Dunn said that McCarey had always treated him right and Uncle Tom can have Johnny any time he can find an opponent that would make a good card.

English White Hopes.

Jimmy Johnson's English white hopes have arrived and he has found matches for all of them.

Jack Harrison is to fight Eddie McGoorty September 23.

Ritchie's Plans.

If Willie Ritchie doesn't connect with any matches on the Coast, Nolan intends to take him north for a trip through Canada; then to New York. He has offers there of fights with Packey McFarland and Leach Cross. He will probably accept both.

Tickle Itches for War.

Lincoln Johnson,
Of the San Francisco Y.M.C.A., who is looking for Ludy Langer's goat in the swimming meet at Redondo.

Individual "Big Noises" Now at the Local Theaters.

FROM THE MASON TO THE MAJESTIC

By Julian Johnson

I'm getting in bad with a certain actor by forecasting this big event, but it's too portentous not to prophesy.

The actor's last name is Mestayer. I wouldn't give you his first name for fear that you might identify him.

The supreme moment of the big Duffield testimonial, at the Burbank Theater next Tuesday, will be Mr. Mestayer's song.

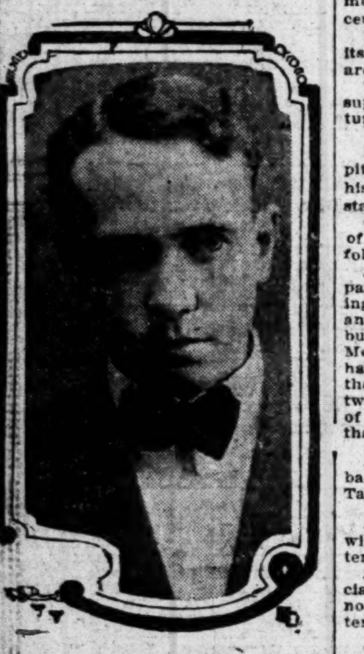
The chorus is the secret.

This is the part that Mr. Mestayer made me swear upon a T.M.A. ritual not to reveal.

To help draw a mammoth house to honor the grand old man of local theaterdom, I'm going to spill the confidence.



Hugo Lutgens,

Mr. Mestayer, alone upon the stage, undauntedly warbles, chants, crooms, intones, yodels or cantorizes the tune of his little stanza.

Muriel Starr, Beatrice Nichols, Lilliam Elliott, Selma Paley, Grace Travers, Mabel Morrison and several other notable young women of the local stage.

Now the accepted attire of a baby-doll chorus is——,

But that's just where you're left guessing!

Visiting royalty note: William Hamilton Cline occupied a gallery seat in the Spreckles Theater at San Diego Wednesday evening.

Mr. Cline says that the ceiling of the Spreckles is one of the most dramatic he ever gazed upon.

A friend downstairs told him, upon meeting after the show, that the Rainey pictures were good and that they had nice Turkish rugs in the aisles.

Bertha Kalich,

As "Toinette, in "A Light from St. Agnes," still the predominant feature at the Orpheum.

Bill Ham, I understand, is likely to be the Klaw & Erlanger literary exponent here this winter.

More power to the Willwyatt typewriter, Guillaume!

The call of the mysterious East came to Ernest Glendinning, playing at the Hamburger Majestic Theater in "Baby Mine," last night.

It came as a yellow Western-Unioner, and in answering Mr. Glendinning will leave Margaret Mayo's gynecologic comedy Saturday night.

His successor is not yet announced.

But at the rate the Lyceum changes its front and plans, announcements are precarious.

David M. Hartford, recently hospitalized by a hole in his leg, visited his directoral haunt, the Burbank stage, yesterday.

On arrival he was handed a script of "Checkers," which is slated to follow "Pierre."

As "Checkers" has thirty-three parts, and as thirty-three speaking roles, is not good form for any stock company, even the Lutherburbank kind that grow in the soil Morosco has fertilized. Dovidel will have the unravelling job of cutting the thirty-three parts down to about twenty, and crocheting the speeches of the missing into the lines of them that are left.

After "Checkers" will come "Barbaraza," with the return of Laurette Taylor and Forrest Stanley.

John Blackwood visited Nat Goodwin, in his Ocean Park home yesterday afternoon.

At the present writing the physician's bulletin says that Goodwin is no worse, and Blackwood is no better.

"Anatole," to be played at the Ames Theater in New York, seems to chase all its prospective leading men to Los Angeles.

Yesterday I noted that Barrymore was out of his Little Theater job, and had joined the Lieblers—probably.

And today I set down the fact that the role of Anatole, Schnitzler's delightful and utterly absurd Bohemian, has just been offered to Dick Bennett.

Whether Bennett will take it or not is quite another matter.

Bennett has some ideas upon the Little Theater which at least furnished food for thought.

"To play there," said he, "seems the finest job in New York. It is a succession of parts, the highest-bred audience in the world, purely the highest type of drama, and we live at home, which gets to be a wonderful thing to the Thespian pilgrim annually cursed with the wanderfever of the railroad.

"Yet Mr. Ames was, is and remains the figurehead of that institution. If a play is a success, Mr. Ames's name is blazoned high. If an actor makes a mediocre play get over, Mr. Ames's name goes up again. For all that we have and are, Mr. Ames is responsible.

"Neither actor nor playwright is more than a figurehead. As in battle, before all comes the king; so in the Little Theater, before all, comes the great idea of the promoters.

"I'm not blaming them. If I had a scheme to which I stuck through flood and fire, famine and plenty, derision and acclaim, poverty and prosperity, you can bet that I would hold myself responsible for everything big that happened about it. And, in a sense, I would be right.

"I'm not knocking the Little Theater, which is a splendid enterprise. I'm merely weighing, carefully, my own estimation of the value of personal glory. When an actor enters the Little Theater portals he takes off the cloak of ego-triumph and checks it. He doesn't get it again until he exits.

"Outside, an actor's name sometimes means more than an author's, a manager's or a theater's. I realize, of course, that the play's the thing, but there come times in the career of every player of recognized prominence, when the audience doesn't know the show, doesn't give an iota of care about the producer, maybe never heard of the playwright, but perhaps will take a chance on the name of the actor or actress, as a preliminary experiment.

"That is where I claim that personality eventually gets to have a peculiar and indisputable significance. It is temporary weight, it is true, but weight it is, nevertheless."

Charlie Ruggles will go to New York.

Beth Taylor has gone to Sacramento to be leading woman of Redmond's stock company.

And he has the thousand, too.

His knowledge of eastern geography evidently stops abruptly somewhere near the Chippewa market, fo. the advance log of the E. M. Pope-Hartford reads: "Saturday night, Iroquois Hotel, Buffalo; Sunday night, Hotel Astor, New York."

Hazel Purdy,

At Fischer's Lyceum.

Like the Swede late at the dock, he will have to make it in at least two yumps for no living man, not even Teddy Tetzlaff, could do that near-500 miles in one day's driving now, with country constables and village cops on the watch at every turn.

I expect to hear that Morosco wheeled down past Grant's Tomb about Tuesday afternoon next.

Sam Levy gives warning that he is about to embark on a play.

He says he has waited several months for Hartley Manners to write a play about Peg's father, and that now he will do it himself, Manners not availing himself of the chance.

"Michael" will be the name of Mr. Levy's effort.

I append, for the information of local followers of the Taylor-Manners school of drama, some paragraphs from Walter Anthony's criticism of "Barbaraza" in the San Francisco Call:

Arria Hathaway,

A Californian, at Pantages. She dances—but refuses to be photographed in her dancing costumes. "I'd just as soon think of wearing them on the street!" she exclaims, with arch demureness—so, sing hey! for an unaccustomed form of press-agentry.

"J. Hartley Manners has written a big play. It is 'Barbaraza.' It has what is too frequently lacking in dramatic offerings—the big note. As usual, however, the 'big note' is unfamiliar. Creators in art strike it, but it is not always recognized. It takes temerity, conscience and a desperate devotion to truth to hit the gong of genuineness, and few creators there are who get anything but posthumous reward for their pains. Manners has had the dramatic decency, for instance, to bring his play to a logical conclusion.

"'Barbaraza' ends, like a Beethoven sonata, in the key with which it begins, and it is a minor mode that the prelude (called 'prolude') intones. Whether 'Barbaraza' becomes a popular play depends entirely on whether the public cares for minor music in a ragtime infested theater. Whether the public cares or sniffs doesn't matter very much so far as the truth is concerned, and the truth is that the Alcazar stage exposed a big play last night, wherein a native writer of plays allowed his characters to work out their own destinies without reference to the exigencies of a sometimes estranged box office.

"I would not give you the notion that 'Barbaraza' last night at the Alcazar was unrelieved gloom. Far from it. There was the light of art over it almost all the time, and it was not without a related and congenial humor. Even a Beethoven minor sonata may have a scherzo movement, and Laurette Taylor could not finger the keys of any role without touching them into sprightliness now and then.

"In case I am vague, let me explain that 'Barbaraza' is a play of modern Greece, that it had its second look at the footlights last night, that it shocked the Alcazar audience into an awakened alarm as late as 11:15, and that whatever may be your ideas on the subject of the drama, it will be your misfortune to miss the extraordinary production of 'Barbaraza.'

"Space is denied me tonight, and 'Barbaraza' is something that cannot be dismissed in a paragraph. It has the touch of Sardou, but it is without artificial stage stimulants. Its tragic story is told colloquially, but classically. The participants in the plot unfoldmen are human beings who say real things, and the heroics of an inflated rhetoric have no part in 'Barbaraza.' It is as idiomatic as Kenyon's 'Kindling,' and nobody would attempt to put it into blank verse; yet it is an emotional classic and nobody would attempt to play it on the sordid plane of realism."

Marguerite Clark,

Thomas McLarnie,

[Special Correspondence of the Times.]

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 5.—With 150 men out for football, the first varsity practice, held last night on California Field, was an auspicious opening of the season, and, despite the fact that seven veterans of last year's team have gone the graduation route, there seems to be good possibilities of developing a strong team. Coach Jimmie Schaeffer and Assistant Coach "Skook" Cerf are on the job picking out the likely material, and in a few days the men who have no chance to make the team will be dropped from the squad.

Larry Dolan, the former Los Angeles boy, who has been in Nevada all summer, put in his appearance yesterday morning, and in the afternoon the husky scrummer was in a suit. Dolan should be a tower of strength in the scrum this year, and, together with King and Carpenter, will be the nucleus of the forward division. King tips the beam at 220 pounds this season, while Carpenter, the Pomona boy, weighs 183.

The California backfield that furnished such a sensation last year is not so badly shot to pieces as was at first supposed. Capt. Johnny Stroud is huskier and faster than ever. Morris will be in at half, with Canfield as an understudy. "Chet" Allen, the brilliant center three, will be on the job, while Tom Dills and "Clint" Evans, the two Pomona veterans, will be likely men for the wings. Merle Price of San Bernardino is out strong for the fullback job, while Sterling Peart, the veteran of two big games, may be switched closer in this season.

Dave Brant of Los Angeles will be a contender for a berth in the side rank this year, while there are a number of the men who played last year with the freshmen against U. S.C. who can be counted as varsity material. McKim of Pomona has taken on extra weight, while Holden, Hoskins, Hunt, Crane, Fenstermacher, Dettlefson and Hollister have all got a chance.

Three freshmen have been added to the varsity squad, and more will get a workout as they show their ability. Witter of Oakland is the smallest man to get a chance, as he only weighs 137. Montgomery, from Lowell, is a first-year man, who has made a great showing at fullback, and many predict that he will prove to be a second Dwiggins.

On Saturday the varsity will play its first game with the Barbarians, while the freshmen will be pitted against Berkeley High.

Thirty-seven freshmen have already been dropped from the freshman squad, and in the course of a week at least fifty more men will be eliminated. The freshmen are an especially husky lot this year, and Coach Schaeffer wants to get the squad down to workable size, so that he can figure on some of the men for the varsity.

Fred Allen, the champion broad jumper of the Blue and Gold track team, has been elected president of the Big "C" Society at the university. Allen was the only representative that California had at the Olympic Games this summer.

Ralph Coane was elected vice-president, while "Trav" Hutton, the little varsity coxswain from Los Angeles, was elected secretary. Earle Crabbe, the distance man, was named for treasurer.

The track squad is busy with cross-country running this fall in preparation for the strenuous fall season being planned by Capt. Harry Wood. There are a number of good distance men at the university, and the fall cross-country runs are just the exercise that is needed.

FOUR CLASSY GOLFERS TO MEET IN FINALS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WHEATON (Ill.) Sept. 5.—Jerome Travers of Upper Montclair will play Hamilton Kerr of Ekwanok, and Charles Evans, Jr., of Edgewater, will play Warren K. Wood of Homewood tomorrow in the semi-final rounds of the national amateur golf championship.

Travers had some trouble in defeating Mason Phelps and Kerr had to play 37 holes to oercome Paul Hunter. Evans had easy work in eliminating H. Schmidt of Worcester, while Wood won by default.

Norman F. Hunter, the Edinburgh player who carried the hopes of the English contingent after Harold Hilton was eliminated, tonight is in bed in the club domitory with cold compresses on his head to ward off a threatened heat prostration. The collapse of Hunter put Wood in the semi-finals and gave him a chance to rest during the afternoon, while the others were playing under a broiling sun.

Hunter's physicians said a night's rest in the care of nurses would put him out of danger. Hunter finished the morning round in 40, 39, 79, equal to his average over these links, but he played the last nine holes in distress.

WHITE AFTER SCALP OF CHAMPION KILBANE.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Charley White, the Chicago featherweight whose recent notable victories over Owen Moran and Johnny Dundee, placed him in the top rank, is hot on the trail of Johnny Kilbane, champion of the division.

White has already fought Kilbane, the battle taking place in Cleveland before Johnny became champion. It was a no-decision bout and the Clevelang papers, favoring the home lad, gave Kilbane a slight shade. Unbiased spectators however, thought White would have had the decision had an impartial referee been called upon to decide the battle.

White's manager, Nat Lewis, today posted $1000 with a local sporting writer to bind a match with Kilbane and agreed to let the money go as a side bet in the event of the champion taking the defi. Kilbane has already declined several good offers to meet White and Lewis intends to start a countrywide campaign of publicity in his effort to force Kilbane into a match.
